Religions In Dialogue:

Religions in Dialogue Alan Race, Ingrid Shafer, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Judaism Christianity and Islam as Abrahamic religions share much theological common ground and the momentum for dialogue between them at theological levels has greatly increased in recent decades This book explores the relationship between religion and the modern democratic state from the perspective of these three monotheistic traditions It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good As part of the test of religious ideals some of the contributions bring theory down to earth by examining the role of religion in three democratic states with different histories Turkey Indonesia India and also in relation to a culture of human rights Drawing together leading Muslim Christian and Jewish authors from America Europe and Asia the book presents a rare collaboration of faiths and ideas to make a contribution to studies of inter religious dialogue and the changing role of religion in the democratic state Cultures and Religions in Dialogue Panikkar, Raimon, 2018-12-20

Theology and the Dialogue of Religions Michael Barnes, 2002-03-14 Theology of religions is an area of theological reflection on inter religious relations which raises fundamental questions for all people of faith in a pluralist post modern world How to practise a religious faith with integrity while respecting other claims to ultimate truth Must the other always be regarded as a problematic complication on the fringes of a Christianity centred world Is there a third way between an all dominating exclusivism and a vapid relativism This book contributes to the debate about the place of inter religious relations in the life of the Church by developing a theology of dialogue In offering a critique of much current thinking in this area Michael Barnes SJ proposes instead a theology rooted in the themes of welcome and hospitality He argues for a vision of Christianity as a school of faith a community called not just to teach others but to learn from them as well

World Cultures and World Religions Hendrik Kraemer, 2003-06 The meeting of Christianity and the non Christian religions the impact of East on West and West on East the clash of cultures and the movement of divine and human forces that are changing the pattern of man s life form the basis of Kraemer s magisterial book He deals historically with the world situation as he sees it because history determines the mood in which East and West approach this coming dialogue In a series of masterly chapters Kraemer surveys the position of the world s religions deeply enmeshed in socio cultural systems that create both barriers to change but impetus towards evolution The dialogue with the grand elusive Eastern systems of humanist thinking demands searching thought fundamental re adjustment of methods and readiness to find fresh points of contact It will however vindicate the personal conception of the living God as manifest in Jesus Christ The key word of Oriental philosophies is Harmony glossing over the glaring disharmonies of man s life This is the heart of the dialogue that Kraemer discusses backed by his vast experience and learning Kraemer provides a formative and fundamental tool for Christians and all who are aspire to an intelligent and penetrative understanding of the religious and cultural life of the world

Religion and Dialogue in the City Julia Ipgrave, Thorsten Knauth, Anna Körs, Dörthe Vieregge, Marie von der Lippe, 2018 Urban spaces throughout Europe are increasingly characterised by a mixture of different religions and worldviews Being home to a wide range of religious and non religious groups and individuals does not mean that cities are automatically also spaces of interreligious and interfaith encounters Whether a city is a venue for interreligious encounter and dialogue or merely a place where various religions and worldviews exist side by side is a central question for the continuing social cohesion of modern societies This volume presents selected findings of the international research project Religion and Dialogue in Modern Societies ReDi which investigated dialogical practice in the five metropolitan cities Oslo Stockholm London Hamburg and Duisburg It offers a range of case studies addressing two fields of activity dialogue and interreligious encounters in the urban space and dialogue in education

Christianity and World Religions Hans Küng, 1993 Küng joins with three esteemed colleagues to address the question Can we break through the barriers of noncommunication fear and mistrust that separate the followers of the world's great religions The authors analyze the main lines of approach taken by Islam Hinduism and Buddhism and give Christian responses to the values and challenges each tradition presents Cultures and Religion in Dialogue Raimon Panikkar, 2018-06-26 Religions in Dialogue CB Zacharias P. Thundy, 1985 Controversies in Interreligious Dialogue and the Theology of Religions Paul Hedges, 2010 This latest volume in the Controversies in Contextual Theology series provides an introduction to the current state of the field for those new to interreligious dialogue and the theology of religions as well as providing insights and new concepts that will be of interest to specialists In particular the current deadlock between pluralist and particularist approaches is reimagined and a strong argument for radical openness to the religious Other is advanced based upon the resources of the Christian heritage The book draws inspiration from many sources including intercultural theology feminist theologies of religions comparative theology postcolonial identity theory scholarly debates on the nature of religion and biblical concepts of hospitality to outline its new approach It concludes that we must seek mutual fulfillment with religious Others while maintaining Christian integrity It also addresses the problems this involves when seeking ethical partnership across religious boundaries No easy answers are given however a vision for radical openness based on Jesus' example the Christian heritage and contemporary scholarship is endorsed Religions in Dialogue, 19??

Truth and Dialogue John Hick, 1974 American ed published under title Truth and dialogue in world religions

The Im-possibility of Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2008 In the face of competing religious claims in our shrinking world many turn to dialogue as a hopeful way of fostering understanding and reducing violence But why does actual dialogue so often fail This provocative study investigates the possibilities and limits of interreligious dialogue By showing the significant obstacles for dialogue within Christianity the book also proposes ways in which these obstacles may be overcome from within Major themes include Humility Conviction Interconnection Empathy and Generosity Oppositions of Religious Doctrines William Armistead Christian, 1972-06-18 Talking Dialogue Karsten Lehmann, 2021-02-22

Throughout the last two decades the modern dialogue movement has gained worldwide significance. The knowledge about its origins is however still very limited. This book presents a wide range of insights from eleven case studies into the early history of several important international interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations that have shaped the modern development of interreligious dialogue from the late nineteenth century up to the present. Based on new archival research they describe on the one hand how these actors put their ideals into practice and on the other how they faced many challenges as pioneers in the establishment of new interreligious interfaith organizational structures. This book concludes with a comparison of those case studies bringing to light new and broader historico-sociological understanding of the beginnings of international and multi-religious interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations over more than one century.

The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious Dialogue Catherine

Cornille, 2020-06-08. This comprehensive volume brings together a distinguished editorial team including some of the field's pioneers to explore the aims, practice, and historical context of interfaith collaboration. Explores in full the background, history, objectives, and discourse between the leaders and practitioners of the world's major religions. Examines relations between religions from around the world, moving well beyond the common focus on Christianity to also cover over 12 major religions. Features a wealth of case studies on contemporary interreligious dialogue. Charts a long-term shift away from a competitive rivalry between belief systems and a change in focus towards the more respectful, cooperative approach reflected in institutions such as the World Council of Churches. Includes up-to-date commentary on the growing dialogue of recent years written by some of the leading figures working in the field of interfaith discourse.

Christianity and the Religions

Jacques Dupuis, 2002. In this incisive and important volume Jacques Dupuis offers new insights on the most important issue facing Christian theology today: giving an account of Christian faith as Christians go more deeply along the road of dialogue and collaboration with the followers of other religious traditions. His task is to square a dogmatic circle: How does one do justice to the Gospel claim that Jesus the Christ is the final and universal savior of all humankind in every age while also doing justice to the experience that truth, grace, holiness, and power are experienced in other religious traditions? In the first six chapters Dupuis reviews the history of the Western Christian tradition's teaching on other religious Ways through the breakthrough at Vatican Council II In chapters 7 and 8 he reviews the critical issues of uniqueness of Christ and Christian proposals to account for the mediation of salvation in other religious Ways He discusses also the relationship between the Reign of God the Church and the Religions In chapter 9 he explores the nature and role of dialogue in a pluralistic society In chapter 10 offers sage reflections on interreligious prayer World Christianity Encounters World Religions Edmund Kee-Fook Chia,2018-10-23 Synthesizing the thinking of the most prominent scholars Professor Edmund Chia discusses practically everything that should be known about Christianity's encounter with other religions in this comprehensive book Topics include the invention of the idea of World Religions and World Christianitythe Bible and the church's attitude toward other faithsVatican II Asian Christianity and interfaith dialoguethe what why when and how of dialoguethe global ecumenical movementtheologies of religious pluralismcross textual hermeneuticscomparative theologyinterfaith worshipreligious syncretismmultiple religious belonginginterfaith learning in seminaries Partners in Dialogue Arnulf Camps,1983
