The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000 Beyond Physicalism Edward F. Kelly,Adam Crabtree,Paul Marshall,2015-02-19 The rise of modern science has brought with it increasing acceptance among intellectual elites of a worldview that conflicts sharply both with everyday human experience and with beliefs widely shared among the world s great cultural traditions Most contemporary scientists and philosophers believe that reality is at bottom purely physical and that human beings are nothing more than extremely complicated biological machines On such views our everyday experiences of conscious decision making free will and the self are illusory by products of the grinding of our neural machinery It follows that mind and personality are necessarily extinguished at death and that there exists no deeper transpersonal or spiritual reality of any sort Beyond Physicalism is the product of an unusual fellowship of scientists and humanities scholars who dispute these views In their previous publication Irreducible Mind they argued that physicalism cannot accommodate various well evidenced empirical phenomena including paranormal or psi phenomena postmortem survival and mystical experiences In this new theory oriented companion volume they go further by attempting to understand how the world must be constituted in order that these rogue phenomena can occur Drawing upon empirical science metaphysical philosophy and the mystical traditions the authors work toward an improved big picture of the general

character of reality one which strongly overlaps territory traditionally occupied by the world's institutional religions and which attempts to reconcile science and spirituality by finding a middle path between the polarized fundamentalisms religious and scientific that have dominated recent public discourse Contributions by Harald Atmanspacher Loriliai Biernacki Bernard Carr Wolfgang Fach Michael Grosso Michael Murphy David E Presti Gregory Shaw Henry P Stapp Eric M Weiss and Ian Whicher Journeys East Harry Oldmeadow, 2004-04-28 This is the first book to treat the impact of religious philosophical and psychological traditions of the East on Western intellectuals artists travellers and spiritual seekers in the twentieth century Addressed to both general readers and scholars of religion it is especially valuable for its penetrating and inter religious analysis of two of the most compelling themes now facing the world the emergence of cross cultural religious understanding of the natural order and ecological crisis and the metaphysical basis for both the formal diversity and essential unity of religious traditions of both East and West The West has long romanticized the mysterious East but it has also judged its traditions as uncivilized Our notions about Eastern spirituality have been formed by a succession of travellers scientists artists intellectuals poets philosophers and missionaries as well as by Eastern travellers who have spent time in the West This book helps us to recognize the influence of Eastern ideas upon modern Western thought by tracing the history of engagements between East and West up until the present day It concludes with a section that helps us to perceive the timeless value of the many Eastern contributions to the West's current intellectual and spiritual state Buddhism Nancy Wilson Ross, 2011-01-05 A clear exhilarating exposition of the Buddhist way well understood well made fun to read and simple in the very best sense of the word just as it should be Peter Matthiessen National Book Award Winner of In Paradise A fascinating volume that explains the origins development and basic principles of the religion followed by nearly one quarter of the people on earth The Trespass of the Sign Kevin Hart, 1991-08-30 The Trespass of the Sign offers an account of the relations between deconstruction and theology Kevin Hart argues that contrary to popular thought on the topic deconstruction does not have an antitheological agenda Rather deconstruction seeks to question the metaphysics of any theology Hart pays particular attention to mystical theology as nonmetaphysical theology From publisher's description
