Religious Autobiographies:

Religious Autobiographies ,2004      Religious Autobiographies Gary Comstock,1995 This anthology includes autobiographies of both men and women from diverse multicultural contexts It presents religion as a lived experience avoiding an overly theoretical approach The main goal of the book is to help students acquire the ability to think with empathy about the other and critically about religion and to do so while providing a multicultural and gender balanced set of readings      Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers      Autobiography and the Psychological Study of Religious Lives ,2008-01-01 This volume positions itself on the cutting edge of two fields in psychology that enjoy rapidly increasing attention both the study of human lives and some core domains of such lives as religion and spirituality are high on the agenda of current research and teaching Biographies and autobiographies are being approached in new ways and have become central to the study of human lives as an object of research and a preferred method for obtaining unique data about subjective human experiences Ever since the beginning of the psychology of religion autobiographies have also been pointed out as an important source of information about psychic processes involved in religiosity In this volume a number of leading theoreticians and researchers from Europe and the USA try to bring them back to this field by drawing on new insights and latest developments in psychological theory      British Autobiography in the Seventeenth Century Paul Delany,2015-08-14 Originally published in 1969 In the seventeenth century neither the literary genre nor the term autobiography existed but we see in seventeenth century literature many kinds of autobiographical writings to which their authors gave such titles as Journal of the Life of Me Confessions etc This work is a study of nearly two hundred of these published and unpublished which together represent a very varied group of writings The book begins with an examination of the rise of autobiography as a genre during the Renaissance It discusses seventeenth century autobiographical writings under two main headings religious where the autobiographies are grouped according to the denomination of their writer and secular where a wide variety of writings is examined including accounts of travel and of military and political life as well as more personal accounts Autobiographies by women are treated separately and the author shows that they in general have a deeper revelation of sentiments and more subtle self analyses than is found in comparable works by men Sources and influences are recorded and also the essential historical details of each work This book gives a critical analysis of the autobiographies as literary works and suggests relationships between them and the culture and society of their time Review of the original publication a contribution to cultural history which is of quite exceptional merit Its subject is of great intrinsic interest and manifest importance and Professor Delany has treated it with exemplary thoroughness lucidity and intelligence Lionel Trilling A Classified Catalogue of Theological and Religious Books, Comprising a Large Collection of Standard Works, American and Foreign Smith, English & Co,1871 The Indian Autobiographies in English RCP Sinha,2013-02-28 Self portrayal has become an integral part of modern culture and India equally shares this universal mood A large number of Indians have committed themselves to the writing of their autobiographies in English as well as in the regional languages It is exciting to know that those in English have been produced by some of the finest minds of the country such as Raja Rammohun Roy Lal Behari Day Surendra Nath Banerjee Bipin Chandra Pal Lala Lajpat Rai Mahatma Gandhi Rabindranath Tagore Jawaharlal Nehru Subhash Chandra Bose P C Roy S Radhakrishnan Sachchidanand Sinha and Nirad C Chaudhury It is highly fascinating to read their testimony in the shaping of modern Indian history Even more exciting are the glimpses into their private lives and the interrelation between the portrait and the man This study is the first comprehensive attempt to critically evaluate these works and shows how in modern times Indians begin to get over the proverbial Indian inhibition in talking of private affairs hesitatingly first and then with a devastating even embarrassing frankness This study in passing also tries to dispel the impression that no autobiographical tradition existed in ancient and medieval India A Dictionary of Christian Biography and Literature to the End of the Sixth Century A.D. Henry Wace,William Coleman Piercy,1911

Autobiographical Biblical Criticism ,2019-05-21 The autobiographical turn in biblical criticism reveals the interpreter's I and reclaims it as an essential critical category issuing a challenge to traditional objective criticism Pioneers in the field have contributed essays both practical and theoretical They offer stimulating autobiographical readings of Hebrew Bible and New Testament texts and address hermeneutical issues that are at stake in this young field of criticism American Lives Robert F. Sayre,1994 American Lives is a groundbreaking book the first historically organized anthology of American autobiographical writing bringing us fifty five voices from throughout the nation's history from Abigail Adams Abraham Lincoln Jonathan Edwards and Richard Wright to Quaker preacher Elizabeth Ashbridge con man Stephen Burroughs and circus impresario P T Barnum Representing canonical and non canonical writers slaves and slave owners generals and conscientious objectors scientists immigrants and Native Americans the pieces in this collection make up a rich gathering of American songs of ourselves Robert F Sayre frames the selections with an overview of theory and criticism of autobiography and with commentary on the relation between history and many kinds of autobiographical texts travel narratives stories of captivity diaries of sexual liberation religious conversions accounts of political disillusionment and discoveries of ethnic identity With each selection Sayre also includes an extensive headnote providing valuable critical and biographical information A scholarly and popular landmark American Lives is a book for general readers and for teachers students and every American scholar

George Fox ; an Autobiography George Fox,1903

Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson,2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one s humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self examination of one s most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one s sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes

The Social Life of Tibetan Biography Amy Holmes-Tagchungdarpa, 2014-07-30. The Social Life of Tibetan Biography explores the creation of Tibetan religious authority in Tibetan cultural areas throughout East Inner and South Asia through engaging with the relationship between textual biography and social community in the case of the Eastern Tibetan yogi Tokden Shakya Shri 1853-1919. It explores the different mechanisms used by Shakya Shri's community in the creation of his biographical portrait to develop his lineage, including the use of biographical tropes, details of interpersonal connections, educational and patronage networks, and representations of sacred site creation and maintenance. In doing so, this study decenters Tibetan and Himalayan religious history through recognizing that peripheries could act as alternative centers of authority for diverse Tibetan Buddhist communities.
