The Religious Experience of Mankind Ninian Smart, 1976      The Religious Experience of Mankind, by Ninian Smart Ninian Smart, 1971      Law, Freedom and Story John C. Hoffman, 2013-11-30 Rarely has an author illuminated in one book an aspect of religious study with attention to so many disciplines John Hoffman skilfully interrelates the fields of psychology mythology anthropology literature and New Testament studies to show their common use of narration techniques Hoffman explains how the storytelling nature of myths parables and psychotherapy seeks to heal and to bring wholeness to both the individual and to a social grouping Bringing into this discussion the tension between law the stabilizing factor of a society and freedom the spontaneous and creative urges that move outside of social order Hoffman shows how rituals function to affirm the order of the culture in which they exist yet as they open up the realm of the imagination they provide the possibility for disruption For as long as fantasy is a part of narration both in telling and hearing the social order can be both criticized and superseded Hoffman clearly sets his work within the genre of Crossan Perls Jaffe Turner Grimes Buechner and Eliade Carefully examining the work of Tom Driver and John Cobb he expresses the need to go beyond traditional structures and formulations in order to move theology closer to narrative A narrative form Hoffman argues can both affirm faith and invite believers to transcend its expression and break free of its strictures providing for an ever more dynamic theology

Harold Ellens, 2007-11-30 Today most people feel less interested in religion and more interested in spirituality If you ask what they mean they will tell you that organized religion tends to turn them off but nonetheless they feel a hunger in the heart that they cannot seem to fill They do not mean that they would rather have disorganized religion they mean that institutional religion does not seem to satisfy their spirits and feel there must be something more some better way of experiencing whatever that is for which they are hungry Much new experimentation is going on as a result Some of it is a search for the meaning to fill the soul and satisfy the spirit much of it is a search for meaning on the spiritual level itself Spirituality reaches always toward the question about the meaning of God the meaning of relationships with others the meaning of intimacy and the meaning of soul gratifying insights into truth Here Ellens carefully and sensitively explores the full range of our spiritual natures and the variety of spiritual experiences of which we are capable describing the way our souls and psyches work in our hunger and thirst for meaning He explains in an enlightening and unconventional way why and how every human desires to reflect upon learn and share a heartfelt experience of God and of others Readers will find in this book a description of the meaning of the biblical stories about spiritual experiences in addition to descriptions of the kinds of spiritual experiences that ordinary people are having how they are achieving them and the ways in which they are filling their lives with meaning that goes beyond the horizons of material life The author paints this picture in such a way as to let us in on what biblically based authentic spirituality and spiritual experience really is and why it may or may not necessarily have anything to do with traditional institutionalized religion He carefully and vividly explains the notion of spirituality as it is illustrated in the Bible and discusses spiritual experiences such as prayer epiphany visions and other experiences He considers whether spirituality is mainly a connection with God with others or with both Readers hoping to get a better sense of what it means to be spiritual will have many of their questions answered in these pages
