Religious Life at the Crossroads David A. Fleming, 1985-01-01      Beyond the Crossroads Hereford, CSJ, Amy, 2019-08-29 Building on her previous important work Religious Life at the Crossroads Sister Amy Hereford draws attention to emerging currents particularly among the smaller cohorts of younger religious to reflect on the ongoing meaning of vows formation community and mission amidst the rapidly changing currents in the church and society      The Vows of Religious Life in a Secular Society Judith A. Merkle, 2025-08-21 This book investigates religious vows shedding light on the type of faith that can sustain humanity in secular times It examines the personal impact of religious life as well as its potential to foster a sense of completeness within society at large Unbelief in today's society can be partially rooted in the shallowness of the sort of religion that the secular can abandon Such a religion characterized as magical shallow illusory or rooted solely in external rituals lacks the depth required to thrive in a secular society It fails to address the profound aspects of human existence the authentic freedom of the spirit and the enduring obedience of faith This study of religious vows uncovers their deeper meanings in light of these challenges It invites us to consider whether religious life despite contemporary criticisms can be seen as touching wholeness This book does not only delve into the theological foundations of these vows but also key areas which impact their understanding and living in new contexts It surveys sociological landscapes and goes beyond to encompass shifts in science psychology theology Religious life in this sense is part of the renewal of the church as well as an agent in it By focusing briefly on each vow Judith A Merkle illustrates how religious life serves as a bridge connecting the secular and the sacred It is a life focused on love of God and service of others which is a witness to the coming of Kingdom of God and values which truly matter in contemporary society      Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live
