it may arouse thought and discussion and to this end a positive statement seems desirable In the first three chapters I have made some use of my earlier book The Religion of Numa and I wish to thank the Messrs Macmillan for their kind permission to treat the same subject again in this connection In the story of Christianity I have received much help from Monseigneur Duchesne's Origines a book where profound and critical scholarship is marvelously blended with reverence and devotion In the later period one is always unconsciously influenced by Gibbon while Gregorovius and Hodgkin afford many valuable suggestions I regret that Warde Fowler's Religious Experiences of the Roman People did not appear in time for me to make use of it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
