The Oxford Handbook of British Romantic Prose Robert Morrison,2024 The Oxford Handbook of British Romantic Prose is a full length essay collection devoted entirely to British Romantic nonfiction prose Organized into eight parts each containing between five and nine chapters arranged alphabetically the Handbook weaves together familiar and unfamiliar texts events and authors and invites readers to draw comparisons reimagine connections and disconnections and confront frequently stark contradictions within British Romantic nonfiction prose but also in its relationship to British Romanticism more generally and to the literary practices and cultural contexts of other periods and countries The Handbook builds on previous scholarship in the field considers emerging trends and evolving methodologies and suggests future areas of study Throughout the emphasis is on lucid expression rather than gnomic declaration and on chapters that offer not a dutiful survey but evaluative assessments that keep an eye on the bigger picture yet also dwell meaningfully on specific paradoxes and the most telling examples Taken as a whole the volume demonstrates the energy originality and diversity at the crux of British Romantic nonfiction prose It vigorously challenges the traditional construction of the British Romantic movement as focused too exclusively on the accomplishments of its poets and it reveals the many ways in which scholars of the period are steadily broadening out and opening up delineations of British Romanticism in order to encompass and thoroughly evaluate the achievements of its nonfiction prose writers

The Adeodatus Handbook on Catholic Education and Culture: Volume 1 Alex E. Lessard, R. Jared Staudt, 2025-06-27 Catholic education stands in need of renewal for it too has experienced the consequences of the rupture of faith and reason in the modern period Secularism affects Catholic schools as well as public ones when faith remains confined solely to a religion class or the celebration of the Mass Our past provides a model of integration the unity of divine revelations and the liberal arts and a life of wisdom that pursues what is truly highest Modern people too often settle for less little comforts and distractions while the theologians philosophers and educators of the past spur us on to stop at nothing less than God's invitation to enter his divine life This first volume of the Adeodatus Handbook seeks to provide inspiration to return to the central vision of Catholic education an integrated approach to the liberal arts that flows from God's initiative toward us and is ordered toward eternal union with him The essays of this volume unfold the narrative offered in this introduction in more detail We consider them to be the most essential figures who have established the Catholic approach to education Two of them Plato and Aristotle were pagan authors who formed the philosophical basis of the Catholic approach The others flowing from the Incarnation of the Son of God appropriated the truths of nature contemplated by philosophy and drew them into a sacramental synthesis with the truths of divine revelation There can be no genuine Christian education that does help the student to contemplate the whole of reality and to live a life of wisdom rooted in the virtues that perfect human nature while ultimately receptive of the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit The majority of the figures addressed in this volume are canonized saints pointing us to the priority of holiness in Catholic education Education serves the ultimate aim of human life our perfect happiness in the beatific vision To reach this we need the support of mentors and friends This requires the concrete embodiment of Christian community within the home and school It can also however flow from our communion with the great sainted educators of our heritage We have inherited their legacy and with their prayers and support we have been tasked with continuing in our own age We will not be able to replicate their efforts but with the grace and inspiration of the Holy Spirit we can make our contribution in educating the youth young adults seminarians and lay people of the Church of God
