Revolutionary Fictions Marlene L. Daut, Grégory Pierrot, Marion C. Rohrleitner, 2022-01-25 The Haitian Revolution 1791 1804 was the first antislavery and anticolonial uprising led by New World Africans to result in the creation of an independent and slavery free nation state The momentousness of this thirteen year long war generated thousands of pages of writing This anthology brings together for the first time a transnational and multilingual selection of literature about the revolution from the beginnings of the conflicts that resulted in it to the end of the nineteenth century With over two hundred excerpts from novels poetry and plays published between 1787 and 1900 and depicting a wide array of characters including Anacaona Makandal Boukman Toussaint Louverture Jean Jacques Dessalines and Henry Christophe this anthology provides the perfect classroom text for exploring this fascinating revolution its principal actors and the literature it inspired while also providing a vital resource for specialists in the field This landmark volume includes many celebrated authors such as Alexandre Dumas

Victor Hugo Heinrich von Kleist Alphonse de Lamartine William Wordsworth Harriet Martineau and William Edgar Easton but the editors also present here for the first time many less well known fictions by writers from across western Europe and both North and South America as well as by nineteenth century Haitian authors refuting a widely accepted perception that Haitian representations of their revolution primarily emerged in the twentieth century Each excerpt is introduced by contextualizing commentary designed to spark discussion about the ongoing legacy of slavery and colonialism in the Americas Ultimately the publication of this capacious body of literature that spans three continents offers students scholars and the curious reader alike a unique glimpse into the tremendous global impact the Haitian Revolution had on the print culture of the Atlantic world New World Studies The Best Men's Monologues from New Plays, 2019 Lawrence Harbison, 2019-11-14 Renowned editor Lawrence Harbison brings together approximately one hundred never before published men's monologues for actors to use for auditions and in class all from recently produced plays The selections include monologues from plays by both well known playwrights and future stars including Jonathan Yukitch Don Nigro Lloyd Su Daniel Damiano Molly Goforth Carlyle Brown Seth Svi Rosenfeld Brian Dykstra Steven Hayet David MacGregor and Nat Cassidy There are terrific comic pieces laughs and terrific dramatic pieces no laughs and all represent the best of contemporary playwriting This collection is an invaluable resource for aspiring actors hoping to ace their auditions and impress directors and teachers with contemporary pieces The Playwright's Voice David Savran, 1999 These 15 interviews illustrate the diversity of modern American theater and examine what makes it a unique art form Savran English Brown U discusses the work artistic influences and the state of contemporary American theater and its meaning and purpose with artists including Tony Kushner Jose Rivera Ntozake Shange and Anna Deveare Smith Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Playwright's Muse Joan Herrington, 2013-05-13 August Wilson penned his first play after seeing a man shot to death Horton Foote began writing plays to create parts for himself as an actor Edward Albee faced commercial pressures to modify his scripts and resisted After Wit Margaret Edson swore off playwriting altogether and decided to keep her day job as a kindergarten teacher instead The Playwright's Muse presents never before published interviews with some of the greatest names of American drama all recent winners of the Pulitzer Prize In these scintillating exchanges with eleven leading dramatists we learn about their inspirations and begin to grasp how the creative process works in the mind of a writer We learn how their first plays took shape how it felt to read their first reviews and what keeps them writing for theater today Introductory essays on each playwright's life and work written by theater artists and scholars with strong professional relationships to their subjects provide additional insight into the writers' contributions to contemporary theater Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz, 2019-12-12 London's West End is a global success story staging phenomenal hit shows that have delighted millions of spectators and generated billions of pounds in revenue In Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz provides a thematic survey of such popular theatre shows that were enormous commercial successes over the past 75 years He argues that these outstanding hits have a lot to say about the collective cultural social and political attitudes and aspirations of the country and about how our national identity and theatre's role in creating it has evolved over the decades The book spans a range of work from almost forgotten plays such as R F Delderfield's Worm's Eye View and Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical light comedy sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre

Palmieri, 1980 A thorough and detailed study of this playwright's remarkable long and productive career that stretched from 1914-1963 and included over 50 plays and a Pulitzer Prize It establishes that Rice's impact on the American theater probably surpasses that of any other American playwright

The Playwright's Last Audience Miranda Stokes, 2024-12-06 The world is abuzz with anticipation for Alina Vostrikov's The Unseen not just a play but an immersive experience a seductive dance between reality and illusion Within the opulent decay of the Orpheum Theatre Alina a visionary playwright cloaked in enigmatic melancholy orchestrates her final masterpiece a farewell steeped in both breathtaking artistry and a chilling unspoken secret Every line of dialogue every flicker of light is a meticulously placed domino in a game whose rules remain tantalizingly hidden Elara Vance haunted by a past she can't quite grasp finds herself drawn into The Unseen's unsettling embrace At first captivated she soon feels a creeping unease The actors' words echo her deepest fears their faces shifting blurring the line between stage and life The city itself transforms into a distorted mirror of the play and a terrifying question takes root is Alina Vostrikov scripting Elara's life As Elara's world unravels Detective Silas Thorne investigates a string of disappearances linked to the Orpheum Haunted by his own past he becomes convinced that The Unseen holds the key His investigation collides with Elara's spiraling paranoia forging an uneasy alliance against the rising tide of the play's influence Woven within the novel is the complete script of The Unseen a living document that shifts and evolves alongside Elara's growing understanding of Alina's machinations Each performance ratchets up the tension Alina's control fraying as her secrets threaten to shatter the meticulously crafted illusion In a climactic final performance the play spills over into reality blurring the lines between audience and actors trapping them in a terrifying crescendo of Alina's design Elara guided by the evolving script must confront Alina and uncover the devastating truth behind The Unseen before it consumes them all Will she break free from the play's grip or become its final victim
