Elements of African Bioethics in a Western Frame B. Tangwa, 2010-11-01

For millennia Africans have lived on the African continent in close contact with the diversities of nature floral faunal and human and in so doing they have developed cultures values attitudes and perspectives to the problems ethical and otherwise that have arisen from the existential pressures of their situation The problem however is that such values and perspectives do not necessarily form coherent ethical theories Theory making is a second order activity requiring a certain amount of leisure and comfort which the existential conditions of life on the African continent have not easily permitted in the retrospect able past The elements of African bioethics are to be found in its cultural values traditions customs and practices These are research able highlight able and usable by those who would The bioethical problems of our current global existential situation are such that all possible solutions no matter their provenance ought to be tried Western culture has far too loud a voice combined with deaf ears in contemporary ethical discourse But it should never be forgotten that other cultures have their own word to say and that alternative values ways of thinking and practices exist and attempt should always be made to bring these out and to highlight them if they could possibly contribute to the satisfactory solution of a global problem This book brings together various papers on bioethical issues and problems written at different times some previously published each of which attempts to bring out some African elements perspective or concern The African narrative style predominates through these essays but their framing conforms more or less to the Western paradigm for presenting academic issues

Impacts of Incarceration on the African American Family Othello Harris, R. Robin Miller, The criminal justice system has driven a wedge between black men and their children African American men are involved in the criminal justice system whether through incarceration probation or parole at near epidemic levels At the same time the criminal justice system has made little or no institutional efforts to maintain or support continuing relationships between these men and their families Consequently African American families are harmed by this in countless ways from the psychological physical and material suffering experienced by the men themselves to losses felt by their mates children and extended family members The volume opens with an introduction and brief review by R Robin Miller Sandra Lee Browning and Lisa M Spruance outlining the impacts of incarceration on the African American family Brad Tripp explores changes in family relationships and the identity of incarcerated African American fathers Mary Balthazar and Lula King discuss the loss of the protective effect of marital and nonmarital relationships and its impact on incarcerated African American men and the implications for African American men and those who work with them in the helping professions Theresa Clark explores the relationship between visits by family and friends and the nature of inmate behavior In a research note Olga Grinstead Bonnie Faigeles Carrie Bancroft and Barry Zack investigate the actual costs families incur to maintain contact with family members be it emotional social or financial Patricia E O Connor uses data from sociolinguistic interviews of male inmates from a maximum security prison to study how some of these men manage to continue to fulfill the fatherhood role long distance In a concluding chapter Sandra Lee Browning Robin Miller and Lisa Spruance focus on actions of the criminal justice system that undermine the black family on reasons that black male inmate fathers are studied so rarely and discuss the role restorative justice may play This insightful volume fills a void in the literature on the role of African American men in the functioning of families It will be of interest to students of African American studies social workers and policy makers The Gender

Politics of HIV/AIDS in Women Nancy Goldstein, Jennifer L Manlowe, 1997-06 From their posts at the center of the pandemic in the laboratory the academy clinics and community based organizations experts such as Evelyn Hammonds Risa Denenberg Michelle Murrain and Paul Farmer criticize blind spots in the recognition and treatment of HIV in women and articulate accessible and practical solutions to specific areas of difficulty Theorizing Black Feminisms Abena P. A. Busia, Stanlie M. State-Building and Multilingual Education in Africa Ericka A. Albaugh, 2014-04-24 This book explains why many governments in Africa are including African languages alongside European languages as media of instruction in elementary schools It argues that a number of factors have combined to make multilingual education attractive France has changed its foreign policy toward its former colonies language NGOs are transcribing more languages and pressure toward democracy makes African leaders look for ways to divide the opposition Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1960 If Bill Gates Were An African... Cliff Awah, 2024-05-15 It is not a common feat for an African to produce a well researched work on the life of one of America's richest persons and put it alongside Africa's predicaments In this spell bounding publication Cliff brings in the African continent with its rich natural and human resources but with a very sorry story He has masterfully explained the colonization of Africa and Africans by European Powers But the wounds and scars of slavery which were aggravated by the impact of colonialism tribalism Neo colonialism and the failure of African leaders and policy makers to create a conducive atmosphere for the socio economic and political development of African countries are largely responsible for the miseries in Africa In this soul searching book Africans and more especially African leaders policy makers and businessmen and women should not willy nilly transplant what exists in the USA and or in Europe but should rather adapt what is good taking into account the African context Victor Julius Ngoh Foreword If Bill Gates Were An African is a wakeup call appealing to the consciences of Africans especially its leaders to make use of the various cultures and civilizations of the world to build a better Africa the Africa we want that meets the needs and aspirations of Africans An Africa with Good Governance free from corruption embezzlement nepotism and a land of freedom and opportunities for Africans to exploit and have better living conditions worthy of their human dignity Cliff Awah Preface African American Religious Studies Gayraud S.

Wilmore,1989 This anthology provides a coherent interdisciplinary theoretical base for students of African American religious studies and will assist in the design of programs and courses for lay theological education and training To this end the editor has assembled material from Old and New Testament studies theology church history pastoral counseling worship and social action African Immersion Julius A. Amin,2014-12-18 Based on previously unused primary sources including extensive interviews in Cameroon personal journals diaries responses to questionnaires and a variety of secondary sources this study is a critical analysis of US study abroad programs in Africa Using the University of Dayton Cameroon Immersion program as a case study the work examines different aspects of experiential learning including selection orientation activities of US college students in Cameroon post immersion meetings and impact of program The nation of Cameroon and University of Dayton are uniquely ideal for the study as Cameroon is considered Africa in miniature and serves as a window to understanding many of Africa s political economic cultural and social complexities Located in the American Midwest the University of Dayton while unique shares many similarities with other American universities The study expands the boundaries of scholarship on study abroad By comparing the impact of the African experience on students to that of Returned Peace Corps Volunteers who served in that continent the study opens up avenues for comparative analyses Africa is vital to the global community and with its complex political economic cultural and social systems offers important lessons to understanding students ability to adapt to change in a rapidly changing global environment The African American

Voice in U.S. Foreign Policy Since World War II Michael L. Krenn,2019-08-08 Following World War II America was witness to two great struggles The first was on the international front and involved the fight for freedom around the globe as millions of people in Asia and Africa rose up to throw off their European colonial masters In the decades following 1945 dozens of new nations joined the ranks of independent countries Following the Civil War the African American voice in U S foreign affairs continued to grow In the late nineteenth century a few African Americans such as Frederick Douglass even served as U S diplomats to the black republics of Liberia and Haiti When America began its overseas thrust during the 1890s African American opinion was divided Intimate Histories Nadja Klopprogge,2024-04-01 Intimate Histories focuses on intimate relations as sites of shared pasts connecting African American and German history in the years between 1933 and 1990 By tracing topics that include anti miscegenation laws forced sterilization casual sexual encounters marriage and friendships Intimate Histories broadens our understanding of African American German relations during the so called
