The Bulletin, 2001 The American Review of Reviews Albert Shaw, 1919 Criminal Woman, the Prostitute, and the Normal Woman Cesare Lombroso, Guglielmo Ferrero, 2004-01-16 Cesare Lombroso is widely considered the founder of the field of criminology. His theory of the born criminal dominated discussions of criminology in Europe and the Americas from the 1880s into the early twentieth century. His book La donna delinquente originally published in Italian in 1893 was the first and most influential book ever written on women and crime. This comprehensive new translation gives readers a full view of his landmark work. Lombroso's research took him to police stations, prisons and madhouses where he studied the tattoos, cranial capacities and sexual behavior of criminals and prostitutes to establish a female criminal type. Criminal Woman, the Prostitute and the Normal Woman anticipated today's theories of genetic criminal behavior. Lombroso used Darwinian evolutionary science to argue that criminal women are far more cunning and dangerous than criminal men. Designed to make his original text accessible to students and scholars alike, this volume includes extensive notes, appendices, a glossary and more than thirty of Lombroso's own illustrations. Nicole Hahn Rafter and Mary Gibson's introduction locating his theory in social context offers a significant new interpretation of Lombroso's place in criminology.
