Rembrandt The Master His Workshop:

Rembrandt? Lene Bøgh Rønberg, Eva de la Fuente Pedersen, Ernst van de Wetering, Statens museum for kunst (Denmark), 2006 Rembrandt, the Master & His Workshop Christopher Brown, 1991 Because of the world's veneration for Rembrandt and the lack of documentary evidence about his work scholars have vastly overestimated his productivity By the middle of this century more paintings drawings and etchings were attributed to this beloved artist than one man could possibly have created Recently research has been done to establish a body of work that can be securely attributed to Rembrandt and to identify other paintings and drawings previously associated with Rembrandt as the work of artists who studied in his studio Drawing on this research these books on Rembrandt's paintings drawings and etchings provide for the first time a clear picture of the division of work that was done in Rembrandt's workshop Rembrandt, 1991

Rembrandt, the Master & His Workshop: Drawings and etchings Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn, 1991

Rembrandt Christopher Brown, Sally Salvesen, 1991 Rembrandt is an artist who has excited exceptional interest since his own lifetime the remarkable combination of his work his complex personal relationships his financial difficulties and the relative lack of documentary evidence has generated a vast body of scholarship As a result by the middle of this century innumerable paintings and drawings were attributed to Rembrandt and a romantic mythology had replaced the facts of his life The Rembrandt Research Project comprising the foremost Rembrandt scholars based in Amsterdam has undertaken the formidable task of establishing a body of works which can be securely attributed to Rembrandt This has resulted in the deattribution of many paintings once unquestioningly accepted as Rembrandt's Others have focused on artists known to have studied in Rembrandt's workshop and the attribution of paintings to these students This magnificent book unites these two strands of research to present for the first time a clear picture of Rembrandt's relationship with the members of his workshop The book also serves as a catalogue of the exhibition organised by curators from Berlin Amsterdam and London galleries which have three of the finest collections of Rembrandt's It includes essays on Rembrandt's biography and social status his technique the organisation of his workshop and the history of critical response to him The catalogue contains detailed study of fifty one paintings by Rembrandt providing a chronological overview of his entire output from his earliest subjects to the last self portrait This is followed by sections for pupils including Ferdinand Bol Gerrit Dou and Nicolaes Maes in which paintings once given to Rembrandt are reattributed to members of his workshop and related to paintings known to be by them Thus readers may judge these new ideas for themselves on the basis of the evidence provided Inside jacket flap

The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits,2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public s ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently

The World Created in the Image of Man Vladimir Evseevich Brodskii,2010 The World Created in the Image of Man investigates the development of the third dimension in painting from the dramatic moment when spatial construction becomes charged with an external force antagonistic to the effort of forms or human figures to preserve their permanence The competitive contact between the external and internal worlds represented in the picture brings a vital element to the unfolding of art as it occurs in both the West and the East As the analysis of masterpieces from different historical periods and cultures demonstrates here this vital impulse becomes a necessary part of pictorial composition and the measure of the quality of the work of art It can reveal itself in a limitless and disparate variety of subject matter a scene from Japanese court life as depicted in the illustrations of the early twelfth century to the novel The Tale of Genji a representation of the maternal feeling of the Virgin anticipating the fate of her child in Byzantine icon painting Raphael s universal interior in The School of Athens Rembrandt s allegory of historic continuity in Aristotle with the Bust of Homer The progression of this dynamic eventually leads to the surrender of form to space with the Impressionists and to the conclusion of the book which considers Postmodern art in the form of the installation where the emphasis is put on the unprecedented role of the viewer as a component of the work and which suggests an environment that is totally alien or even hostile to him Art historians students of art history and the educated general reader with an interest in painting will find this book a rewarding and stimulating read Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition
