Remedies Under The Trade Practices Act:

Remedies in Australian Private Law Katy Barnett, Sirko Harder, 2018-09-07 The second edition of Remedies in Australian Private Law offers readers a clear and detailed introduction to remedies and their functions under Australian law. Clearly structured with a strong black letter law focus, the text provides a complete treatment of remedies in common law, equity, and statute and develops a framework for understanding the principles of private law remedies and their practical application. This edition has been significantly revised and offers up-to-date coverage of case law and legislation, including the Australian Consumer Law. Building on the detailed treatment of remedies and their broad functions across a range of private law categories, the new edition also offers expanded coverage of vindictory damages, debt-specific restitution, and coercive remedies. With its systematic and accessible approach, this text enables students and practitioners to develop a coherent understanding of remedial law and to analyse legal problems and identify appropriate remedial solutions. Remedies

Remedies Under the Trade Practices Act David M. Wright, 2003 Consumer redress for misleading and aggressive practices Great Britain: Law Commission, 2011-04-12 The Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008. The Regulations prohibit misleading and aggressive trade practices. The Regulations implemented a European directive replacing 23 previous UK consumer protection measures, including most of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968. They are enforced mainly by the Office of Fair Trading and by trading standards services. Under current law, consumers do not have a right to compensation if a trader breaches the Regulations. Instead, consumers must rely on a variety of private causes of action, some statutory, some based on case law. These are complex, confusing, and patchy. This Consultation Paper aims to: 1. simplify redress for misleading commercial practices; 2. simplify redress for aggressive commercial practices; and 3. fill gaps in protection where a consumer is unable to gain redress for serious breaches of the Regulations.
