Migration Kate Darian-Smith, Paula Hamilton, 2019-08-10 This book provides the first comprehensive study of diverse migrant memories and what they mean for Australia in the twenty first century Drawing on rich case studies it captures the changing political and cultural dimensions of migration memories as they are negotiated and commemorated by individuals communities and the nation Remembering Migration is divided into two sections the first on oral histories and the second examining the complexity of migrant heritage and the sources and genres of memory writing The focused and thematic analysis in the book explores how these histories are re remembered in private and public spaces including museum exhibitions heritage sites and the media Written by leading and emerging scholars the collected essays explore how memories of global migration across generations contribute to the ever changing social and cultural fabric of Australia and its place in the world National and Transnational Memories of the Kindertransport Amy Williams, William Niven, Bill Niven, 2023 The first transnational study of the memory of the Kindertransport and the first to explore how it is represented in museums memorials and commemorations The Kindertransport the rescue of ca 10 000 Jewish children from the Nazi sphere of control and influence before the Second World War has often been framed as a British story This book recognizes that even though most of the Kinder were initially brought to the UK and many stayed it was more than that It therefore compares British memory of the Kindertransport to that of other host nations the US Canada Australia and New Zealand It is the first book to ask how the Kindertransport is remembered both in the countries of origin particularly Germany and in the host nations as well as the first to analyze how it is represented in museums memorials and commemorations Seeing memory of the Kindertransport in the host nations and in Germany as significantly different the study argues that the different national memory discourses around the Nazi persecution of Jews shape the respective countries images of the Kindertransport and that those images in turn shape the discourses especially in Britain Yet while national memory frameworks remain crucial to how the Kindertransport is remembered the book also documents the increasing significance of transnational memory trends that link the host nations with each other and with the countries from which the children

Landscape, Race and Memory Divya Praful Tolia-Kelly,2016-04-22 Memory is seldom explored through the experience of geographically mobile racialized populations Whilst the relationships between the political value of landscape and national memory have previously been written through there has been little mention of postcolonial diasporic racialized citizens Using both visual and material culture this book examines the value of landscape and memory for postcolonial migrants living in Britain It uses memory to examine how postcolonial citizenship in Britain is experienced through remembered citizenships of other geographies abroad By reflecting on the cultural landscapes of British Asian women the book reveals social historical narratives about migration citizenship and belonging New spaces of memory are presented as mobile and as politically charged with meaning as the more formal spaces of memorialization The book offers a refiguring of race memory as being critical to English heritage and postcolonial politics and makes an important contribution to the writings on memory race and landscape The Rose ,1859 We Walk in Memory's Garden Stephanie Meier,2022-07-26 After finding letters from her ancestors Stephanie Meier decided to publish their story in the form of a novel Their fate carried the family across three continents and through two world wars We Walk in Memory's Garden is Stephanie Meier's first book The Rose, Thistle and Shamrock Ferdinand Freiligrath,1874 The Rose, Thistle and Shamrock.
