Reminiscence Of A Forgotten War:

Reminiscence of a Forgotten War Frank O. Pruitt, 1999 Reminiscence of a Forgotten War Frank Pruitt, 2004-02 The memoirs of Frank O Pruitt and his Korean War service with the 40th Division in 1952 and 1953 It covers his service as a rifle platoon leader in E Company and Company Commander of Tank Company of the 223rd Infantry Regiment The book is more of a study of the characters and personalities of the officers and men of the 223rd Regiment and 40th Division than a combat narrative The author develops the tension and interplay which occurred when the regular Army officers who had been assigned to the stateside airborne divisions were released from those assignments in 1952 and anxiously sought assignment in combat units before the war was concluded It is the story of life and combat on the Main Line of Resistance in the Kumwha Valley Punch Bowl and Heartbreak Ridge The book deals with the retraining of the Division at Kapyong during the Summer of 1952 and the conversion of a National Guard Division into a combat tested regular Army unit led by regular Army Airborne officers eager to join the fight The author a late World War II OCS graduate was recalled to service as a reserve officer in June of 1951 and describes the stateside retraining replacement pipeline and Japanese R R experience He returned to Korea in September of 1998 and accompanied by a Korean guide revisited sites where he served at Kumwha Kapyong and the Punch Bowl His account is a blueprint for those interested in more than the quick in and out Korean Veterans package tour or for those veterans or their families who want additional insight into the Korean War experience and what has occurred to this troubled land in the last 50 years World War II Reminiscences Col. John H. Roush, Jr., 2013-03 This volume presents a dramatic collection of significant combat experiences of 79 men in WWII as told from one combat veteran to another In the 86 chapters are stories involving all the various branches of combat service and all of the various theaters of war Within reminiscences veterans of dangerous encounters are much more apt to open up with details in discussions with men who have also experienced combat Many find it emotionally distressing to talk of the war with the general public or to recall the horrors of warfare This is not a history book nor any attempt to tell the big picture of grand campaigns Instead it is a collection of personal involvements in one at a time incidents of conflict Many ask what was it like in WWII for our conflicts in recent years have been vastly different It has been said that war has become and continues to be an intractable social phenomenon While some say its elimination is necessary to the survival of mankind we do not seem to have approached closer to that elimination in the sixty seven years since WWII ended Encounters of Warfare remain a stark reality within the present era That being so perhaps we should read of what happened as recalled in the most vivid memories of men involved in the most overpowering conflict of modern warfare Sincerely John Roush Rhetoric in Martial Deliberations and Decision Making Ronald H. Carpenter, 2004 In this study of the discourse involved in martial deliberations Ronald H Carpenter examines the rhetoric employed by naval and military commanders as they recommend specific tactics and strategies to peers as well as presidents Drawing on ideas of rhetorical thinking from Aristotle to Kenneth Burke Carpenter identifies two concepts of particular importance to the military decision making process prudence and the representative anecdote The Rotarian ,1999-12 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine

,1912 Generals of the Army James H. Willbanks,2013-05-01 A concise account of the extraordinary careers of the five men who had perhaps the greatest impact on the US military of the late twentieth century Andrew Wiest author of The Boys of 67 Charlie Company s War in Vietnam Formally titled General of the Army the five star general is the highest possible rank awarded in the U S Army in modern times and has been awarded to only five men in the nation s history George C Marshall Douglas MacArthur Dwight D Eisenhower Henry H Arnold and Omar N Bradley In addition to their rank these distinguished soldiers all shared the experience of serving or studying at Fort Leavenworth Kansas where they gained the knowledge that would prepare them for command during World War II and the Korean War In Generals of the Army James H Willbanks assembles top military historians to examine the connection between the institution and the success of these exceptional men Historically known as the intellectual center of the Army Fort Leavenworth is the oldest active Army post west of Washington D C and one of the most important military installations in the United States Though there are many biographies of the five star generals this innovative study offers a fresh perspective by illuminating the ways in which these legendary figures influenced and were influenced by Leavenworth This concise volume offers an intriguing look at the lives of these remarkable men and the contributions they made to the defense of the nation An excellent review of the lives and challenges on and off the battlefield during trying times for our country Ike Skelton Former Chairman House Armed Services Committee US Congress History and Reminiscence, from the Records of Old Settlers Union of Princeville and Vicinity Old settlers' union of Princeville and vicinity, Princeville, Ill,1912 Reminiscences of a War-time Statesman and Diplomat, 1830-1915 Frederick William Seward,1916 Reminiscences of the Civil War John Brown Gordon,1903 GENERAL JOHN B GORDON S last work was the publishing of his Reminiscences of the Civil War This volume written in his vigorous style and broad patriotic spirit has been most favorably received and read all over the country Since his death this memorial edition is brought out and it is appropriate that an additional introduction should accompany it somewhat in the shape of a biographical sketch General John Brown Gordon was an all round great man a valiant and distinguished soldier an eminent statesman a great orator an author of merit and a public spirited and useful citizen He was born in Upson County Georgia February 6 1832 His father was the Rev Zachary Herndon Gordon The family was of Scotch extraction and its members fought in the Revolutionary War He received his education at the university of his native State and by profession was a lawyer At the breaking out of the war in 1861 he enlisted as a private soldier and was elected captain of his company His career was perhaps as brilliant as that of any officer in the Confederate army In rapid succession he filled every grade that of Major Lieutenant Colonel Colonel Brigadier General Major General and near the end was assigned to duty as Lieutenant General by authority of the Secretary of War and while he never received the commission in regular form he commanded at the surrender at Appomattox one half of the Army of Northern Virginia under Robert E Lee At the close of the war he had earned the reputation of being perhaps the most conspicuous and personally valiant officer surviving and the one generally regarded as most promising and competent for increased rank and larger command His imposing and magnificent soldierly bearing coupled with his splendid ringing voice and far reaching oratory made him the White plumed Knight of our Southland and the Chevalier Bayard of the Confederate Army He had the God given talent of getting in front of his troops and in a few magnetic appeals inspiring them almost to madness and being able to lead them into the jaws of death This was notably done at Fredericksburg and again on the 12th of May at the battle of Spottsylvania Court House He greatly distinguished himself on many bloody fields I mention now as most prominent the battles of Seven Pines Sharpsburg or Antietam the Wilderness Spottsylvania Court House Cedar Creek Petersburg and Appomattox At Sharpsburg he was wounded five times but would not leave his troops till the last shot laid him helpless and insensible on the field A scholarly professor of history in one of our Southern universities recently stated that in his study of the great war on both sides he had found but one prominent general who when he was in command or when he led a charge had never been defeated or repulsed and that general was John B Gordon War Papers and Personal Reminiscences ,1892 Reminiscences of Peace and War Sara Agnes Rice Pryor, 2019-12-18 Reminiscences of Peace and War is a book based on author's journals which is intended to contribute to public discourse about the Civil War. In this book Mrs Pryor wrote about antebellum society but also defended the Confederacy as did fellow writers Virginia Clay Clopton and Louise Wigfall Wright. The United Daughters of the Confederacy UDC recommended the works of these three for serious studies by other women. Reminiscences of Peace and War Sara Agnes Rice Pryor, 1905

Some Reminiscences of World War II Frank D. Bergstein, 2010 The late Frank D Bergstein served in the 29th Division of the U S Army from July 1941 until late 1945. He commanded Headquarters Company 115th Regimental Combat Team 29th Division when it landed on Omaha Beach and for the long months of combat after the invasion. He wrote these memoirs in the late 1980s at the urging of his family and friends. At various times in the past mostly surrounded by an attentive audience of loved ones and friends Frank would expound on his wartime experiences. This compilation by him Some Reminiscences of World War II presents a few of those more poignant memories revealing observations and sometimes caustic comments he was persuaded to put in writing by his family. The work was completed and typed during the period of April 10 1988 through April 8 1989. Readers are fortunate that this task was accomplished before his passing Christmas Eve 2002. The main body of Frank's work is organized into twenty-four consecutive chapters that are focused on his most important memories of that time. He was a warrior in battle and later as a successful businessman inventor and industrialist he remained a warrior never forgetting the lessons learned during World War II.
