Reminiscences of the Links Albert Warren Tillinghast,1998      Storying Later Life Gary Kenyon,Ernst

Bohlmeijer,William L. Randall,2010-12-20 In its brief but vigorous history gerontology has spawned a broadening range of specializations One of the newest of such specializations is narrative gerontology so named for its emphasis on the biographical or inside dimensions of the experience of aging Telling stories about our world our relationships and ourselves is fundamental to how we make meaning Everything from our history to our religion and our memories to our emotions is linked to the tales we tell ourselves and others about where we have come from and where we are going They are central to who we are The biographical side of human life is every bit as critical to fathom as the biological side if we seek a more balanced positive and optimistic perspective on what aging is about if we would honor the dignity and complexity the humanity and uniqueness of the lives of older persons no matter what their health or economic standing In this respect a narrative approach is particularly suited to the exploration of such topics as meaning spirituality and wisdom and the connections they share This volume reflects a selection of new directions and insights and constitutes a general broadening and deepening of narrative gerontology exploring its implications for theory and research in the field of aging and for the quality of life of older adults themselves Such deepening indicates a greater refinement of thought method and intervention The evolution of narrative gerontology is also evidenced by a significant increase in the number of faculty and graduate students engaged in research in this area as well as by increasing collaboration among researchers practitioners and administrators in applying narrative insights to contexts such as long term care indeed healthcare in general These initiatives have given rise to the phrase narrative care as core care      Reminiscences of Golf on St.Andrews Links, 1887 James

Bill Mallon, Randon Jerris, 2011-01-21 Golf has been called the greatest of all games but it has also been derided by none other than Mark Twain as nothing more than a good walk spoiled. Traditional teaching holds that golf originated in Scotland around the 15th century. However, there is historical evidence of games similar to golf being played in the low countries of Europe back in the 13th century. Over the many centuries of golf's evolution, the balls used have changed greatly, as have the clubs, the holes, the courses, and the entire game itself. The Historical Dictionary of Golf presents a comprehensive history of the game through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, photos, and over 300 cross-referenced dictionary entries on places, teams, terminology, and people, including Arnold Palmer, Greg Norman, Lee Trevino, Jack Nicklaus, Annika Sorenstam, Lorena Ochoa, Phil Mickelson, and of course Tiger Woods. Appendixes of the members of the World Golf Hall of Fame, the Major Championships of Golf, the International Team Events, and the Professional Tour Awards are also included. The Reminiscence Skills Training Handbook Ann Rainbow, 2018-10-24 This easy-to-use guide provides an accessible workbook for reminiscence skills training. It includes information on the history and definition of reminiscence work, the value of the reminiscence experience to older people and their carers, as well as practical ideas and suggestions on how to use reminiscence in a beneficial and therapeutic way, how to set up, run, and maintain group and individual reminiscence activities, training points, and training activities for each section to enhance understanding by making links with the personal experience of the reader, and emphasis on the role of reminiscence work in the social and emotional care of ethnic minority elders, people with dementia, and older people who have been bereaved. This handbook will not only help to promote reminiscence work but also enhance everyday communication between carers and older people. A Selection from Scrutiny F. Leavis, 1968 Collected Essays Q. D. Leavis, 1983-11-10 Queenie Dorothy Leavis was one of the best critics of the novel. Her primary interest was in the English novel in its greatest period, the nineteenth century, but she had wide interests and wrote on the American novel as well, and her anthropological view of literature caused her to ask how the novel rose and why it flourished, and that occasioned her to look at European literatures. Her published essays appeared as articles or reviews of remarkable trenchancy in Scrutiny or as lectures or introductions to editions of classic novels. They have been much read, but she never collected them in her lifetime. They are here reprinted in three volumes. The whole is prefaced by her own A Glance Backward 1965 concerning her life and work, and there is an introduction by the editor Professor G. Singh.
