Reminiscences of Tolstoy Graf Ilia Lvovich Tolstoi, 1914-01-01 IN one of his letters to his great aunt Alexandra Andreyevna Tolstoy my father gives the following description of his children The eldest Sergei is fair haired and good looking there is something weak and patient in his expression and very gentle His laugh is not infectious but when he cries I can hardly refrain from crying too Every one says he is like my eldest brother I am afraid to believe it It is too good to be true My brother s chief characteristic was neither egotism nor self renunciation but a strict mean between the two He never sacrificed himself for any one else but not only always avoided injuring others but also interfering with them He kept his happiness and his sufferings entirely to himself Ilya the third has never been ill in his life broad boned white and pink radiant bad at lessons Is always thinking about what he is told not to think about Invents his own games Hot tempered and violent wants to fight at once but is also tender hearted and very sensitive Sensuous fond of eating and lying still doing nothing Tanya Tatyana is eight years old Every one says that she is like Sonya and I believe them although I am pleased about that too I believe it only because it is obvious If she had been Adam s eldest daughter and he had had no other children afterward she would have passed a wretched childhood The greatest pleasure that she has is to look after children Reminiscences

 Contemporaries, 2002-12 Never before had such a voice sounded in Europe It is little to say that we were thrown into raptures by the creative genius of Tolstoy It became part of our life became our very own wrote Romain Rolland one of Tolstoy's greatest contemporaries This book is neither a biography nor a literary portrait It is the voice of the times in which Tolstoy lived These reminiscences contributed by people from widely different circles by Tolstoy's wife and children whose contributions give us a true picture of the great writer's private life by writers artists and actors who were his friends by comrades who accompanied him on the military campaigns in which he took part by the doctors who tended him by people who served as prototypes of characters from his novels by teachers in his school at Yasnaya Polyana by peasants of Yasnaya Polyana representing that human ocean whose flux and flow Tolstoy followed with such rapt attention all of them taken together present the total impression that Tolstoy made upon his generation In a word the pages of this book reveal to the reader the wisdom and inner conflict of the man whom Gorky has called a one man orchestra the most complicated of all great men of the 19th century
