Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov Maxim Gorky, Alexander Kuprin, I Bunin, 2012-06-07 A shadow of sadness crossed his beautiful eyes little rays of wrinkles surrounded them and made them look still more meditative Then looking round he said jestingly You see I have fired off at you a complete leading article from a radical paper Come I ll give you tea to reward your patience That was characteristic of him to speak so earnestly with such warmth and sincerity and then suddenly to laugh at himself and his speech In that sad and gentle smile one felt the subtle skepticism of the man who knows the value of words and dreams and there also flashed in the smile a lovable modesty and delicate sensitiveness Anton Tchekhov Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, 1965-05-01 Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov Kuprin, Gorky, Bunin, 2014-07-07 Once he invited me to the village Koutchouk Koy where he had a tiny strip of land and a white two storied house There while showing me his estate he began to speak with animation If I had plenty of money I should build a sanatorium here for invalid village teachers You know I would put up a large bright building very bright with large windows and lofty rooms I would have a fine library different musical instruments bees a vegetable garden an orchard There would be lectures on agriculture mythology Teachers ought to know everything everything my dear fellow He was suddenly silent coughed looked at me out of the corners of his eyes and smiled that tender charming smile of his which attracted one so irresistibly to him and made one listen so attentively to his words Does it bore you to listen to my fantasies I do love to talk of it If you knew how badly the Russian village needs a nice sensible educated teacher We ought in Russia to give the teacher particularly good conditions and it ought to be done as quickly as possible We ought to realize that without a wide education of the people Russia will collapse like a house built of badly baked bricks A teacher must be an artist in love with his calling but with us he is a journeyman ill educated who goes to the village to teach children as though he were going into exile He is starved crushed terrorized by the fear of losing his daily bread But he ought to be the first man in the village the peasants ought to recognize him as a power worthy of attention and respect no one should dare to shout at him or humiliate him personally as with us every one does the village constable the rich shop keeper the priest the rural police commissioner the school guardian the councilor and that official who has the title of school inspector but who cares nothing for the improvement of education and only sees that the circulars of his chiefs are carried out It is ridiculous to pay in farthings the man who has to educate the people It is intolerable that he should walk in rags shiver with cold in damp and draughty schools catch cold and about the age of thirty get laryngitis rheumatism or tuberculosis ANTON CHEKHOV - The Man Behind The Books: Letters, Diary, Memoirs & Biography Anton Chekhov, 2017-08-07 Musaicum Books presents to you ANTON CHEKHOV The Man Behind The Books Letters Diary Memoirs perhaps too in the presence of beauty intelligence nature but not before men Among men you must be conscious of your dignity Why you are not a rascal you are an honest man aren t you Well respect yourself as an
