Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2015-04-22 Presents an encyclopedia of American Indian literature in an alphabetical format listing authors and their works Other Words Jace Weaver, 2001 Eloh a Cherokee word is usually translated by anthropologists as religion but it also simultaneously encompasses history culture knowledge law and land In this provocative work Jace Weaver interlaces these seemingly disparate meanings to form a coherent approach to Native American Studies In nineteen interrelated chapters Weaver presents a range of experiences shared by native peoples in the Americas from the distant past to the uncertain future He examines Indian creative output from oral tradition to the postmodern wordplay of Gerald Vizenor and brings to light previously overlooked texts Weaver also tackles up to the minute issues including environmental crises Native American spirituality repatriation of Indian remains and cultural artifacts and international human rights Deep Waters Christopher B. Teuton, 2018-11-01 Weaving connections between indigenous modes of oral storytelling visual depiction and contemporary American Indian literature Deep Waters demonstrates the continuing relationship between traditional and contemporary Native American systems of creative representation and signification Christopher B Teuton begins with a study of Mesoamerican writings Din sand paintings and Haudenosaunee wampum belts He proposes a theory of how and why indigenous oral and graphic means of recording thought are interdependent their functions and purposes determined by social political and cultural contexts The center of this book examines four key works of contemporary American Indian literature by N Scott Momaday Gerald Vizenor Ray A Young Bear and Robert J Conley Through a textually grounded exploration of what Teuton calls the oral impulse the graphic impulse and the critical impulse we see how and why various types of contemporary Native literary production are interrelated and draw from long standing indigenous methods of creative representation Teuton breaks down the disabling binary of orality and literacy offering readers a cogent historically informed theory of indigenous textuality that allows for deeper readings of Native American cultural and literary expression Postindian Aesthetics Debra K. S. Barker, Connie A. Jacobs, 2022-05-03 Postindian Aesthetics is a collection of critical cutting edge essays on Indigenous writers who are creatively and powerfully contributing to a thriving Indigenous literary aesthetic This book argues for a literary canon that includes Indigenous literature that resists colonizing stereotypes of what has been and often still is expected in art produced by American Indians The works featured are inventive and current and the writers covered are visionaries who are boldly redefining Indigenous literary aesthetics The artists covered include Orlando White LeAnne Howe Stephen Graham Jones Deborah Miranda Heid E Erdrich Sherwin Bitsui and many others Postindian Aesthetics is expansive and comprehensive with essays by many of today s leading Indigenous studies scholars Organized thematically into four sections the topics in this book include working class and labor politics queer embodiment national and tribal narratives and new directions in Indigenous literatures By urging readers to think beyond the more popularized Indigenous literary canon the essays in this book open up a new world of possibilities for understanding the contemporary Indigenous experience The volume showcases thought provoking scholarship about literature written by important contemporary Indigenous authors who are inspiring critical acclaim and offers new ways to think about the Indigenous literary canon and encourages instructors to broaden the scope of works taught in literature courses more broadly ContributorsEric Gary Anderson Ellen L Arnold Debra K S Barker Laura J Beard Esther G Belin Jeff Berglund Sherwin Bitsui Frank Buffalo Hyde Jeremy M Carnes Gabriel S Estrada Stephanie Fitzgerald Jane Haladay Connie A Jacobs Daniel Heath Justice Virginia Kennedy Denise Low Molly McGlennen Dean Rader Kenneth M Roemer Susan Scarberry Garc a Siobhan Senier Kirstin L Squint Robert Warrior Processes on the Early Earth W. history and forging a new path for Native American studies Addressing Native American Studies past present and future the essays in New Indians Old Wars tackle the discipline head on presenting a radical revision of the popular view of the American West in the process Instead of luxuriating in its past glories or accepting the widespread historians view of the West as a shared place Elizabeth Cook Lynn argues that it should be fundamentally understood as stolen Firmly grounded in the reality of a painful past Cook Lynn understands the story of the American West as teaching the political language of land theft and tyranny She argues that to remedy this situation Native American studies must be considered and pursued as its own discipline rather than as a subset of history or anthropology She makes an impassioned claim that such a shift not merely an institutional or theoretical change could allow Native American studies to play an important role in defending the sovereignty of indigenous nations today Early Earth Systems Hugh R.
