Italian Gardens of the Renaissance and Other Studies (Classic Reprint) Julia Cartwright,2015-08-05 Excerpt from Italian Gardens of the Renaissance and Other Studies These sketches on Renaissance Gardens and their makers were first written at the suggestion of a lamented friend whose memory is honoured and cherished by men and women of all classes and nationalities throughout Italy Enid Lady Layard Everything connected with Venice where she made her home for the last thirty five years of her life was dear to her more especially the traditions which linger about the palazzi and piazze the narrow canals and calli with which she had so close and intimate an acquaintance And she loved the villas and gardens of the mainland the district of Asolo and the Trevigiana the shores of the Brenta and the Lago di Garda the green slopes of the Berici and Euganean hills Nor was her love of Italy confined to any one province Umbria and Tuscany Fiesole and Settignano the stately fragments of Roman gardens the villas of Tivoli and the Campagna were alike dear to Lady Layard and her memory still haunts these enchanted regions About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Italian Gardens of the Renaissance, Etc. [With Plates, Plans and a Map]. John Chiene Shepherd (the Younger.),Geoffrey Alan Jellicoe,1966 Garden and Grove John Dixon Hunt,2016-02-15 Garden and Grove is a pioneering study of the English fascination with Italian Renaissance gardens John Dixon Hunt studies reactions of English visitors in their journals and travel books to the exciting world of Italian gardens its links with classical villas with Virgil and farming with Ovid and metamorphosis its association with theater its variety its staged debates between art and nature Then he looks at what

English visitors made of these Italian garden experiences upon their return home and at how they created Italianate gardens on their estates on their stages and in their poems With a wealth of literary and visual materials previously untapped Hunt provides a new history of an intriguing and vital phase of English garden history Not only does he suggest the centrality of the garden as a focus for many social aesthetic political and philosophical ideas but he argues that the so called English landscape garden before Capability Brown in the late eighteenth century owed much to a long and continuing emulation of Italian Renaissance models Italian Garden: Restoring a Renaissance Garden in Tuscany Cecilia Hewlett Cecilia Hewlett with Paul, 2018-04 The remarkable story of the project undertaken by Paul Bangay and Monash University to transform a neglected car park at the university's Prato campus in Tuscany into a traditional Renaissance walled garden befitting its location The Italian Garden is part restoration story part vicarious travel tale and a completely fascinating story of how the discovery fifty years ago of a series of neglected and hidden fifteenth century frescos led to the creation of the stunning Palazzo Vaj garden inspired by the water features grottos and planting symmetry of classic Italian Renaissance gardens
