7th UK Computer and Telecommunications Performance Engineering

Workshop Jane E. Hillston, Peter J.B. King, Robert J. Pooley, 2013-06-29 Performance engineering is a fast moving field where advances in technology mean that new issues constantly need to be addressed In response to this the UK Computer and Telecommunications Performance Engineering workshops were set up in 1985 to provide a valuable opportunity for the discussion and exchange of ideas They have subsequently become well established as the focus for academic and industrial practitioners from the UK and Europe with an interest in performance and modelling and analysis This volume contains the 16 papers which were presented at the 7th annual workshop held in Edinburgh in July 1991 The workshop highlighted various aspects of parallel computing an area which is attracting an increasing amount of interest and the work presented in these papers is of particular interest as the contributors used real analysis to evaluate their models The papers cover an unusually wide range of topics both practical and theoretical including advances in queueing theory common performance problems and their solutions assessments of available tools and presentations of new theoretical results The result is an extremely comprehensive coverage of this important and challenging field This volume provides an up to date assessment of work being carried out by performance engineers in the UK and Europe and will be an invaluable reference book for researchers and practitioners wishing to familiarise themselves with the benefits of performance and analysis

Arnhem 1944 Dilip Sarkar,2018-11-30 The airborne battle for the bridges across the Rhine at Arnhem ranks amongst the Second World Wars most famous actions inspiring innumerable books and the star studded 1977 movie This book however is unique deeply moved the author provides a fresh narrative and approach concentrating on the tragic stories of individual casualties These men were killed at different junctures in the fighting often requiring forensic analysis to ascertain their fates Wider events contextualize the authors primary focus effectively resurrecting casualties through describing their backgrounds previous experience and tragic effect on their families In particular the emotive and unresolved issue of the many still missing is explored During the course of his research the author made numerous trips to Arnhem and Oosterbeek traveled miles around the UK and spent countless hours communicating with the relatives of casualties achieving their enthusiastic support This detailed work conducted sensitively and with dignity ensures that these moving stories are now recorded for posterity Included are the stories of Private Albert Willingham who sacrificed his life to save civilians Major Frank Tate machine gunned against the backdrop of blazing buildings around Arnhem Bridge family man Sergeant George Thomas whose antitank gun is displayed today outside the Airborne Museum Hartenstein and Squadron Leader John Gilliard DFC father of a baby son who perished flying his Stirling through a hail of shot and shell during an essential re supply drop Is Private Gilbert Anderson who remains missing actually buried as an unknown the author asks Representing the Poles is Lance Corporal Czeslaw Gajewnik who drowned whilst escaping the hell of Oosterbeek and accounts by Dutch civilians emphasize the shared suffering sharply focussed by the tragedy of Luuk Buist killed protecting his family The sensitivity still surrounding German casualties is also explained This raw personal side of war the hopes and fears of ordinary men thrust into extraordinary circumstances is both deeply moving and revealing no longer are these just names carved on headstones or memorials in a distant land Through this thorough investigative work supported by those who remember them the casualties live again their silent voices heard through friends relatives comrades and unpublished letters So let us return to the fateful autumn of 1944 and meet those fighting in the skies on the landing grounds in the streets and woods of Oosterbeek and on the bridge too far at Arnhem Now the casualties can tell their own stories as we join this remarkable journey of discovery      Reaching for the Moon Roger D. Launius, 2019-06-25 Fifty years after the Moon landing a new history of the space race explores the lives of both Soviet and American engineers At the dawn of the space age technological breakthroughs in Earth orbit flight were both breathtaking feats of ingenuity and disturbances to a delicate global balance of power In this short book aerospace historian Roger D Launius concisely and engagingly explores the driving force of this era the race to the Moon Beginning with the launch of Sputnik 1 in October 1957 and closing with the end of the Apollo program in 1972 Launius examines how early space exploration blurred the lines between military and civilian activities and how key actions led to space firsts as well as crushing failures Launius places American and Soviet programs on equal footing following American aerospace engineers Wernher von Braun and Robert Gilruth their Soviet counterparts Sergei Korolev and Valentin Glushko and astronaut Buzz Aldrin and cosmonaut Alexei Leonov to highlight key actions that led to various successes failures and ultimately the American Moon landing      Applications of Tethers in Space, Volume 1 , 1985      Intelligent Robotics and Applications Honghai Liu, Naoyuki Kubota, Xiangyang Zhu, Rüdiger Dillmann, Dalin Zhou, 2015-08-19 This three volume set LNAI 9244 9245 and 9246 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Intelligent Robotics and Applications ICIRA 2015 held in Portsmouth UK in August 2015 The 60 papers included in the first volume are organized in topical sections on analysis and control for complex systems marine vehicles and oceanic engineering drives and actuators modeling biomechatronics in bionic dexterous hand robot actuators and sensors intelligent visual systems estimation and identification and adaptive control system      AB Bookman's Weekly , 1998      Distributed Computing Gadi Taubenfeld, 2008-09-10 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 22nd International Symposium on Distributed Computing DISC 2008 held in Arcachon France in September 2008 The 33 revised full papers selected from 101 submissions are presented together with 11 brief announcements of ongoing works all of them were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in the book The papers address all aspects of distributed computing including the theory design implementation and applications of distributed algorithms systems and networks ranging from foundational and theoretical topics to algorithms and systems issues and to applications in various fields      Eco-Warriors, Nihilistic Terrorists, and the Environment Lawrence E. Likar, 2011-04-07 The first book to thoroughly address the topic this volume examines the ideologies tactics and goals of environmental terrorists and offers a security planning methodology to defend against their attacks To counter eco terrorism we must understand why it occurs Eco Warriors Nihilistic Terrorists and the Environment is a comprehensive examination of the vulnerability of the natural environment of its nexus with the strategic goals of terrorists and of a security planning methodology that can prevent or ameliorate environmentally linked attacks The first book to comprehensively address the prevention of environmentally focused terrorism this work looks at the environment and the private and government facilities that impact it as assets to be protected Focusing on the capability of lone wolf terrorists and small self radicalizing cells to commit effective violent acts security expert Lawrence E Likar furnishes personality and operational profiles of both nihilistic and eco warrior terrorists showcasing an essential component of the behavioral science based security planning methodology he promotes Most critically the book addresses the gap in current security planning methodology and literature and it reveals novel intelligence gathering techniques operational procedures and countermeasures designed to defend against attacks     The U.S. Navy at Normandy Greg H. Williams,2020-11-02 In the many historical accounts of D Day the Navy Coast Guard and merchant marine who transported troops to the invasion beaches and supported the attack are often given scant attention Film clips of landing craft unloading men into the surf and battleships firing on enemy emplacements are familiar yet comparatively little is known about the contributions of the marine services and what they accomplished during the Normandy Invasion This book describes the Allied naval command structure for Operation Neptune and offers a comprehensive look at integrated offshore operations how they were organized who the sailors were and what they experienced     TV World ,1997 International business magazine for television     The English-speaking World ,1957 Includes the Union s Annual report     The Rough Guide to Scottish Highlands & Islands Rob Humphreys,Donald Reid,2013-10-17 The Rough Guide to Scottish Highlands and Islands is the ultimate travel guide to this spectacular region with clear maps and detailed coverage of Scotland s islands national parks and mountain areas Written in Rough Guides trademark honest and informative style The Rough Guide to Scottish Highlands and Islands features detailed practical advice on what to see and do and how to get about plus up to date reviews of the best hotels b bs pubs activity operators and campsites This guide covers everything from hiking in the Cairngorms to whale watching on Mull and where to find the best local produce from fresh oysters to fine malt whiskies There are also features on the area s unique wildlife and where to watch it plus outdoor activities from mountain biking and climbing to surfing and skiing Whatever your budget The Rough Guide to Scottish Highlands and Islands will help you find the make the most of your trip Now available in epub format Originally published in print in 2011     Workshop on the U.S. Antarctic Meteorological Data Delivery System Claire S.
