Rene Guenon Some Observations:

René Guénon Frithjof Schuon, 2004 René Guénon 1886-1951 was the founder of the Traditionalist School Along with Ananda K. Coomaraswamy and Frithjof Schuon he reintroduced traditional metaphysics and esoterism into the Western world after a lapse of centuries and was perhaps the first to present the doctrines of the Vedanta Taoism and Sufism not as Eurocentric orientalist or occult fantasists had done but strictly in their own terms To the mathematical precision of Guénon's metaphysics cosmology and esoteric history Frithjof Schuon 1907-1998 added a poetic or musical element inspired by his close relationship to the Divine Feminine He also presented the spiritual path as a concrete praxis involving the spiritual virtues and stations of wisdom that was not so prominent in Guénon's writings On the other hand Guénon's prophetic eschatology especially in The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times as well as his analysis of the counter tradition gives him an unexpectedly contemporary edge that is perhaps less prominent in Schuon's more aesthetic approach René Guénon and Frithjof Schuon illuminate each other both through their unanimity and the specific points where they differ Each is almost the only means of taking the other's measure Questions of who was greater who more traditional are finally less interesting than the tremendous vision of human reality and spiritual truth that emerges from their shared role as renewers of traditional metaphysics and religious understanding Schuon as the younger man was in a position to compose an evaluation of his early intellectual master and in view of his long and illustrious career as an author after Guénon's death Schuon's central essay René Guénon Some Observations is also his profoundly appreciative as well as pointedly critical declaration of independence though simultaneously a declaration of collegiality from the man who more than anyone else in the modern world opened to him a fundamental view of principal reality

Rene Guenon Frithjof Schuon, Rethinking Ibn 'Arabi

Gregory A. Lipton, 2018-04-02 The thirteenth century mystic Ibn Arabi was the foremost Sufi theorist of the premodern era For more than a century Western scholars and esotericists have heralded his universalism arguing that he saw all contemporaneous religions as equally valid In Rethinking Ibn Arabi Gregory Lipton calls this image into question and throws into relief how Ibn Arabi's discourse is inseparably intertwined with the absolutist vision of his own religious milieu that is the triumphant claim that Islam fulfilled superseded and therefore abrogated all previous revealed religions Lipton juxtaposes Ibn Arabi's absolutist conception with the later reception of his ideas exploring how they have been read appropriated and universalized within the reigning interpretive field of Perennial Philosophy in the study of Sufism The contours that surface through this comparative analysis trace the discursive practices that inform Ibn Arabi's Western reception back to the eighteenth and nineteenth century study of authentic religion where European ethno-racial superiority was wielded against the Semitic Other both Jewish and Muslim Lipton argues that supersessionist models of exclusivism are buried under contemporary Western constructions of religious authenticity in ways that ironically mirror Ibn Arabi's medieval absolutism

Rethinking Ibn 'Arabi Gregory A. Lipton, 2018 Exploring how the medieval mystic Ibn Arabi has been

read as an inclusive universalist through the interpretative field of Perennial Philosophy this book shows how his metaphysics is inseparably intertwined with Islamic supersessionism Ibn Arabi's universalist reception is thus traced to lineages of Eurocentrism revealing how Perennialism is itself exclusionary Frithjof Schuon and the Perennial Philosophy Harry Oldmeadow, 2010-04-16 This is the first comprehensive study of the intellectual and spiritual message of world renowned philosopher Frithjof Schuon 1907-1998 the foremost spokesman of the Perennialist or Traditionalist school of comparative religious thought Intended primarily as an introductory guide to Schuon's writings Harry Oldmeadow's book focuses on Schuon's exposition of metaphysics and the transcendent unity of religions his presentation of the religious traditions of East and West including the spiritual heritage of the American Indians his criticism of the modern world and his views on sacred art and beauty Also included is an overview of Schuon's paintings and poetry as well as his insights on prayer and virtue in the spiritual life This ground breaking work provides the general reader with a coherent and systematic account of the Perennial Philosophy and covers all aspects of Schuon's work Publisher's website A Christian Pilgrim in India Harry Oldmeadow, 2007-11-28 This book provides a biographical account of the remarkable Benedictine monk Henri Le Saux 1910-1973 who spent the last two and a half decades of his life in India where he immersed himself in Hindu spirituality It traces the central themes of his prolific writings on religious and mystical topics The World's Religions after September 11 Arvind Sharma, 2008-11-30 This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Convening on the fifth anniversary of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center the global congress The World's Religions after September 11 explored the negative and positive possibilities of the religious dimensions of life The presentations from the congress have been pulled together in this set which addresses religion's intersection with human rights spirituality science healing the media international diplomacy globalization war and peace and more This comprehensive set includes contributions from such well known scholars of religion as Arvind Sharma and a host of others from all the world's religious traditions This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Because of the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 the very concept of religion underwent a paradigm shift Instead of standing for virtue and piety peace and harmony the word religion also came to be inextricably associated with evil aggression and terror People around the world began to question whether the religious and secular dimensions of modern life can be reconciled whether the different religions of the world can ever coexist in harmony Indeed the very future of religion itself has sometimes seemed to be uncertain or at least suspect Frithjof Schuon Michael Oren Fitzgerald, 2010-08-19 Offering the most comprehensive biography of Frithjof Schuon 1907-1998 yet published Fitzgerald's work features quotations from Schuon's
