Renegotiating Local Values:

Alternative Development Cathrine Brun, Piers Blaikie, 2016-03-23 This book brings together a collection of essays that discuss alternative development and its relevance for local global processes of marginalization and change in the Global South. Alternative development questions who the producers of development knowledges and practices are and aims at decentring development and geographical knowledge from the Anglo American centre and the Global North. It involves resistance to dominant political economic processes in order to further the possibilities for non exploitative and just forms of development. By discussing how to unravel marginalization and voice change through alternative methods actors and concepts the book provides useful guidance on understanding the relationship between theory and practice. The main strength of the book is that it calls for a central role for alternative development in the current development discourse most notably related to justice rights globalization forced migration conflict and climate change. The book provides new ways of engaging with alternative development thinking and making development alternatives relevant.

Asian Perceptions of Nature Ole Bruun, Arne Kalland, 2014-02-25 This highly acclaimed bold and refreshing collection of essays takes a critical look at Asians perception of their natural environments as well as at Western views of Asia in this respect.

Historical Dictionary of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin, 2017-12-18 Malaysia is one of the most intriguing countries in Asia in many respects. It consists of several distinct areas not only geographically but ethnically as well along with Malays and related groups the country has a very large Indian and Chinese population. The spoken languages obviously vary at home although Bahasa Malaysia is the official language and nearly everyone speaks English. There is also a mixture of religions with Islam predominating among the Malays and others Hinduism and Sikhism among the Indians mainly Daoism and Confucianism among the Chinese but also some Christians as well as older indigenous beliefs in certain places. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Malaysia contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malaysia.

The Ethnopoetics of Space and Transformation Stuart C. Aitken, 2016-02-17 Change is inevitable we are told. A job is lost a couple falls in love children leave home an addict joins Narcotics Anonymous two nations go to war a family member's health deteriorates a baby is born a universal health care bill is voted into law. Life comprises events over which we have considerable partial or little or no control. The distance between the event and our daily lives suggests a quirky spatial politics. Our lives move forward depending upon how events play out in concert with our reactions to them. Drawing on nearly three decades of geographic projects that involve ethnographies and interviews with and stories about young people in North and South American Europe and Asia and using the innovative technique of ethnopoetry Aitken examines key life changing events to look at the interconnections between space politics change and emotions. Analysing the intricate spatial complexities of these events he explores the emotions that undergird the ways change takes place and the perplexing spatial politics that almost always accompany transformations Aitken positions young people as effective agents of change without romanticizing their political involvement as fantasy and unrealistic dreaming Going further he suggests that it is the emotional palpability of youth engagement and activism that makes it so potent and productive Pulling on the spatial theories of de Certeau Deleuze Massey Agamben Rancière Žižek and Grosz amongst others Aitken argues that spaces are transformative to the degree that they open the political and he highlights the complexly interwoven political economic social and cultural practices that simultaneously embed and embolden people in places If we think of spaces as events and events encourage change then spaces and people become other through complex relations Taking poetry to be an emotive construction of language Aitken re visualizes contours and arranges people's words and gestures to Imperial Japan and National Identities in Asia, 1895-1945 Robert Cribb, Narango Li, 2020-08-26 Between 1895 and 1945 Japan was heavily engaged in other parts of Asia first in neighbouring Korea and northeast Asia later in southern China and Southeast Asia During this period Japanese ideas on the nature of national identities in Asia changed dramatically At first Japan discounted the significance of nationalism but in time Japanese authorities came to see Asian nationalisms as potential allies especially if they could be shaped to follow Japanese patterns At the same time the ways in which other Asians thought of Japan also changed Initially many Asians saw Japan as a useful but distant model but with the rise of Japanese political power this distant admiration turned into both cooperation and resistance This volume includes chapters on India Tibet Siberia Mongolia Korea Manchukuo China Taiwan Vietnam Thailand the Philippines and Indonesia Japanese Influences and Presences in Asia Ian Reader, Marie Soederberg, 2013-11-19 While scholarly works on this topic have to date mainly concentrated on Japan's influences in economic and political terms this volume examines Japanese influences in Asia from a broader perspective The text takes into account human factors such as the presence of Japanese people as workers managers and visitors in Asian societies and the flow of Japanese goods in terms of their impact on popular culture In addition the book examines the feelings within other Asian nations such as India and Malaysia to the Japanese presence looking at Japanese people's aspirations expectations and at times disappointments Written by Asian and Western scholars from a variety of academic perspectives the essays in this volume analyze the topic at both macro and micro levels They examine the variegated and highly differing influences and presences of Japan as seen from a number of viewpoints from street perspectives and the world of popular culture to global political issues to questions of regional investment and the cultural and economic aspirations of Chinese students in Japan Mongolia in Transition Ole Bruun, Ole Odgaard, 2013-05-13 Squeezed between powerful neighbours for decades Mongolia played the role of buffer state Its full independence in 1990 offered new opportunities for both economic growth and the restoration of Mongolian identity But with a huge land area poor infrastructure and a small population the new republic is highly vulnerable and also dependent on international support This book provides easily accessible information for developers planners consultants scholars students and others with an interest in contemporary Mongolia Prefaced by a general overview of the land and society its chapters all written by international experts cover a wide range of topics including foreign policy domestic politics local government structure living standards and poverty women in society grassland management the common herding household and science and technology policy A comprehensive bibliography is provided      The A to Z of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin,2010-06-07 The A to Z of Malaysia encapsulates the development of Malaysia from prehistory to the early years of the 21st century It covers not only Malaysia s history but also its politics economy multiethnic society multiculturalism scientific and technological developments and the state of its environment A host of contemporary issues and challenges are featured including ethnic polarization economic equity and polygamy concepts like Ketuanan Melayu Malay Dominance Malaysian Malaysia Malay and Islam Hadhari Civilizational Islam and terms like Ali Baba business kiasi bejalai and Twenty Points Over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries are contained in this reference covering everything from ethno historical entries to those on culinary favorites and personalities A chronology an introductory essay appendixes and a bibliography complement the dictionary entries enhancing the authoritative and up to date information provided      Identity in Asian Literature Lisbeth Littrup,1996 This work explores the formation of identity in literature from a variety of Asian countries China Japan India Indonesia Malaysia and Palestine The analysis applies new theoretical approaches to identity to indicate the transition from the traditiona

Children, Nature, Cities Ann Marie F. Murnaghan,Laura J. Shillington,2016-05-26 Why does the way we think about urban children and urban nature matter This volume explores how dichotomies between nature culture rural urban and child adult have structured our understandings about the place of children and nature in the city By placing children and youth at the center of re theorising the city as a socio natural space the book illustrates how children and youth s relations to and with nature can change adultist perspectives and help create more ecologically and socially just cities As a key contribution to children s studies the book engages and enlivens debates in urban political ecology and urban theory which have not yet treated age as an important axis of difference With examples from ten localities the chapters in this volume ask how we can subvert both romanticized and modernist conceptualizations of nature and childhood that conflate innocence and purity with children and nature the volume asks what happens when we re invent urban natures with children s needs and perspectives in mind      Vietnam in a Changing World Carolyn Gates,Irene Noerlund,Vu Cao Dam Vu,2014-02-25 The last two decades saw Vietnam largely isolated in the world but during this time economic reform and development slowly gathered pace Recent events have led to Vietnams rapid re emergence into the world and an escalation of economic changes A unique insight into these changes      A History of Malaysia Barbara Watson Andaya,Leonard Y. Andaya,2001-01-01 Malaysia s multicultural society supports one of the most dynamic economies in Asia This completely revised new edition of the standard text first published twenty years ago traces the history of the country from early times to the present day The authors give particular attention to the evolution of Malay polities and their close links with indigenous groups who lived on the oceans and in the deep jungles of the region from Sumatra to Borneo This provides the background to the establishment of the Malay port of Melaka which was conquered by the Portuguese in 1511 foreshadowing the establishment of a British colonial regime in the late nineteenth century Although the large numbers of Chinese and Indian migrants who arrived to work in the tin and rubber industries contributed to economic expansion colonial policies did not encourage communal interaction The authors trace the process by which post independence leaders in Malaya attempted to counter the legacy of ethnic hostility while answering Malay demands for an affirmation of their rights and a stronger commitment to Islam The incorporation of the Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah into the Federation of Malaysia in 1963 rendered the goal of welding a nation from areas that were geographically separated and culturally disparate even more problematic The intense emotions attached to issues of race were made tragically evident in the racial riots of May 1969 which this book sees as a watershed in modern Malaysian history As Malaysia enters the twenty first century the government is determined to oversee the transition to an economy focused on manufacturing and advanced technology and to eliminate poverty and the association between occupation and race While several recent studies deal with the impact of colonial rule and Malaysia s spectacular economic transition this book is unique because it tracks developments from early times and identifies continuities as well as change Combining the authors specialist knowledge of precolonial sources with the most recent contemporary research this new edition reinforces the position of A History of Malaysia position as a standard reference for all those interested in the historical processes which led to the emergence of this culturally varied and economically energetic country

Leadership on Java Hans Antlov, Sven Cederroth, 2014-04-08 This text examines how leaders on Java rise to power stay in power and pass their power on Most of these essays deal with rural power but a few address more general issues of leadership

Unsettling Absences Eric C. Thompson, 2007 In Unsettling Absences Eric Thompson argues that urbanism is a cultural force unbound from the city and is a pervasive presence in the Malaysian countryside Transported to rural communities urbanism has motivated migration transformed the social lives of rural inhabitants and created a deep ambivalence about personal identity This has left rural Malays feeling out of place in both the city and the village Kuala Lumpur epitomises modernity but rural Malays who move there are often marginalised in squatter settlements on its periphery The kampung symbolises home and the locus of Malay identity but schoolbooks and television have projected urbanism that marks rural life as backwards and marginal in a forward looking nation into the kampung The book challenges city bound urban studies by locating urbanism in a wider world that extends outside of the city and shows the conflicted realities of rural dwellers in an overwhelmingly urban world As others have challenged the meaning of modernity Thompson challenges the meaning of urban while still recognising the powerful effects of an ideology of urbanism Unsettling Absences is a call to take seriously place based identities and cultural geographies in a world where the urban rural divide is dissolving in practice but in cultural terms remains as powerful as ever      Coming of Age in South and Southeast Asia Lenore Manderson, Pranee Liamputtong Rice, 2020-11-25 In recent years first feminist considerations and now concerns with HIV Aids have led to new approaches to the study of sexuality The experience of puberty explorations with sexuality and courtship and the pressure to reproduce are a few of the human tensions central to this volume      Asian Forms of the Nation Stein Tønnesson, Hans Antlov, 2013-10-23 The general tendency among theorists in nationalism and national identity has been to assume that the modernization process in Asia and Africa is a kind of distorted reflection of a Western precedent Asian forms of the nation have rarely been seen as independent alternative models Among today's leading theoreticians there is a growing tendency to take Asia seriously and to include Asian examples in the general discussion The aim of the present collection is to build on and reinforce this tendency It does not postulate any specifically Asian form of the nation as opposed to a Western one Rather it seeks to demonstrate that in Asia as well as in Europe each nation forms a unique amalgam which can be compared fruitfully with others History culture and geography have posed various kinds of limits to what can be imagined as Benedict Anderson puts it The relationship between geographical space and national construction is explored in depth here

Gender Politics and the Pursuit of Competitiveness in Malaysia Juanita Elias, 2020-03-12 This book is concerned with how the pursuit of national economic competitiveness by states has come to be intertwined with a globalised gender agenda one in which women and the household economy are seen as untapped resources In many East and Southeast Asian economies competitiveness and the dangers of the middle income trap dominate economic policy agendas states commitments to gender equality goals are frequently framed around business case logics in which women's empowerment and women's increased engagement in the productive economy is linked to the national economic project of building and enhancing competitiveness This book looks to the case of Malaysia in order to assess how the increasingly dominant view that gender equality is smart economics plays out in practice Drawing upon extensive case study research and interview data the book hones in on the complex gender politics that are at work within government initiatives that seek to enhance competitiveness via increasing women's labour force participation efforts to strengthen marriage and family life and attempts to boost women's entrepreneurialism and status within the corporate world Providing an account of the gender politics at work within ongoing processes of state transformation in Asia this book will appeal to researchers and students in gender studies Southeast Asian studies International Political Economy and public policy      Gender, Mobilities, and Livelihood Transformations Ragnhild Lund, Kyoko Kusakabe, Smita Mishra Panda, Yunxian Wang, 2013-08-29 In the era of globalization many minority populations are subject to marginalization and expulsion from their traditional habitats due to rapid economic restructuring and changing politico spatial relations This book presents an analytical framework for understanding how mobility is an inherent part of such changes The book demonstrates how current neoliberal policies are making people increasingly on the move whether voluntarily or forced and whether individually as family or as whole communities and how such mobility is changing the livelihoods of indigenous people with particular focus on how these transformations are gendered It queries how state policies and cross border and cross regional connections have shaped and redefined the livelihood patterns rights and citizenship identities and gender relations of indigenous peoples It also identifies the dynamic changes that indigenous men and women are facing given rapid infrastructure improvements and commercialization and or industrialization in their places of Environment With a focus on mobility this innovative book gives students and researchers in development studies gender studies human geography anthropology and Asian studies a more realistic assessment of peoples livelihood choices under a time of rapid transformation and the knowledge produced may add value to present development policies and practices

Rethinking Development in East Asia Pietro P. Masina, 2002 Masina reassesses the last thirty years of economic development in East Asia in light of recent dramatic events challenging scholars and policy makers to critically review development strategies

Women and Households in Indonesia Juliette Koning, Marleen Nolten, Janet Rodenburg, Ratna Saptari, 2013-11-19 Critically examines the usefulness of the household concept within the historically and culturally diverse context of Indonesia exploring in detail the position of women within and beyond domestic arrangements So far classical household and kinship studies have not studied how women deal with two major forces which shape and define their world local kinship traditions and the universalising ideology of the Indonesian regime which both provide prescriptions and prohibitions concerning family marriage and womanhood Women are caught between these conflicting notions and practices How they challenge or accommodate such forces is the main issue in this book
