Do not be
conformed to this world, but be transformed by
the renewal of your mind.

A person wearing an orange jacket is sitting on a wooden dock, looking out over a calm lake towards a vibrant sunset. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of orange, pink, and purple. The water reflects the colors of the sky. In the background, there are some houses and trees on the far shore. To the right, there is a wooden structure that looks like a small bridge or a set of stairs leading down to the water. The overall scene is peaceful and contemplative.

of God in Reformed Theology from John Calvin to Thomas Torrance Mark J. Larson,2025-08-05 There has been confusion in recent years concerning the teaching of classical Reformed thought regarding the Jews Replacement theology alleges that the Jews having rejected Christ are no longer special in the eyes of God Some have erroneously asserted that Calvin tends to supercessionism Due to distinctive hermeneutical commitments there has not been a monolithic Reformed point of view on all the details concerning the Jews in relationship to eschatology Significant Reformed theologians in continuity with early church fathers anticipated the return of the Jews to the land promised in the Abrahamic covenant along with a millennium centered in Jerusalem with Christ as king bringing justice and peace to the nations Calvin with his adherence to a metaphorical reading of Old Testament prophetic passages rejected such a prospect It has been a mainstay of Reformed doctrine however that the Jews have been given an irrevocable call and continue to be loved by God Calvin and his theological descendants have affirmed that the day will come when God will pour out the Spirit of grace upon his ancient people resulting in their national salvation Indeed the heart of God is reflected in every prayer that all Israel may be saved
