General Accounting Office,1982 Nazi Buildings, Cold War Traces and Governmentality in Post-Unification Berlin Clare Copley,2020-05-28 Bringing together approaches from cultural and urban history as well as German studies and political theory Clare Copley s probing study reflects on post unification responses to iconic Nazi architecture to reveal insights into power legitimacy and memory politics in the Berlin Republic Analysing public debates physical interventions into the buildings and the structuring of the memory landscapes around them the book demonstrates that the politics of memory impact not just upon the built environment of the post dictatorship city but upon the way decisions about it are made In doing so Nazi Buildings Cold War Traces and Governmentality in Post Unification Berlin makes the case for conceiving of a specifically post authoritarian governmentality and uses the responses to constructions like Goering s Aviation Ministry Tempelhof Airport and the Olympic complex to explore its features Charleston Renaissance Man Ralph C. Muldrow,2022-10-25 A study of the life work and extraordinary influence of an innovative architect Albert Simons came of age during the vibrant years of the Charleston Renaissance in the early twentieth century His influential social circle included artists musicians writers historians and preservationists many supporting the cultural revival that was reshaping the city Through his architectural design and passion for preservation Simons contributed tremendously to the cultural environment of the Charleston Renaissance His work helped to mold the cityscape and set a course that would both preserve the historic South Carolina city and carry it forward allowing it to become the thriving urban center it is today Simons brought both a sense of history and place born of his deep roots in Charleston as well as a cosmopolitanism developed during his years of training at the University of Pennsylvania and travels on the European continent The melding of those sensibilities was a perfect match for the age and made him a true Charleston Renaissance Man While he preferred the more traditional Beaux Arts Classical and Colonial Revival styles Simons had the unique ability to balance traditional and modern styles He believed preservation in Charleston was about retaining the city s architectural heritage but doing so in a way that allowed the city to grow and progress to be a living city Looking forward and simultaneously looking back is quintessentially Charleston and a hallmark of Simons s life and work Featuring more than 100 color and black and white photographs and illustrations alongside author Ralph Muldrow s compelling storytelling this fascinating book reveals the deep connection between Simons and the Charleston cityscape With a foreword by Witold Rybczynski the award winning author of numerous books including Charleston Fancy Little Houses and Big Ideas in the Holy City Muldrow s Charleston Renaissance Man is a celebration of Charleston's unique architectural character and the architect who embodied the Charleston Renaissance

Popular Photography, 1999-09 The Design of Renovations Donald Friedman, Nathaniel Oppenheimer, 1997

Renovation experts Donald Friedman and Nathaniel Oppenheimer outline the basic pertinent principles of design and construction and explain how to apply them to renovation that meets the physical and aesthetic needs of the job. Dozens of actual case studies illustrate practical application of the theory, methods and procedures. 150 illus. Photography, Truth and Reconciliation Melissa Miles, 2020-08-05. Photography Truth and Reconciliation charts the connections between photography and a crucial issue in contemporary social history. The book examines the prevalence of photography in cultural responses to processes of truth and reconciliation and argues that photographs are a valuable means through which stories can be retold and historiography can be rethought. Five compelling case studies from Argentina, Canada, Australia, South Africa and Cambodia underscore the special role that this medium has played in facilitating processes of recovery and in reconstructing suppressed histories even when a documentary record of the events does not exist. The diverse practices addressed in this book including artistic protest, institutional archival, legal and personal photography prompt a new consideration of photography's links to presence, place, time, spectatorship and justice. Collectively, these practices attest to photography's key role in transitional justice and in shaping historical understanding internationally. Important reading for students taking photography, visual culture, history and media studies courses. Photography Truth and Reconciliation explores key historical and theoretical themes including photography and testimony, international discourses on human rights and justice and problematic notions of public and collective memory. D. Danny Harvey, 2010-08-12

Reducing and managing humanity's demand for energy is a fundamental part of the effort to mitigate climate change. In this, the most comprehensive textbook ever written on the subject, L. D. Danny Harvey lays out the theory and practice of how things must change if we are to meet our energy needs sustainably. The book begins with a succinct summary of the scientific basis for concern over global warming, then outlines energy basics and current patterns and trends in energy use. This is followed by a discussion of current and advanced technologies for the generation of electricity from fossil fuels. The book then considers in detail how energy is used and how this use can be dramatically reduced in the following end-use sectors: buildings, transportation, industry, food and agriculture, municipal services. The findings from these sector-by-sector assessments are then applied to generate scenarios of how global energy demand could evolve over the coming decades with full implementation of the identified and economically feasible energy-saving potential. The book ends with a brief discussion of policies that can be used to reduce energy demand but also addresses the limits of technologically based improvements in efficiency in moderating demand and of the need to re-think some of our underlying assumptions. Concern ends with a brief discussing what we really need Along with its companion volume on C free energy supply and accompanied by extensive supplementary online material this is an essential resource for students and practitioners in engineering architecture environment and energy related fields Online material includes Excel based computational exercises teaching slides for each chapter links to free software tools
