Rent A Pet And Other Animal Stories:

Rent-a-pet, 1995 Dog, Inc. John Woestendiek, 2010-12-30 What Stiff did for the dead and Fast Food Nation did for the burger Dog Inc does for the stranger than fiction world of commercial dog cloning It all began with a pit bull named Booger Former Miss Wyoming Bernann McKinney was so distraught over the death of her dog whom she regarded as her guardian and savior that she paid 50 000 to RNL Bio for the chance to bring her beloved companion back to life The result were five new Boogers the first successful commercial cloning of a canine delivered in 2008 along with a slew of compelling questions about the boundaries of science commerce and ethics Blending shocking investigative reporting with colorful anecdotes Pulitzer Prize winning John Woestendiek takes readers behind the scenes of this emerging industry But Dog Inc isn't just a book about pets Nor is it just a book about science Rather it's a fascinating look at how our emotional needs are bending the reaches of science and technology as well as a study of this uncharted territory With our pet obsession climbing to new heights and our scientific abilities even more so this combination raises a serious concern Are we crossing the boundary of controlling science in the name of science in the name of love in the name of merchandising or a blend of all three as well Other Animals Jane T. Costlow, Amy Nelson, 2010-08-15 The lives of animals in Russia are intrinsically linked to cultural political and psychological transformations of the imperial Soviet and post Soviet eras Other Animals examines the interaction of animals and humans in Russian literature art and life from the eighteenth century until the present The chapters explore the unique nature of the Russian experience in a range of human animal relationships through tales of cruelty interspecies communion and compassion and efforts to either overcome or establish the human animal divide Four themes run through the volume the prevalence of animals in utopian visions the ways in which Russians have incorporated and sometimes challenged Western sensibilities and practices such as the humane treatment of animals and the inclusion of animals in urban domestic life the quest to identify and at times exploit the physiological basis of human and animal behavior and the ideological implications of these practices and the breakdown of traditional human animal hierarchies and categories during times of revolutionary upheaval social transformation or disintegration From failed Soviet attempts to transplant the seminomadic Sami and their reindeer herds onto collective farms to performance artist Oleg Kulik s scandalous portrayal of Pavlov s dogs as a parody of the Soviet new man to novelist Tatyana Tolstaya s post cataclysmic future world of hybrid animal species and their disaffection from the past Other Animals presents a completely new perspective on Russian and Soviet history It also offers a fascinating look into the Russian psyche as seen through human interactions with animals Stories Pictures Tell. Book Four Flora L. Carpenter, 2021-04-25 In Stories Pictures Tell Book Four Flora L Carpenter masterfully intertwines visual art and narrative to explore the profound connections between images and storytelling Each chapter is crafted with poetic precision examining how illustrations resonate with emotions evoke memories and impart cultural narratives Carpenter employs a unique literary style that merges descriptive prose with analytical insight effectively placing the reader at the intersection of illustration and interpretation The book invites an engagement with art that is both intellectual and visceral reflecting a broader literary trend that values hybrid forms of expression in contemporary literature Flora L Carpenter an esteemed scholar and passionate advocate for visual literacy draws upon her extensive academic background in art history and literature Her exploration of the synergies between visual mediums and storytelling is deeply personal influenced by her own encounters with art from an early age Carpenter s commitment to fostering appreciation for visual narratives is evident in her previous works making this volume a natural progression in her literary journey This book is highly recommended for educators art enthusiasts and general readers alike who wish to deepen their understanding of how images contribute to narrative forms Stories Pictures Tell Book Four serves not only as an academic resource but also as an invitation to experience storytelling through a richer more nuanced lens The Dog Fancier Eugene Glass, 1920 Educational Film Guide H.W. Wilson Company, 1954 Our Daily Moments Nancy Kuykendall, 2018-02-28 Our Daily Moments is about daily moments and experiences that occur and how they affect us A short but poignant experience can happen very quickly These experiences can change us in an instant We humans are emotional beings Even the most stable and disciplined among us can be knocked off balance Our emotions and attitudes can be altered in just seconds We are all susceptible to the many life experiences that enter our day We are affected consciously or subconsciously Every moment of time is part of our life All that we call good or bad can be used by God to teach us and to know him more God wastes nothing
