Venice's Rent Collection Courtyard Guo-Qiang Cai,1999 Venice's Rent Collection Courtyard Guo-Qiang Cai,Annie Wong Leung Kit Wah Art Foundation,1999 Rent Collection Courtyard: a Revolution in Sculpture ,1968 The Stranger and the Chinese Moral Imagination Haiyan Lee,2014-11-12 In the last two decades China has become a dramatically more urban society and hundreds of millions of people have changed residence in the process Family and communal bonds have been broken in a country once known as a society of kith and kin There has been a pervasive sense of moral crisis in contemporary China and the new market economy doesn't seem to offer any solutions This book investigates how the Chinese have coped with the condition of modernity in which strangers are routinely thrust together Haiyan Lee dismisses the easy answers claiming that this moral crisis is merely smoke and mirrors conjured up by paternalistic overwrought leaders and scholars or that it can be simply chalked up to the topsy turvy of a market economy on steroids Rather Lee argues that the perception of crisis is itself symptomatic of a deeper problem that has roots in both the Confucian tradition of kinship and the modern state management of stranger sociality This ambitious work is the first to investigate the figure of the stranger foreigner peasant migrant bourgeois intellectual class enemy unattached woman animal across literature film television and museum culture Lee's aim is to show that hope lies with a robust civil society in which literature and the arts play a key role in sharpening the moral faculties and apprenticing readers in the art of living with strangers In so doing she makes a historical comparative and theoretically informed contribution to the on going conversation on China's civil society Postwar Revisited Okwui Enwezor,Atreyee Gupta,2025-03-28 Okwui Enwezor's 2016 exhibition Postwar Art between the Pacific and the Atlantic 1945-1965 redefined the history of art produced in those two decades Nearly a decade later Postwar Revisited returns to these debates to present an image of a historical period in which Western conceptions of art aesthetics and philosophy are all thrown into intense flux after Auschwitz and Hiroshima while the cultural energies of decolonization generate myriad artistic and intellectual practices across the globe which re-engage the connections of art to life itself Focusing on modernist artists artist collectives and architects central to dissonant regional traditions as well as influential exhibitions and patronage systems the contributors produce a new understanding of emergent postwar global art Provoking new ways of thinking engaging and narrating art history Postwar Revisited is essential reading for those interested in debates on global art history and global modernism the intersections between art and decolonization the cultural aspects of the Cold War and the Non Aligned Movement and modern and contemporary art more generally Contributors Iftikhar Dadi Okwui Enwezor Patrick Flores Hal Foster Boris Groys Atreyee Gupta Elizabeth Harney Jennifer Josten Vivian Li Tara McDowell Alexandra Munroe Nada Shabout Terry Smith Jenni Sorkin Ming Tiampo Animation in China Sean Macdonald,2015-11-06 By the turn of the 21st century animation production has grown to thousands of hours a year in the People's Republic of China PRC Despite this and unlike American blockbuster productions

and the diverse genres of Japanese anime much animation from the PRC remains relatively unknown This book is an historical and theoretical study of animation in the PRC Although the Wan Brothers produced the first feature length animated film in 1941 the industry as we know it today truly began in the 1950s at the Shanghai Animation Film Studio SAFS which remained the sole animation studio until the 1980s Considering animation in China as a convergence of the institutions of education fine arts literature popular culture and film the book takes comparative approaches that link SAFS animation to contemporary cultural production including American and Japanese animation Pop Art and mass media theory Through readings of classic films such as Princess Iron Fan Uproar in Heaven Princess Peacock and Nezha Conquers the Dragon King this study represents a revisionist history of animation in the PRC as a form of postmodernism with Chinese characteristics As a theoretical exploration of animation in the People's Republic of China this book will appeal greatly to students and scholars of animation film studies Chinese studies cultural studies political and cultural theory Art in Turmoil Richard King, Sheng Tian Zheng, Scott Watson, 2010-01-01 Forty years after China's tumultuous Cultural Revolution this book revisits the visual and performing arts of the period the paintings propaganda posters political cartoons sculpture folk arts private sketchbooks opera and ballet and examines what these vibrant militant often gaudy images meant to artists their patrons and their audiences at the time and what they mean now both in their original forms and as revolutionary icons reworked for a new market oriented age Chapters by scholars of Chinese history and art and by artists whose careers were shaped by the Cultural Revolution offer new insights into works that have transcended their times The Book of Politics Michael Dutton, 2024-07-05 In The Book of Politics Michael Dutton offers an affective theorization of the political and a political theorization of affect Drawing on Western and Chinese social theory and practice Dutton rethinks Carl Schmitt's insistence that the political can be thought of only within the antagonistic pairing of friend and enemy Dutton shows how the power of the friend enemy binary must be understood by conceptualizing the political as the channeling harnessing and transforming of affective energy flows in relation to that binary Given this affective nature of politics Dutton contends that to rethink the political means moving away from a political science toward an art of the political Such an art highlights fluidity and pulls away from Eurocentric political theory requiring a conceptualization of the political as global He juxtaposes ancient Chinese cosmology medicine and Maoism against the monuments of early capitalist modernity such as the Crystal Palace and the Eiffel Tower to highlight the differences in political investments and intensities From the Chinese revolution to the global rise of right wing movements Dutton rethinks politics in the contemporary world Contemporary Chinese Art: Primary Documents Wu Hung, 2010 Invaluable resource for anyone who wants to understand contemporary Chinese art one of the most fascinating art scenes of the late 20th and early 21st centuries Cai Guo-Qiang Rachel Rivenc, 2025-06-24 This groundbreaking book provides the first material study of the celebrated contemporary artist Cai Guo Qiang known worldwide for his use of subversive materials particularly gunpowder Cai Guo Qiang China b 1957 is among the most prominent contemporary artists active today His prolific diverse creative practice which includes gunpowder drawings and paintings explosion events videos multimedia installations and site specific works draws on a personal belief system that freely blends symbols and tenets from Eastern and Western traditions Cai s output seeks to establish dialogues among different cultures different periods of time and even different species always while probing our shared humanity and the connections that can be divined across space and time out of chaos and disorder Based on in depth interviews between the author and artist and with studio assistants as well as extensive examination sampling and scientific analysis of a wide range of artworks this publication addresses the implications of Cai s distinctive materials and processes and their associated conservation issues Written for conservation scientists conservators specialists in contemporary art history museum curators collections managers practicing artists collectors and art enthusiasts this book offers insights into the life methods and materials of a leading figure in the art world The technical discussions provide essential findings that will inform strategies for the future care of his works

Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture Carlos Rojas,Eileen Chow,2008-12-08 Through analyses of a wide range of Chinese literary and visual texts from the beginning of the twentieth century through the contemporary period the thirteen essays in this volume challenge the view that canonical and popular culture are self evident and diametrically opposed categories and instead argue that the two cultural sensibilities are inextricably bound up with one another An international line up of contributors present detailed analyses of literary works and other cultural products that have previously been neglected by scholars while also examining more familiar authors and works from provocative new angles The essays include investigations into the cultural industries and contexts that produce the canonical and popular the position of contemporary popular works at the interstices of nostalgia and amnesia and also the ways in which cultural texts are inflected with gendered and erotic sensibilities while at the same time also functioning as objects of desire in its own right As the only volume of its kind to cover the entire span of the 20th century and also to consider the interplay of popular and canonical literature in modern China with comparable rigor Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture is an important resource for students and scholars of Chinese literature and culture

A History of Chinese Art in the 20th and 21st Century Lü Peng,2025-02-03 This book situates the development of 20th and 21st century Chinese art in such fundamental contexts as Chinese politics and social change and is ideally suited for readers to understand the particularities of Chinese art that are distinct from Western art history Such an approach is appropriate to the understanding of the development of modern Chinese art which differs from both the Western approach to art history and the approach to traditional Chinese art which is limited to the combining of ink and brush heritage and ideological traditions Based on the scale and influence of historical works considering the specificity of the term involving fine art in China and the scope of influence of the phenomenon of fine art in the cultural field this book s study of the phenomena of painting sculpture photography video and mixed media art follows two linear time lines of historical relevance 1949 1978 and 1978 to the present Special attention is paid to the development of modern and contemporary art after 1978 The main readers of this book are undergraduate students in art schools graduate and doctoral students in art history students in other humanities disciplines experts and professors in the study of 20th century Chinese art and cultural history should be important readers of this book

Heritage and Debt David Joselit, 2020-03-10 How global contemporary art reanimates the past as a resource for the present combating modern art's legacy of Eurocentrism If European modernism was premised on the new on surpassing the past often by assigning it to the traditional societies of the Global South global contemporary art reanimates the past as a resource for the present In this account of what globalization means for contemporary art David Joselit argues that the creative use of tradition by artists from around the world serves as a means of combatting modern art's legacy of Eurocentrism Modernism claimed to live in the future and relegated the rest of the world to the past Global contemporary art shatters this myth by reactivating various forms of heritage from literati ink painting in China to Aboriginal painting in Australia in order to propose new and different futures Joselit analyzes not only how heritage becomes contemporary through the practice of individual artists but also how a cultural infrastructure of museums biennials and art fairs worldwide has emerged as a means of generating economic value attracting capital and tourist dollars Joselit traces three distinct forms of modernism that developed outside the West in opposition to Euro American modernism postcolonial socialist realism and the underground He argues that these modern genealogies are synchronized with one another and with Western modernism to produce global contemporary art Joselit discusses curation and what he terms the curatorial episteme which through its acts of framing or curating can become a means of recalibrating hierarchies of knowledge and can contribute to the dual projects of decolonization and deimperialization

New Export China Alex Burchmore, 2023-06-20 Why do so many contemporary Chinese artists use porcelain in their work In New Export China Alex Burchmore presents a deep dive into a unique genre of ceramic art to describe a framework for a broader art practice Focusing on the work of four artists from the 1990s through the 2010s Liu Jianhua Ai Weiwei Ah Xian and Sin ying Ho Burchmore reveals how the materiality of ceramics has been used to highlight China's role in global trade and to explore the function of this medium as a vessel for the transmission of Chinese art culture and ideas From its historical pedigree and transcultural relevance to its material allure and anthropomorphic resonance porcelain offers artists a unique way to move between the global and the intimate the mass produced and the handmade and the foreign and the domestic By dissecting both the legacy of porcelain export and current networks of exchange Burchmore ultimately demonstrates why this ceramic practice is crucial to understanding the development of Chinese contemporary art

Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China Michael Sullivan, 2023-12-22 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Michael Sullivan recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements A substantial biographical index of twentieth century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers the creation of the first art schools and the birth of the idea shocking in ethnocentric China that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting the belated discovery of Western modernism the artistic upheaval under Communism and China's rethinking of the very nature of art all have a place in Sullivan's fascinating history Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China's modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring This long awaited book richly documented and abundantly illustrated is a capstone to Sullivan's work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere

Chinese Revolution in Practice Guo Wu, 2023-10-24 This book employs multiple case studies to explore how the Chinese communist revolution began as an ideology oriented intellectual movement aimed at improving society before China's transformation into a state that suppresses dissenting voices by outsourcing its power of coercion and incarceration The author examines the movement's methods of early self organization grass roots level engagement creation of new modes of expression and popular art forms manipulation of collective memory and invention of innovative ways of mass incarceration Covering developments from 1920 to 1970 the book considers a wide range of Chinese individuals and groups from early Marxists to political prisoners in the PRC to illustrate a dynamic interactive process in which the state and individuals contend with each other It argues that revolutionary practices in modern China have created a regime that can be conceptualized as an ideology military propaganda state that prompts further reflection on the relationships between revolution and the state the state and collective articulation and memory and the state and reflective individuals in a global context Illustrating the continuity of the Chinese revolution and past decades socialist practices and mechanisms this study is an ideal resource for scholars of Chinese history politics and twentieth century revolutions

The Art of Return James Meyer, 2019-09-11 More than any other decade the sixties capture our collective cultural imagination And while many Americans can immediately imagine the sound of Martin Luther King Jr declaring I have a dream or envision hippies placing flowers in gun barrels the revolutionary sixties resonates around the world China's communist government inaugurated a new cultural era African nations won independence from colonial rule and students across Europe took to the streets calling for an end to capitalism imperialism and the Vietnam War In this innovative work James Meyer turns to art criticism theory memoir and fiction to examine the fascination with the long sixties and contemporary expressions of these cultural memories across the globe Meyer draws on a diverse range of cultural objects that reimagine this revolutionary era stretching from the 1950s to the 1970s including reenactments of civil rights antiwar and feminist marches paintings sculptures photographs novels and films Many of these works were created by artists and writers born during the long Sixties who were driven to understand a monumental era that they missed These cases show us that the past becomes significant only in relation to our present and our remembered history never perfectly replicates time past This Meyer argues is precisely what makes our contemporary attachment to the past so important it provides us a critical opportunity to examine our own relationship to history memory and nostalgia A History of Contemporary Chinese Art Yan Zhou,2020-07-14 Chinese art has experienced its most profound metamorphosis since the early 1950s transforming from humble realism to socialist realism from revolutionary art to critical realism then avant garde movement and globalized Chinese art With a hybrid mix of Chinese philosophy imported but revised Marxist ideology and western humanities Chinese artists have created an alternative approach after a great ideological and aesthetic transition in the 1980s toward its own contemporaneity though interacting and intertwining with the art of rest of the world This book will investigate from the perspective of an activist critic and historian who grew up prior to and participated in the great transition and then researched and taught the subject the evolution of Chinese art in modern and contemporary times The volume will be a comprehensive and insightful history of the one of the most sophisticated and unparalleled artistic and cultural phenomena in the modern world Footbinding and Women's Labor in Sichuan Hill Gates,2014-12-05

When Chinese women bound their daughters feet many consequences ensued some beyond the imagination of the binders and the bound The most obvious of these consequences was to impress upon a small child s body and mind that girls differed from boys thus reproducing gender hierarchy What is not obvious is why Chinese society should have evolved such a radical method of gender marking Gendering is not simply preparation for reproduction rather its primary significance lies in preparing children for their places in the division of labor of a particular political economy Drawing on extensive fieldwork and interviews with almost 5 000 women this book examines footbinding as Sichuan women remember it from the final years of the empire and the troubled times before the 1949 revolution It focuses on two key questions what motivated parents to maintain this custom and how significant was girls work in China s final pre industrial century In answering these questions Hill Gates shows how footbinding was a form of labor discipline in the first half of the twentieth century in China when it was a key institution in a now much altered political economy Countering the widely held views surrounding the sexual attractiveness of bound feet to Chinese men footbinding as an ethnic boundary marker its role in female hypergamy and its connection to state imperatives this book instead presents a compelling argument that footbinding was in fact a crucial means of disciplining of little girls to lives of early and unremitting labor This vivid and fascinating study will be of huge interest to students and scholars working across a wide range of fields including Chinese history oral history anthropology and gender studies China-Africa Relations Kathryn Batchelor,Xiaoling Zhang,2017-06-26

The recent rapid growth in China s involvement in Africa is being promoted by both Chinese and African leaders as being conducted in a spirit of cooperation friendship and equality In the media and informally however a different less harmonious picture emerges This book explores how China and Africa really regard each other how official images are manufactured and how informal images are nevertheless shaped and put forward The book covers a wide range of areas where China Africa exchange exists including diplomacy technological cooperation sport culture and arts exchange The book also discusses the historical development of the relationship and how it is likely to develop going forward
