Representative Chapters in Ancient History: From Romulus to Justinian Richard Walter Hooper, 2000

Representative Chapters in Ancient History Richard Walter Hooper, 2000 New Perspectives on Power and Political Representation from Ancient History to the Present Day, 2019-06-07 New Perspectives on Power and Political Representation from Ancient History to the Present Day offers a unique perspective on political communication between rulers and ruled from antiquity to the present day by putting the concept of representation center stage It explores the dynamic relationship between elites and the people as it was shaped by constructions of self representation and representative claims The contributors to this volume specialists in ancient medieval early modern and modern history move away from reductionist associations of political representation with formal aspects of modern democratic electoral and parliamentary politics Instead they contend that the construction of political representation involves a set of discourses practices and mechanisms that although they have been applied and appropriated in various ways in a range of historical contexts has stood the test of time Representative Chapters in Ancient History: From Australopithecus to Alexander Richard Walter Hooper, 2000 Representative Chapters in Ancient History: From Romulus to Justinian Richard Walter Hooper, 2000 The Representative History of Great Britain and Ireland Thomas H. B. Oldfield, 1816 Condition of the Library of Congress United States. Congress. Joint Committee on the Library, 1897 Condition of the Library of Congress United States. Library, Joint Committee on the, 1897 Senate documents, 1897 History of the Representation of England Robert Hanny, 1831 The City-State of the Soul Kevin Crotty, 2016-04-29 The City State of the Soul Self Constitution in Plato s Republic explores Plato s idea that the moral life consists in the founding of one s own soul This insight is central to the long argument of the Republic and in particular to the complex relation between the city and the human soul This fruitful picture of the moral life however has not received the attention it deserves As Kevin M Crotty argues Plato s distinctive insight is that justice is above all a creative force Plato presents justice not as a relation amongst fully formed individuals but rather as the quality that galvanizes a diverse welter of disparate parts into a coherent entity above all a soul or a city Justice then is the virtue most closely associated with being the source of its philosophical stature Plato presents a conception of justice meant to impress the young bright and ambitious as a noble pursuit and a task worthy of their best talents The City State of the Soul is written for anyone interested in the Republic including but not limited to students and scholars of ancient philosophy political philosophy ethics and ancient Greek literature

Proceedings of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons in Mississippi at Its ... Annual Convocation Royal Arch Masons. Grand Chapter of Mississippi, 1908 Manga and the Representation of Japanese History Roman Rosenbaum, 2013 This edited collection explores how graphic art and in particular Japanese manga represent Japanese history The articles explore the representation of history in manga from disciplines that include such diverse fields as literary studies politics history cultural studies linguistics narratology and semiotics Despite this diversity of approaches all academics from these respective fields of study agree that manga pose a peculiarly contemporary appeal that transcends the limitation imposed by traditional approaches to the study and teaching of history The representation of history via manga in Japan has a long and controversial historiographical dimension Thereby manga and by extension graphic art in Japanese culture has become one of the world's most powerful modes of expressing contemporary historical verisimilitude The contributors to this volume elaborate how manga and by extension graphic art rewrites reinvents and reimagines the historicity and dialectic of bygone epochs in postwar and contemporary Japan Manga and the Representation of Japanese History will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian studies Asian history Japanese culture and society as well as art and visual culture

The Roots of American Politics John Frederick Martin, 2025-04-01 This book examines the ways in which American habits and politics replaced the traditional European republican canon Before the modern era European republics relied on procedural complexity in office filling to arrive at neutral government They did so with such technical consistency over a long span of time as to create a republican procedural tradition That tradition collided with conditions in the Anglo American world with entrenched social deference in politics quasi representative institutions and an ascendant doctrine of majorities American habits would ultimately overwhelm the European republican canon but not without a fight This book suggests that arguments over the abandonment of the procedural tradition shook politics in early America especially at the federal convention and that it is difficult to understand the convention delegates votes concerning the Great Compromise apportioning the House and Senate and the presidential selection system without reference to those arguments The contest between simple majorities and complexity aiming at comity was not resolved neatly in Philadelphia and continued during the first decades of the republic this book argues that some political institutions to this day bear the stamp of the imperfect arrangements reached at the nation's founding which among other things was a moment of inflection between older and newer concepts of republican architecture This volume will be of interest to students and scholars interested in American Political History Early American History and Political Science

Historical Archaeology in Africa Peter Ridgway Schmidt, 2006 Historical Archaeology in Africa is an inquiry into historical questions that count proposing different ways of thinking about historical archaeology Peter Schmidt challenges readers to expand their horizons Confronting topics of oral traditions the role of cultural landscapes in social memory and historical misrepresentations of various cultures Schmidt calls for a new pathway to an enriched more nuanced and more inclusive historical archaeology Allowing Africa to speak for itself without colonial interpreters Historical Archaeology in Africa will be of interest not only to historians and archaeologists but to all concerned with Africa's past and present

Historical Sketches of Statesmen who Flourished in the Time of George III Henry Brougham Baron Brougham and Vaux, 1844 Deconstructing Imperial Representation: Tacitus, Cassius Dio, and Suetonius on Nero and Domitian Verena Schulz, 2019-06-24 What literary strategies do Tacitus Cassius Dio and Suetonius apply in portraying Nero and Domitian This book argues that the three authors respond to and deconstruct the positive accounts of imperial representation that were prevalent during the lifetimes of the two controversial emperors They take up motifs from these earlier accounts which they re interpret to construct their own negative portraits Although Tacitus Cassius Dio and Suetonius discuss the same historical figures and events of early imperial Rome they are rarely examined together in one volume Verena Schulz offers the first combined reading of their works from a philological viewpoint analysing the various rhetorical techniques and narratological devices that they display and the different literary and historical discourses in which they are embedded Jewish Studies and the Gospel of St John Zev Garber, Kenneth L. Hanson, 2025-02-03 The present book projects a themed article collection relating to Jews and the Gospel of John Topics explore the Fourth Gospel in regard to the origins of Christian anti Judaism antisemitism though other exegetical treatments from a Jewish frame of reference are presented By exploring this topic across time and place this collection aims to provide an historical context for understanding not only the Jewish Jesus but the specific framework in which Johannine Christianity was tied intrinsically to ancient Judaism while simultaneously distancing itself of Jewish thought and culture The implications for Jewish Christian dialogue are clear and it is hoped that the ensuing discussion will greatly enhance interfaith dialogue on the impact of sacred texts on different people groups in the modern era Works of Henry Lord Brougham ... Henry Brougham Baron Brougham and

Vaux, 1873 Hindi Dalit Literature and the Politics of Representation Sarah Beth Hunt, 2014-08-07 This study explores how Dalits in north India have used literature as a means of protest against caste oppression Including fresh ethnographic research and interviews it traces the trajectory of modern Dalit writing in Hindi and its pivotal role in the creation rise and reinforcement of a distinctive Dalit identity The book challenges the existing impression of Hindi Dalit literature as stemming from the Dalit political assertion of the 1980s and as being chiefly imitative of the Marathi Dalit literature model Arguing that Hindi Dalit literature has a much longer history in north India it examines two differing strands that have taken root in Dalit expression the early popular production of smaller literary pamphlets and journals at the beginning of the 20th century and more contemporary modes such as autobiographies short stories and literary criticism The author highlights the ways in which such various forms of literary works have supported the proliferation of an all encompassing identity for the so called untouchable castes She also underscores how these have contributed to their evolving political consciousness and consolidation of newer heterogeneous identities making a departure from their long perceived image The work will be important for those in Dalit studies subaltern history Hindi literature postcolonial studies political science and sociology as well as the informed general reader
