Requiem Images Of Ground Zero:

Requiem ,2002-01-01 The Transcultural Turn Lucy Bond,Jessica Rapson,2014-04-01 This edited collection makes a progressive intervention into the interdisciplinary field of memory studies with a series of essays drawn from diverse theoretical practical and cultural backgrounds The most seminal critical development within memory studies in recent years has arguably been the turn towards transculturalism This movement engenders a series of methodologies that posit remembrance as a fluid process in which commemorative tropes work to inform the representation of diverse events and traumas beyond national or cultural boundaries transcending but not negating spatial temporal and ideational differences Examining a wide range of historical and cultural contexts the essays in this collection focus on the dialogues that shape processes of remembrance between and beyond borders critiquing the problems and possibilities inherent in current discourses in memorial practice and theory as they approach the challenge of transculturalism Everyone Loves a Good Train Wreck Eric G. Wilson,2012-02-14 Why can't we look away Whether we admit it or not we're fascinated by evil Dark fantasies morbid curiosities Schadenfreude As conventional wisdom has it these are the symptoms of our wicked side and we succumb to them at our own peril But we're still compelled to look whenever we pass a grisly accident on the highway and there's no slaking our thirst for gory entertainments like horror movies and police procedurals What makes these spectacles so irresistible In Everyone Loves a Good Train Wreck the scholar Eric G Wilson sets out to discover the source of our attraction to the caustic drawing on the findings of biologists sociologists psychologists anthropologists philosophers theologians and artists A professor of English literature and a lifelong student of the macabre Wilson believes there's something nourishing in darkness To repress death is to lose the feeling of life he writes A closeness to death discloses our most fertile energies His examples are legion and startling in their diversity Citing everything from elephant graveyards and Susan Sontag's On Photography to the Tiger Woods sex scandal and Steel Magnolias Wilson finds heartening truths wherever he confronts death In Everyone Loves a Good Train Wreck the perverse is never far from the sublime The result is a powerful and delightfully provocative defense of what it means to be human for better and for worse Requiem Sanford Kwinter,2022-02-04 In this small but sharply pointed book renowned theorist Sanford Kwinter addresses the sometimes subtle sometimes brutal transformations that characterized the modernization processes set into motion at the turn of the millennium From the strange appearance of the Trojan Horse that was the Centre Pompidou which served as the harbinger and template of the new idea of Europe through the dot com bubble of the late 1990s to the destruction of the World Trade Center Towers in New York a new world came into being that design thinking has yet to fully take into account The City is here seen not only as the last frontier of human history currently under threat of total eclipse it is the indomitable form of collective experience upon which one can count as assuredly as one can on death and taxes Requiem to quote from Thomas Daniell's introduction is first and foremost redemptive Kwinter's most negative assessments of the city are driven by a deep commitment to its sublime potentials a desire to sacralize the most profane and fecund of human creations American Photo, 2002-07 New York, 2002 Firefighters in Art and Media John Albert Walker, 2005 The Cold War Konrad H. Jarausch, Christian Ostermann, Andreas Etges, 2017-02-06 The traces of the Cold War are still visible in many places all around the world It is the topic of exhibits and new museums of memorial days and historic sites of documentaries and movies of arts and culture There are historical and political controversies both nationally and internationally about how the history of the Cold War should be told and taught how it should be represented and remembered While much has been written about the political history of the Cold War the analysis of its memory and representation is just beginning Bringing together a wide range of scholars this volume describes and analyzes the cultural history and representation of the Cold War from an international perspective That innovative approach focuses on master narratives of the Cold War places of memory public and private memorialization popular culture and schoolbooks Due to its unique status as a center of Cold War confrontation and competition Cold War memory in Berlin receives a special emphasis With the friendly support of the Wilson Center Picturing the Language of Images Laurence Petit, 2014-04-11 Picturing the Language of Images is a collection of thirty three previously unpublished essays that explore the complex and ever evolving interaction between the verbal and the visual The uniqueness of this volume lies in its bringing together scholars from around the world to provide a broad synchronic and diachronic exploration of the relationship between text and image as well as a reflection on the limits of representation through a re thinking of the very acts of reading and viewing While covering a variety of media such as literature painting photography film and comics across time from the 18th century to the 21st century this collection also provides a special focus on the work of particular authors such as A S Byatt W G Sebald and Art Spiegelman Cold War Camera Thy Phu, Erina Duganne, Andrea Noble, 2022-11-14 Cold War Camera explores the visual mediation of the Cold War and illuminates photography's role in shaping the ways it was prosecuted and experienced The contributors show how the camera stretched the parameters of the Cold War beyond dominant East West and US USSR binaries and highlight the significance of photography from across the global South Among other topics the contributors examine the production and circulation of the iconic figure of the revolutionary Vietnamese woman in the 1960s and 1970s photographs connected with the coming of independence and decolonization in West Africa family photograph archives in China and travel snapshots by Soviet citizens photographs of apartheid in South Africa and the circulation of photographs of Inuit Canadians who were relocated to the extreme Arctic in the 1950s Highlighting the camera's capacity to envision possible decolonialized futures establish visual affinities and solidarities and advance calls for justice to redress violent proxy conflicts this volume demonstrates that photography was not only crucial to conducting the Cold War it is central to understanding it Contributors Ariella Azoulay Jennifer Bajorek Erina Duganne Evyn L Espiritu Gandhi Eric Gottesman Tong Lam Karantha Lowe ngeles Donoso Macaya Darren Newbury Andrea Noble Sarah Parsons Gil Pasternak Thy Phu Oksana Sarkisova Olga Shevchenko

The Colombo Bay Richard Pollak,2013-09-10 In the face of killer storms fires piracy and terrorism container ships the length of city blocks and more than a dozen stories high carry 90 percent of the world's trade This is an account of one ship's voyage and of the sailors who daily risk their lives to deliver six million containers a year to United States ports alone Inside these twenty foot and forty foot steel boxes are the thousands of imports from chinos and Game Boys to garlic and frozen shrimp without which North America's consumer society would collapse To explore this little known and dangerous universe of modern seafaring Richard Pollak joined the Colombo Bay in Hong Kong and over the next five weeks sailed with her and her 3 500 containers across the South China Sea the Indian Ocean the Mediterranean and the Atlantic En route this mammoth vessel called at Singapore and Colombo passed through the Suez Canal toll 250 000 then put in at Malta and Halifax before tangling with Hurricane Karen on the two day run to New York Here is the story of the ship's unheralded twenty four man company of the unflappable British captain Peter Davies a veteran of four decades at sea of Federico Castrojas who like the rest of the hard working Filipino crew must daily confront the loneliness of being away from his family for nine months at a stretch of Simon Westall the twenty one year old third mate who reveals what it is like to be gay in the broad shouldered world of the merchant service It is a world where pirates in the Malacca Strait sneak up behind ships at night in fast power boats then clamber aboard and either rob the unarmed sailors at gunpoint and escape into the dark or throw the crew into the sea and hijack the ship plundering her cargo and sometimes repainting her and setting out to do business under another name and flag It is a world where families desperate to get to the United States or Europe pay thousands of dollars to the Chinese Snakeheads and other criminal gangs who secrete these wretched migrants in stifling containers after a week or more at sea these stowaways arrive in the Promised Land either starving or dead Pollak sailed on September 13 2001 into a changed world on one of 7 000 container ships whose millions of uninspected boxes suddenly had become potential Trojan horses in which terrorists could transport weapons of mass destruction into the heart of the United States Throughout his riveting narrative Pollak interweaves the insights of Herman Melville and Joseph Conrad whose masterful portrayals of seafaring make the voyage of the Colombo Bay a dramatic reminder of what a hard and rarely reported life merchant seamen have always led out on the unhooped oceans of this planet Representations of the Blessed Virgin Mary in World Literature and Art Elena V. Shabliy, 2017-07-27 This interdisciplinary study explores Marian imagery and representations in world literature and art throughout the centuries This book demonstrates the widespread deep veneration of the image of the Blessed Virgin Mary in various countries and different Christian traditions Devotion to the Holy Virgin has served as a bridge to different cultures overcoming all types of possible borders Religious and cultural literacy is crucial for domestic and international politics the practice of peace harmony justice and prosperity This book also gives recognition and pays homage to the influence of the image of Mater Dolorosa in shaping art and literature around the world The Selling of 9/11 D. Heller, 2016-09-23 The Selling of 9 11 argues that the marketing and commodification of the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 reveal the contradictory processes by which consumers in the United States and around the world use communicate and construct national identity and their sense of national belonging through cultural and symbolic goods Contributors illuminate these processes and make important connections between myths of nation practices of mourning theories of trauma and the politics of post 9 11 consumer culture Their essays take critical stock of the role that consumer goods media and press outlets commercial advertising marketers and corporate public relations have played in shaping cultural memory of a national tragedy
