Research In Labor Economics Volume5:

Handbook of Labor Economics Orley Ashenfelter, 1986 Annotation The Handbook brings together a systematic review of the research topics empirical findings and methods that comprise modern labor economics It serves as an introduction to what has been done in this field while at the same time indicating possible future trends which will be important in both spheres of public and private decision making Part 1 is concerned with the classic topics of labor supply and demand the size and nature of the elasticities between the two and their impact on the wage structure This analysis touches on two fundamental questions what are the sources of income inequality and what are the disincentive effects of attempts to produce a more equal income distribution The papers in Part II proceed from the common observation that the dissimilarity in worker skills and employer demands often tempers the outcomes that would be expected in frictionless labor markets And the last section of the Handbook deals explicitly with the role of institutional structures e g trade unions that now form an important part of modern labor economics 35th Anniversary Retrospective Konstantinos Tatsiramos, Solomon W. Polachek, 2012-09-25 To commemorate Research in Labor Economics s 35th anniversary this retrospective edition contains 20 of the most influential Research in Labor Economics articles along with new introductory prefatory updates written by the original authors Nominations to the U.S. Department of Commerce and the Federal Trade Commission United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, 2012 Research in Labor Economics Joseph D. Reid (Jr.), 1983 An Analysis of UI Recipients' Unemployment Spells Walter Corson, 1983 Female Labour Market Behaviour and Fertility Jacques J. Siegers, Jenny de Jong-Gierveld, Evert van Imhoff, 2012-12-06 Since 1987 the investigation of the relationship between female labour market behaviour and fertility which forms part of the research programme of the Economic Institute Centre for Interdisciplinary Research on Labour Market and Distribution Issues CIAV of Utrecht University also became a part of the research programme of the Netherlands Interdisciplinary Demographic Institute NIDI Since then I have been entrusted with research on this topic In this context I acted on a suggestion made by Frans Willekens to organize an international workshop with the help of other members of the NIDI staff and with the administrative and organizational support of the NIDI This resulted in the workshop Female Labour Market Behaviour and Fertility Preferences Restrictions Behaviour held at the Netherlands Interdisciplinary Demographic Institute in The Hague April 20 22 1989 under the auspices of the European Association for Population Studies EAPS In this workshop demographers econometricians economists psychologists and socio logists discussed the paths to a truly interdisciplinary approach to the relationship between female labour market behaviour and fertility Such an interdisciplinary approach requires a common theoretical framework The rational choice framework was considered to be best suited to this purpose As a consequence the workshop was not only structured by what was studied but also by how it was studied This volume consists of the papers presented at the above mentioned workshop as revised by the authors in collaboration with the editors
