Class And Ethnicity In The Pale Yoav Peled,2016-01-28 Blacks and Britannity Danièle Joly,2020-09-29 This title was first published in 2001 Featuring original research concerning young African Caribbeans in Birmingham this book addresses complex issues of urban violence and insecurity racism and discrimination alienation resistance and social networks Employing the methodology of sociological intervention developed by Alain Touraine the book explores the experiences of a group of young people who are simultaneously presumed to be victims and perpetrators of violence It examines their relationship to this violence its meanings for and effects upon them how they constitute themselves as social actors and subjects and their capacity for action The book also addresses the fact that ethnic monitoring and multicultural policies place the question of ethnicity on the British social and political agenda alongside issues of racism and discrimination Exploring both the perceived and personally experienced position of young people within this context it sheds important new light upon processes of group identification and action

From Immigrants to Ethnic Minority Lorna Chessum,2017-07-05 While there is an extensive sociological literature concerning race relations racial discrimination and the process of migration this has tended to focus on snapshots at a given moment in time There are few historical accounts of the development of black communities in Britain This book will be the first social history of a black community in modern times which attempts to weave many aspects of life together to give a more comprehensive understanding of the lives of black people in Britain The book will address the way peoples lives are constructed through racialized identities and how African Caribbean people in Leicester relate to the wider community It provides an important contribution to the debate concerning the social class profile of different ethnic groups The work is gendered throughout and discusses the different nature of the experiences of men and women The 1991 census shows

Leicester to have the highest proportion of ethnic minority residents of any city outside London however compared to other cities with black and Asian communities it has received little attention from academics The present study charts the development of Leicester's African Caribbean community from its origins in the Second World War to 1981 and its changing construction from immigrants to ethnic minority Philosophies of Integration Adrian Favell, 2016-02-17 A comprehensive comparative study of the distinct ideas and political arguments that have shaped French and British policies towards their ethnic minorities and the effects of these intellectual frameworks at local national and European levels Charting the politics and events that brought the respective institutional solutions together the author sets out the divergent conceptualisations of citizenship nationality pluralism autonomy public order and tolerance that make up the national philosophies in the two countries republican integration in France and multicultural race relations in Britain This new edition published in paperback contains a new preface bringing the volume up to date in the light of new legislation and progress Cross Curricular

Contexts, Themes And Dimensions In Primary Schools Gajendra K. Verma, 2005-06-21 The final volume of four the authors all specialists in the areas of the curriculum consider how the concerns of ethnic groups may be addressed within the framework of the National Curriculum Despite the indecision surrounding the structure content pedagogy and assessment of many components of the primary school curriculum it remains that the multicultural nature of the population and of schools will develop These developments and their educational implications must be considered if the educational system is to respond adequately Resources in Education, 2001-10 Key Variables in Social Investigation Robert

Burgess, 2018-05-11 Key Variables in Social Investigation encourages sociologists and other social scientists to think about the conceptual and empirical problems of using and evaluating key variables in social research The book contains reviews of ten major variables age gender race and ethnicity health and illness education social class and occupation work employment and unemployment and unemployment leisure politics and voluntary ways in which concepts can be specified and translated into variables and indicators Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set L Sociology of Education
