Rose Garden Reading Marcel Proust:

Reading and Writing Experimental Texts Robin Silbergleid, Kristina Quynn, 2017-10-03 This collection of essays offers twelve innovative approaches to contemporary literary criticism The contributors women scholars who range from undergraduate students to contingent faculty to endowed chairs stage a critical dialogue that raises vital questions about the aims and forms of criticism its discourses and politics as well as the personal institutional and economic conditions of its production Offering compelling feminist and queer readings of avant garde twentieth and twenty first century texts the essays included here are playful performative and theoretically savvy Written for students scholars and professors in literature and creative writing Reading and Writing Experimental Texts provides examples for doing literary scholarship in innovative ways These provocative readings invite conversation and community reminding us that if the stakes of critical innovation are high so are the pleasures

The Scent of Light Kristjana Gunnars, 2022-05-17 Kazim Ali introduces five autofiction novellas by Kristjana Gunnars available in the U S for the first time in a single handsome volume Between the late eighties and late nineties Kristjana Gunnars published five transgeneric novels comprised of a scintillating blend of fiction autobiography literary theory and philosophy Elusive and poetic rigorous yet passionate these books were treasured by a devoted readership and have been lauded by critics throughout the years since Kazim Ali from the introduction From a childhood in Cold War Iceland to love affairs and deaths these short works document a life of perpetual motion told a discontinuous subversive style to reflect the singular feminist nomadic life of the narrator It is a life of thought an ongoing engagement with writers from Proust to Kierkegaard to Kristeva seeking and often finding a companionship in the writing of others These five spellbinding narratives act as a bending bow open to what life has to offer day by day and taking the gentler course wherein nothing is forced and life s big questions remain beautifully unanswered The Prowler is a reminiscence of childhood spent in Iceland seen from a distance with the Cold War as a backdrop just before the hyper modernization of the mid sixties when the air of the past was still discernible When an orange was a delicacy against the darkness This is Gunnars most lauded novella Zero Hour is a contemplation and remembrance of the narrator s father and his death The narrative traces the course of the father s illness and final moments and confronts the reality and grief of absolute endings The Substance of Forgetting is ultimately about happiness Set in a lush valley in central B C the narrator begins to awaken to possibilities of love and transcendence The Rose Garden is set in Germany and the narrator is on an academic exchange wherein all that happens are things that are not supposed to happen Night Train to Nykbing is a darker exploration of life s and love s unknowns and the dangers inherent in choices we make The narrator is travelling between Vancouver and Oslo in a continuous back and forth that gives rise to a sense of the liminality of life itself The intimacy grace and intelligence of these narratives is remarkable The mystery and quietude honours the beauty of the everyday as it passes while simultaneously gesturing to vast other worlds Often I was taken by its openings and distances and a marvellous almost translucent quality that permeates the texts Oddly at times it felt as if I were inside a whispering many chambered shell resonant enclosed pearlescent the pleasure afforded enormous Carole Maso author of Ghost Dance From 1989 to 1998 the Icelandic Canadian writer Kristjana Gunnars published five novellas each detailing specific moments in the writer's life Gathered here for the first time they offer a significant new strand of thinking about the rise of autofiction and the history of innovative women's writing in Canada If you loved discovering Annie Ernaux you'll love discovering Kristjana Gunnars Sina Queyras author of Lemon Hound

Kristjana Gunnars Monique Tschofen, 2004 The writings collected here all testify to the complexity of Gunnars's literary vision as much as they testify to the sheer pleasures of reading her work In her interview Gunnars speaks both as a reader and a writer describing the form and modes of address of her work as well as the philosophical and literary traditions she draws from The nine essays and two poems that follow organized chronologically according to the publication dates of the primary texts they treat represent a broad range of approaches to Kristjana Gunnars's work The contributors are M Travis Lane Judith Owens Janice Kulyk Keefer Deidre Lynch Stephen Scobie Anne Malena Siobhan O Flynn K I Press and Christl Verduyn It is my hope that readers will find in this critical community some productive points of entry into Gunnars's corpus that will stimulate their own thinking about her words and ideas from the Introduction by Monique Tschofen

The Rose Garden Kristjana Gunnars, 1996 Combining the genres of fiction memoir the familiar essay and theoretical speculation The Rose Garden forms an unusual synthesis The protagonist and narrator is a Canadian literary scholar on study leave in Germany While there her involvement with her books on the one hand and a love relationship on the other creates a surprising blend of life and fiction Her readings in classical European texts forefront the question of a woman reader's response Her involvement with her lover makes her wonder why there is so little difference between life and literature on the level of experience This is an uncommon book that defies traditional rules of style and genre and provokes the question of what meaning literary works actually have in our lives

Poetry & Barthes Calum Gardner, 2018 The influence of Roland Barthes on contemporary culture has been the subject of much analysis but never before has this influence been closely examined in relation to poetry This innovative study traces Anglophone poetry's response to the literary and cultural theory of Barthes from debate to adoption adaptation and rejection

Teaching Modernist Women's Writing in English Janine Utell, 2021-04-25 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching anglophone modernist writing by Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein Dorothy Richardson Jean Rhys Nella Larsen and others Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature and writing Covers topics such as feminism gender identity canon formation politics activism and war Suggests many digital humanities approaches

Teaching for Aesthetic Experience Gene Diaz, Martha McKenna, 2004 The artist educators in this book invite you to come with them on a journey of discovery into the meaning of teaching for aesthetic experience With learning as their art they create educational encounters with passion and feeling and leave their students with vivid impressions growth and change Each author engages in aesthetic experience from an individual perspective as poet dancer visual artist or musician and each of them engages as an educator who brings art into his or her classroom no matter what the subject Inspired by the words of philosopher Maxine Greene the contributors transform the theoretical into the practical urging students to look to the arts and nature for simple beauty and awaken their minds to new possibilities of creative learning

Modernism's Queer Parents Anchit Sathi, 2025-12-02 This volume offers the first critical examination of how societal pressures compelling individuals towards parenthood are experienced processed and enacted by queer characters in selected works by Thomas Mann Virginia Woolf and Marcel Proust authors now widely regarded as queer despite not having claimed such an identity in their own time The selected texts include Mann s Chaotic World and Childhood Sorrow and Death in Venice Woolf s Mrs Dalloway and Orlando and key sections from Proust s In Search of Lost Time By engaging these texts in a pairwise dialogue this book argues that Mann Woolf and Proust employ a shared repertoire of motifs and narrative strategies to depict queer characters struggles with the institution of parenthood However it contends that each author articulates a distinct and nuanced approach to this theme shaped in part by the specific cultural contexts in which they wrote To substantiate this argument the monograph draws on insights from queer theory metaphor theory and the social sciences predominantly from late twentieth and early twenty first century scholarship thereby reinforcing its commitment to linking literary modernism to contemporary lived realities At the same time the analysis situates these works within the broader socio historical framework of the early twentieth century which is to say the modernist period with which these authors are conventionally associated

Great Stories from the Prairies Birk Sproxtun, 2000 As expansive as a prairie sky as refreshing as a cool breeze on a hot summer day Great Stories from the Prairies collects the best prairie stories of the last one hundred years From Frederick Phillip Grove s classic Snow to the contemporary delights of Sandra Birdsell and Carol Shields prairie writers have existed always in relation to landscape and a strong sense of place Tracing the development of prairie writing over one hundred years Great Stories from the Prairies reveals how broad the influence of landscape but also provides refreshing insight into its many nuances You will find for instance traditional cultural icons of wind dust and the vast expanse of land and sky But nestling against them you will discover the rich circuitry of city life as in the stories of Guy Vanderhaeghe Carol Shields and Meeka Walsh Playing off that nuance are the parklands and boreal forests of Kristjana

Gunnars and W D Valgardson's great inland sea of Lake Winnipeg But perhaps Great Stories from the the Prairies is best characterized by Margaret Laurence who speculates about how prairie dwellers with their horizon accustomed eyes see the world differently from other Canadians This unique collection celebrates that distinct view West Coast Line ,2002
