These poignant stories include war poets and heroes decorated for bravery or just the tales of some of the men buried in the war cemeteries or commemorated on the memorials It also provides a guide in lay terms of the technical impact of field anti tank and AA artillery on the war A second volume will tell the story of artillerymen on the American beaches and landing grounds

Battles for the Channel Ports Daniel Taylor,2024-12-31 Details the Allied operations to capture the strategically vital Channel ports of Le Havre and Boulogne in 1944 highlighting the challenges and battles faced during these key engagements When the Allied armies broke out from the Normandy bridgehead in late July 1944 it became of paramount importance that they quickly capture new harbors to sustain the rapid northward advance All the Allies supplies and reinforcements were still coming in through just two places the Mulberry artificial harbor at Arromanches and the port of Cherbourg captured by the Americans and with supply lines lengthening by the day it was essential to speedily open up ports nearer the armies For Field Marshal Montgomery s 21st Army Group this meant first of all the channel ports of Le Havre and Boulogne Both cities had been declared a Festung Fortress by Hitler and were to be defended to the last man

The attack on Le Havre Operation Astonia was launched on September 10 and was a classic example of a successful set piece battle After the German defenses had been softened up by colossal aerial and naval bombardment and artillery shelling a siege train of specialized armor broke through the outer crust of the German defensive perimeter and allowed two British infantry divisions the 49th West Riding Division and the 51st Highland Division to push through the gap and methodically reduce the enemy strongholds before driving into the heart of the city The attack on Boulogne Operation Wellhit began a week later and was the task of the 3rd Canadian Infantry Division Another set piece assault it was again preceded by a devastating bombardment by RAF heavy bombers which reduced large parts of the city to ruins and a massive artillery barrage Supported by specialized armor two Canadian brigades then moved forward but the Germans resisted stubbornly and it took six days of heavy fighting before the Canadians had subdued all strongpoints and finally forced the garrison to surrender Although both ports were now in Allied hands it brought no immediate alleviation to the Allies logistical problems Harbor installations had been extensively damaged by German demolitions and Allied bombardments and it would take many weeks of rehabilitation before the ports could be brought into use Le Havre which had meanwhile been assigned to the Americans did not see the few first ships arriving until October 2 and Boulogne not until on October 12 As is our hallmark all phases of the battles for the two Channel ports are illustrated with Then and Now comparison photographs The book contains the following two stories from ATB magazine Issue 139 The Capture of Le Havre Author Karel Margry 76 black white photos Issue 86 Operation Wellhit The Capture of Boulogne Author Ian Galbraith 80 black white photos
