Rule Golden And Other Stories:

The golden rule: and other stories for children Mary Catharine Hume- Rothery,1863 Rule Golden Damon Knight,1979-04-01 The Legend of Gold and Other Stories Jun Ishikawa,1998-10-01 The four stories and novella translated in this volume represent the best short fiction by Ishikawa Jun 1899 1987 one of the most important modernist writers to appear on the Japanese literary stage during the years before and after World War II Throughout his career Ishikawa resisted the tide of popular opinion to address issues of political and artistic significance and thereby paved the way for a generation of Japanese internationalists and experimentalists including Abe Kobo and Oe Kenzaburo Highly acclaimed and respected in Japan Ishikawa remains little known in the West in part because of the tendency of Western critics and readers of Japanese literature to focus on writers concerned with aesthetic issues Combining a strong interest in politics with a brilliant use of modernist techniques Ishikawa s work defies easy categorization Banned in 1938 Mars Song has been called the finest example of anti war fiction written during Japan s march to war in China and the Pacific In it Ishikawa denounces the chorus of jingoism that swept Japan and via a metafictional tale within a tale he warns against the suicidal destruction to which complicity in warmongering will lead The allegorical Moon Gems written in the spring of 1945 further explores the tenuous position of the writer moving against the current in a country not only still at war but very near defeat In The Legend of Gold and The Jesus of the Ruins both from 1946 Japan has been reduced to a charred wasteland yet Ishikawa envisions destruction as fertile ground for rebirth and resurrection Finally the semi surrealist novella The Raptor plumbs the meanings and possibilities of peace in the post Occupation era William Tyler s eminently readable translations are faithfully expressive of stylistic and tonal nuances in the original works In a perceptive introduction and the critical essays that follow Tyler emphasizes Ishikawa s importance as an anti establishment even resistance writer and argues that the writer s political iconoclasm goes hand in hand with the modanizumu of his literary experimentation The Legend of Gold will be of tremendous importance in enlarging a Western understanding of the development of the writer s role as social critic and the evolution of the modernist movement in postwar Japan The Gold Brick; And Other Stories Brand Whitlock,2025-08-30 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Her Weight in Gold; And other stories George Barr McCutcheon,2025-08-16 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Gold of the Sunbeams and Other Stories Tito Rajarshi Mukhopadhyay,2005 Two miracles underlie this work the author s age he is seventeen years old and the fact that he is severely autistic Both aspects enrich the substance of his narrative This talented young writer defying the general perception that autistic people imprisoned within themselves are unable to communicate with the outside world has been writing stories of poetic prose and literary eloquence since before he was eight Tito's stories range from beautiful to funny and touching In the title story the young protagonist whose father has been imprisoned for gambling in the park must assume overnight the mantle of responsibility for his family which he does with great heroism until that authority has to be returned to his father and new problems begin In The Showers when a cyclone wreaks devastation in rural India Tito imagines the survivor's plight from the sorrow of losing their homes to the politics of rebuilding their lives In Broken Mirror we learn the history of a room from a broken mirror that hangs on the wall and which Tito imbues with emotions and memories In Grey Apple Green and White he gives life and character to colors the way the French symbolist poet Rimbaud gave colors to vowels The stories connect through a rich and complex imagery of smiles dust motes and margossa trees BOOK JACKET Dogtales! Gardner Dozois, Jack Dann, 2013-06-15 Sixteen spellbinding stories of uncanny canines heroic hounds and magical mutts This latest volume of the Magical Tales series contains tales of fantasy involving a range of unusual canines and features works by Philip K Dick Harlan Ellison Fritz Leiber and others Auto da Fe by Damon Knight Roog by Philip K Dick The Hounds by Kate Wilhelm The Howling Tower by Fritz Leiber Demon Lover by M Sargent Mackay A Few Kindred Spirits by John Christopher Dogs Lives by Michael Bishop here Putzi by L Sprague de Camp and Fletcher Pratt Desertion by Clifford D Simak I Lost my Love to the Space Shuttle Colombia by Damien Broderick The Master of the Hounds by Bruce Boston Friend's Best Man by Jonathan Carroll Wish Hound by Pat Murphy At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management Back to God's Country and Other Stories James Oliver Curwood, 2021-05-19 Back to God's Country and Other Stories showcases James Oliver Curwood's masterful ability to weave tales that reflect the beauty and brutality of the natural world This collection characterized by vivid descriptions and a deep reverence for the wilderness presents a series of narratives that explore themes of love survival and the intrinsic bond between humans and nature Curwood's unique literary style combines adventure with philosophical musings grounded in the early 20th century context where nature writing gained prominence offering readers not only thrilling escapades but also contemplative reflections on existence and morality in the wild Curwood an ardent lover of nature and a prolific author was deeply influenced by his early experiences in the Canadian wilderness His passion for conservation and his advocacy for the natural world are evident throughout this collection as he poignantly brings to life the landscapes and creatures that inhabit it Curwood's background as a hunter and fisherman coupled with his career in journalism provided him with a keen insight into both the joys and perils of life in untamed territories I wholeheartedly recommend Back to God's Country and Other Stories to readers who seek an immersive experience that pays homage to the majesty of the natural world while confronting the human spirit's resilience Curwood's tales are not merely stories they are a clarion call to cherish and protect the wilderness making this collection an essential read for lovers of adventure and nature alike In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works unifying features themes or stylistic evolutions A

General Assembly,1868 Annual Report of the Board of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America Presented to the General Assembly ,1861 The Idiot And Other Stories Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2020-09-28 Towards the end of November during a thaw at nine o clock one morning a train on the Warsaw and Petersburg railway was approaching the latter city at full speed The morning was so damp and misty that it was only with great difficulty that the day succeeded in breaking and it was impossible to distinguish anything more than a few yards away from the carriage windows Some of the passengers by this particular train were returning from abroad but the third class carriages were the best filled chiefly with insignificant persons of various occupations and degrees picked up at the different stations nearer town All of them seemed weary and most of them had sleepy eyes and a shivering expression while their complexions generally appeared to have taken on the colour of the fog outside When day dawned two passengers in one of the third class carriages found themselves opposite each other Both were young fellows both were rather poorly dressed both had remarkable faces and both were evidently anxious to start a conversation If they had but known why at this particular moment they were both remarkable persons they would undoubtedly have wondered at the strange chance which had set them down opposite to one another in a third class carriage of the Warsaw Railway Company One of them was a young fellow of about twenty seven not tall with black curling hair and small grey fiery eyes His nose was broad and flat and he had high cheek bones his thin lips were constantly compressed into an impudent ironical it might almost be called a malicious smile but his forehead was high and well formed and atoned for a good deal of the ugliness of the lower part of his face A special feature of this physiognomy was its death like pallor which gave to the whole man an indescribably emaciated appearance in spite of his hard look and at the same time a sort of passionate and suffering expression which did not harmonize with his impudent sarcastic smile and keen self satisfied bearing He wore a large fur or rather astrachan overcoat which had kept him warm all night while his neighbour had been obliged to bear the full severity of a Russian November night entirely unprepared His wide sleeveless mantle with a large cape to it the sort of cloak one sees upon travellers during the winter months in Switzerland or North Italy was by no means adapted to the long cold journey through Russia from Eydkuhnen to St Petersburg The wearer of this cloak was a young fellow also of about twenty six or twenty seven years of age slightly above the middle height very fair with a thin pointed and very light coloured beard his eyes were large and blue and had an intent look about them yet that heavy expression which some people affirm to be a peculiarity as well as evidence of an epileptic subject His face was decidedly a pleasant one for all that refined but quite colourless except for the circumstance that at this moment it was blue with cold He held a bundle made up of an old faded silk handkerchief that apparently contained all his travelling wardrobe and wore thick shoes and gaiters his whole appearance being very un Russian American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1868
