Class List of the Books in the Reference Library Nottingham (England). Free Public Reference Library, 1883      In Guns We Trust William J. Kole, 2025-10-14 In this unsettling investigation into white evangelicals fusion of the gospel and guns veteran journalist William J Kole exposes how some Christians are standing in the way of reasonable restrictions on firearms and how it makes us all less safe On the evening that the bass player on his worship team casually showed him his handgun the author's world shifted In that moment Kole who was the AP's New England bureau chief when a gunman massacred twenty six people at Sandy Hook Elementary knew he had to figure out what was going on Why were white evangelicals more likely than other Americans to own a weapon What made them treat the Second Amendment as if it were God breathed And how did his own faith rooted in Jesus's call to turn the other cheek get hijacked In the pages of In Guns We Trust Kole looks at the unholy alliance between white evangelicals guns and politics Writing in the tradition of Tim Alberta and Kristin Kobes du Mez he takes us into sanctuaries where worshippers raise hands and pack heat to a rural church that does outreach through target practice with assault rifles and into the lucrative gun making industry in which evangelicals play an outsized role He introduces us to global Christians who can't imagine owning firearms and dissidents in the US who are working for change including activists beating guns into garden tools and nuns who bought company stock so they could sue a gun manufacturer Our nation is awash in more guns than citizens With meticulous research humanizing interviews and immersive narrative Kole pulls back the curtain on the locked and loaded Christianity that got us here Ignoring gun toting believers Kole argues means the violence will continue But when intentional conversation and faithful resistance bear fruit peace may yet prevail      General Regulations Under the Revenue and Collection Laws of the United States, 1857
