Barrera expone la diversidad de actores en juego y el significado que tiene el tribunal para cada uno de ellos. Están quienes llevan a cabo acciones de protesta y consideran el espacio judicial como un foro para hacer oír sus reclamos; están los litigantes que padecen como una falla el proceso de toma de decisiones del tribunal; están los jueces y funcionarios que ven en él casi un almacén de ramos generales al que llega todo tipo de causas; están quienes lo experimentan como una práctica burocrática de creación de expedientes. Con una fina mirada etnográfica la autora se interna en un territorio poco explorado hasta ahora. El espacio de la Corte es reconstruido a través de observaciones directas, entrevistas, recolección de imágenes y de historias de vida poniendo énfasis en aquellos dispositivos que permiten vislumbrar el accionar del derecho en las prácticas y en las conciencias. Así analiza el origen y el curso de los expedientes atendiendo a las condiciones físicas en que se producen, se archivan y se manipulan los escritos y explica también cuánto de escenificación y de montaje tienen las audiencias y cómo esto deviene un instrumento más en la puja por imponer la agenda judicial. La originalidad del libro consiste en presentar el derecho no ya como un conjunto de verdades eternas sino como una actividad cultural que genera conocimiento y a la vez influye en la subjetividad y los vínculos de los participantes. Al tomar nota de las relaciones materiales y simbólicas que los instrumentos legales activan, el funcionamiento del mismo tribunal permite poner en evidencia las instancias propias de la creación del derecho; ese cruce en el que precisamente se define lo jurídico.

El encuentro de Festivales Iberoamericanos de Artes Escénicas Ebero naci como un proyecto especial en el seno del Programa Iberescenario, espacio de cooperación intergubernamental destinado al desarrollo del teatro, la danza y el circo en la región cultural iberoamericana. Desde su creación en 2006, este programa ha sido un espacio de enorme potencial para darle un impulso destacado al sector, como lo han sido también los organismos destinados al impulso específico de la actividad teatral en diversos países de la región. No solo Argentina cuenta con un Instituto dedicado específicamente al fomento de la actividad teatral; varios países latinoamericanos han creado también sus propios organismos estatales con la misma dirección. Sin embargo, la falta de evaluación de las políticas implementadas ha sido uno de los grandes déficits de estos ejemplos de gestión pública.
