Runaway Daughter:

Runaway Daughter in God's Hand Milagros Duran Davis, 2023-03-15 Millie the oldest of twelve children grew up in the only house on a small island in the Philippines Her days were spent doing chores and helping with the children It was a hard life and food was often scarce They did what had to be done in order to survive day by day This was how Millie felt life was for everyone because that was all she knew Millie's life changed as she got older and her father noticed her growing into a beautiful young woman At night she would roll herself inside her floor mat to protect herself from her father's attempts to have his way with her She felt the only way she could survive was to run away from home It was difficult for her to leave her mother and siblings because she loved them and knew she was the one who did most of the hard work for the family Several times her attempts to escape ended with her father and mother finding her and bringing her back It was by the hand of God that she was finally able to escape for good God guided Millie through good times and bad times The Lord always provided what and whom she needed as Millie found her way on her own This was when Millie truly realized it was God who was taking care of her because God was always a step ahead of her Millie went through difficult times but God always created something good from a bad situation The Runaway Daughter Anna DeStefano, 2002 I Am Now Without My Daughter Susannah Benjamin, 2003 Autobiographical account of author's experience in losing her daughter Relays Teresa's claims about violence in the home and her subsequent removal from the family Outlines the grief experienced by the family when daughter Teresa was taken away by counsellors and questions the right of authorities to remove children from loving homes Somebody's Daughter Julian Sher, 2013 With an updated afterword by the author Run Away with My Heart

The Runaway Daughter Anna DeStefano, 2006 The Runaway Daughter by Anna DeStefano released on Feb 14 2006 is available now for purchase The Rebel Daughter Lauri Robinson, 2015-09-01 For every wild child No more watching from the sidelines for Twyla Nightingale her feet are firmly on the dance floor She won't let anyone sour the delicious taste of freedom especially not Forrest Reynolds back in town after all this time there s a guy who thinks she s the bee s knees Forrest didn t expect a warm welcome from the Nightingale sisters not after their lives had been so dramatically upturned But seeing the challenge in Twyla s eyes Forrest takes this rebel for a wild dance she won t forget Writing Mothers, Writing Daughters Janet Burstein,1996 Conscription and the Search for Modern Russian Jewry Olga Litvak,2006-12-06 Olga Litvak has written a book of astonishing originality and intellectual force In vivid prose she takes the reader on a journey through the Russian Jewish literary imagination Benjamin Nathans Russian Jews were first conscripted into the Imperial Russian army during the reign of Nicholas I in an effort to integrate them into the population of the Russian Empire Conscripted minors were to serve in practical terms for life Although this system was abandoned by his successor the conscription experience remained traumatic in the popular memory and gave rise to a large and continuing literature that often depicted Jewish soldiers as heroes This imaginative and intellectually ambitious book traces the conscription theme in novels and stories by some of the best known Russian Jewish writers such as Osip Rabinovich Judah Leib Gordon and Mendele Mokher Seforim as well as by relatively unknown writers Published with the generous support of the Koret Foundation Parenting After the Century of the Child Tatjana Thelen,2016-05-13 Bridging the gap between studies orientated around parenthood and those on the globalization of childhood Parenting After the Century of the Child provides a timely intervention to the scholarship It explores in depth negotiations of travelling ideals on childhood showing the power of institutional implementations that affect parenting practices Drawing on the latest research conducted in Europe North and South America Africa and South East Asia this book examines ideas currently travelling across the globe within institutional settings providing new insights into the dynamics and ambivalences involved in the simultaneous reframing of childhood and parenthood This truly global volume will appeal to anthropologists and sociologists with interests in gender childhood studies and the sociology of the family Oversight Hearing on Runaway and Homeless Youth Program United States. or reinterpret the marriage rules of their societies rules that anthropologists previously thought reflected practice It is the first book to consider not just what the rules are but how people in these societies negotiate manipulate and break them in choosing whom to marry Using ethnographic case studies that draw on previously unpublished material from well known indigenous cultures The Anthropology of Marriage in Lowland South America defies the tendency to focus only on the social structure of kinship and marriage that is so common in kinship studies Instead the contributors to this volume examine the people that conform to or deviate from that structure and their reasons for doing so They look not only at deviations in kinship behavior motivated by gender economics politics history ecology and sentimentality but also at how globalization and modernization are changing the ancestral norms and values themselves This is a richly diverse portrayal of agency and individual choice alongside normative kinship and marriage systems in a region that has long been central to anthropological studies of indigenous life Paul Valentine is professor emeritus of anthropology at the University of East London Stephen Beckerman is adjunct professor at the University of Utah Together Valentine and Beckerman have coedited Revenge in the Cultures of Lowland South America and Cultures of Multiple Fathers The Theory and Practice of Partible Paternity in Lowland South America Catherine Alls is director of research at the National Center for Scientific Research Paris and is the author of Yanomami lire et le d sir
