Writing Within / Without / About Sri Lanka Paolo Brusasco, 2010-12-01 Paola Brusasco's study offers an original insight into Sri Lankan literature in English and an exploration of cultural social and linguistic issues at the basis of the country's ethnic conflict By focussing on two distinctive and representative writers both Burghers yet with different personal histories Brusasco confronts issues of cartography history and language all contributing to a specific definition of identity Both Ondaatje and Muller are outsiders the former because of his diasporic existence the latter because of his excentricity within the reality of a divided country where the legacy of British colonialism and the process of redefinition following independence in 1948 as well as matters of geography and history become crucial to writers Masculine Migrations Daniel Coleman, 1998-01-01 Examines the representation of masculinities in the work of some of Canada's most exciting writers

The Diaspora Writes Home Jasbir Jain,2017-09-13 This book by eminent author Jasbir Jain explores the many ways the diaspora remembers and reflects upon the lost homeland and their relationship with their own ancestry history of the homeland culture and the current political conflicts Amongst the questions this book asks is how does the diaspora relate to their home and what is the homeland s relationship to the diaspora as representatives of the contemporary homeland in another country The last is an interesting point of discussion since the present of the homeland and of the diaspora cannot be equated The transformations that new locations have brought about as migrants have travelled through time and interacted with the politics of their settled lands Africa Fiji the Caribbean Islands the UK the US Canada as well as the countries created out of British India such as Pakistan and Bangladesh have altered their affiliations and perspectives This book gathers multiple dispersions of emigrant writers and artistes from South Asia across time and space to the various homelands they relate to now The word write is used in its multiplicity to refer to creative expression as an inscription as connectivity and remembrance Writing is also a representation and carries its own baggage of poetics and aesthetics categories which need to be problematised vis vis the writer and his her emotional location

Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel John Russell,2000 Nonfiction novels have usually been associated with the new journalism writers of the 1960s such as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer and Truman Capote Yet this form has long commanded a key position in the literary canon as John Russell now reveals Russell identifies eleven major works not usually thought of as nonfiction novels such as Isak Dinesen s Out of Africa and E E Cummings s The Enormous Room to create a new definition of the genre He shows that journalistic writing is characterized by a reporter s proprietary stance which undermines reciprocity with subjects while true nonfiction novels feature greater reciprocity and also employ such techniques as circular narrative and bricolage Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel contributes to ongoing explorations of literary forms and offers wise commentary on how writing about real life can become art

R. Kets de Vries,Randel S. Carlock,2010-03-02 The challenge faced by family businesses and their stakeholders is to recognise the issues that they face understand how to develop strategies to address them and more importantly to create narratives or family stories that explain the emotional dimension of the issues to the family The most intractable family business issues are not the business problems the organisation faces but the emotional issues that compound them Applying psychodynamic concepts will help to explain behaviour and will enable the family to prepare for life cycle transitions and other issues that may arise Here is a new understanding and a broader perspective on the human dynamics of family firms with two complementary frameworks psychodynamic and family systematic to help make sense of family run organisations Although this book includes a conceptual section it is first and foremost a practical book about the real world issues faced by business families The book begins by demonstrating that many years of achievement through generations can be destroyed by the next if the family fails to address the psychological issues they face By exploring cases from famous and less well known family businesses across the world the authors discuss entrepreneurs the entrepreneurial family and the lifecycles of the individual and the organisation They go on to show how companies going through change and transition can avoid the pitfalls that endanger both family and company The authors then apply tools that will help family businesses in transition and offer their analyses and conclusions Readers should draw their own conclusions from careful examination of the cases identifying the problems or dilemmas faced and the options for improved business performance and family relationships They should ask what they might have done in the given situation and what new insight into individual or family behaviour each case offers The goal is to avoid a bitter ending
