Switzer's historic running of the Boston Marathon as the first woman to run. In 1967 Kathrine Switzer was the first woman to officially run what was then the all male Boston Marathon infuriating one of the event's directors who attempted to violently eject her. In one of the most iconic sports moments Switzer escaped and finished the race. She made history and is poised to do it again on the fiftieth anniversary of that initial race when she will run the 2017 Boston Marathon at age 70. Now a spokesperson for Reebok Switzer is also the founder of 261 Fearless a foundation dedicated to creating opportunities for women on all fronts as this groundbreaking sports hero has done throughout her life. Kathrine Switzer is the Susan B Anthony of women's marathoning. Joan Benoit Samuelson first Olympic gold medalist in the women's marathon. Midas Touch and Miracles of Indian Sports : Suffering, Pain, Agony, Ecstasy Shyamal Bhattacharjee, 2024-11-12 This book is a result of my deep concern for the brutal realities that our athletes face and realities that the public rarely hears about. I felt compelled to write this book because the conditions that our sportspeople endure defy not just the laws of sportsmanship but the fundamental principles of human rights. This book is my way of exposing these violations. The right to dignity to fair treatment to a life free from exploitation these are rights that our athletes are denied. This book is also a tribute to those forgotten athletes the ones who gave their all for the nation only to be discarded when they could no longer compete at the highest level. My hope is that this book will serve as a wake up call a rallying cry for change.
