Running For Office A Look At Political Campaigns:

Running for Office Sandra Donovan, 2003-01-09 Describes what is involved in running a political campaign from deciding to run for office through election night

Political Campaigns in the United States Richard K. Scher, 2016-02-19 A Choice Highly Recommended Title January 2017 This book is an interpretive analysis of political campaigns in America instead of focusing on how campaigns are designed and run it investigates the role campaigns play in our American politics and the close symbiosis between campaigns and those politics The text examines how campaigns are an important manifestation of how we do politics in this country Hallmarks of this text include showing how campaigns can undermine our democracy and asking how democratic they are and by extension our politics really are demonstrating that the ability of the media to accurately fairly and deeply report on campaigns has been severely compromised both because of the growing distance between campaigns and media outlets and because of the structure of Big Media corporate ownership and its tight relationship to Big Money It asks important questions about the media including How do the media reporters in particular cover campaigns What pressures and forces shape what and how they present campaigns What is the impact of the ever increasing chasm separating campaigns and the media How does the close tie between corporate mainstream media and Super PAC money affect campaign coverage How does the ability of campaigns and media to segment voters into ever smaller slices influence how campaigns are covered tracking the continuing growth of unregulated private unaccountable dark money in campaigns as a threat to our democratic elections and politics Democracy rests fundamentally on transparency and accountability sunlight and our campaign laws and norms now allow and encourage exactly the opposite largely because of decisions by the United States Supreme Court

Campaigns That Matter Jay Wendland, 2017-06-30 Every four years Americans are inundated with campaign activities from candidates attempting to become the next president of the United States An under researched area of these campaign activities are campaign visits rallies town hall meetings and candidate meet and greets for example Almost all candidates conduct visits yet we do not have a good understanding of how they affect voters Wendland tackles four big questions throughout Campaigns That Matter 1 Do campaigns matter 2 Are campaign visits strategic 3 Do visits help mobilize voters 4 Do visits impact candidate preference Using a unique set of data that includes all visits conducted throughout the 2008 2012 and 2016 presidential nominating contests Wendland explores how these visits affected voters compared to traditional measures of advertisements campaign spending and momentum In doing so Wendland has provided us with a more comprehensive picture of how voters make decisions in the voting booth

Political Consultants and Campaigns Jason Johnson, 2018-04-19 Political Consultants and Campaigns One Day to Sell examines the differences between how political science theory suggests campaigns should be run and how political consultants actually run campaigns In the wake of consultants who effortlessly move from campaigners to policymakers the dearth of knowledge about the attitudes beliefs and strategies of the consultants themselves is still a glaring absence in the analysis of American politics How can we purport to know what is happening in American political campaigns if we don't know what is on the minds of the men and women who run them This book provides a clearer understanding of modern day political campaigns by revealing what is on the minds of the people who run them With original data from consultants campaign managers and professional campaign schools author Jason Johnson examines consultant behavior on message formation policy positioning candidate recruitment Internet strategy and negative advertising and compares these practices to existing political science theory This groundbreaking research makes Political Consultants and Campaigns One Day to Sell a must have resource for all students of American politics campaign managers or anyone interested in how political campaigns in America are run

How to Run for Political Office and Win Melanie Williamson, 2011 The American Government including the national state and local levels has more than 400 000 elected and appointed public officials according to a New York Times estimate That number more than the number of people who work for most major companies is a tell tale sign of just how important the political system is in this country To become part of it however and realize your dream of running and being elected to local office you need to know exactly what will be expected of you what is going to come up during the campaign and how much time and energy the process might take out of your life This book is written to guide every potential new politician down the path of filing for gathering support and running for local office whether you are a lawman judge politician or concerned parent You will start by reading a complete list of everything you need to know about the process of running for office from the rules that govern your conduct to the timeline you can expect to start living You will learn how to organize your resources and start hiring campaign staff You will learn how to start creating a database of donors and individuals who can be called or contacted when drumming up support You will be walked through the process of dredging up your own past and disclosing everything you can about yourself to offset the potential for negative campaigning by your opponent Successful local politicians and campaign staff have been interviewed for this book and have provided detailed information about what you can expect when you start the process of running for office from the door to door walking to the campaign literature and signs that must be created You will learn the ins and outs of campaign fundraising and how to acquire the best possible endorsements to your campaign You will learn what events you should be appearing at and how to start gaining access to television commercial air time Finally you will be walked through the phone bank and survey process on the road to the primaries and through the primaries to what you can expect on Election Day From start to finish you will learn everything you need to know to effectively run and win your campaign for local office with this book
