Library of Congress Subject Headings: F-O Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division,1988 P-Z Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy,1990 Australia's Toxic Medical Culture Vicki Adele Pascoe,2018-10-11 This book explores dominance in Australia s medical culture through the positioning of international medical graduates IMGs It argues that IMGs are othered and ultimately positioned as an underclass a positioning validated and reinforced by the intersecting inequalities of class race and nation It also suggests that the positioning of IMGs is organised through the dimensions of structural power hegemonic power and interpersonal power which allow an exploration of power relations between the structures of the health system the Australian medical profession and the agency of IMGs The Australian narrative presented to the world espouses a community of social justice and human rights Instead an historical lens traces the formation and persistence of difference represented in ethnocentrism racism and xenophobia from 1788 to the present The research presented is multidisciplinary in scope An anti oppressive theoretical framework enables the voices of lived experience to penetrate throughout and a social justice platform engages the participants and the reader into the interwoven conversations The data set comprises a focus group 10 individual interviews with IMGs and a selection of inquiry submissions revealing rich and sometimes shocking evidence to paint a stark picture Other medical voices join the conversation via media responses to revelations of experiences not only by IMGs but also by Australian trained doctors It exposes a toxic culture endemic with bullying and sexual harassment This book is of interest to practitioners researchers and administrators in the fields of medical education human resource management legal studies health sciences social sciences health services government departments universities and hospitals as well as those tasked with duty of care and the provision of a safe workplace The voices gifted to this study raise awareness of current issues within medicine in Australia at a very personal level and begin to formulate a policy and practical response to address these disturbing revelations Graduate Medical Education in Family Medicine Rick Kellerman,Gretchen Irwin,2025-03-29 This book outlines the basic structure and processes of family medicine residency education programs Family medicine residency programs are complex adaptive learning organizations that involve people processes procedures buildings budgets high stakes mistakes mission statements strategies schedules curricula faculty and residents Residency program faculty are faced with many challenges and this book gives them and others who are interested or involved in residency programs a clear and comprehensive breakdown of family medicine graduate medical education The volume opens with detailed overviews of several family medicine organizations that support residency programs and faculty Subsequent chapters cover a range of topics including best practices in resident assessment and evaluation and best practices pertinent to the development of teaching and administrative skills for faculty Furthermore chapters explain necessary residency education accreditation requirements which includes the understanding of the accreditation requirements board certification requirements Medicare graduate medical education funding policies and Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services CMMS billing regulations All authors have been family medicine residency program directors or faculty or have been intimately involved in residency program education Graduate Medical Education in Family Medicine offers residency program directors faculty and residency administrators a wide ranging and comprehensive overview of family medicine residency education as well as specific administrative and educational best practices for residency education This book will also be useful to those physicians with experience in their clinical field but not in educational pedagogy and andragogy Developments in Aging, 1991 ,1992 Developments in Aging United States.
