Rural Non Farm Activities Pov:

The Palgrave Handbook of Agricultural and Rural Development in Africa Evans S. Osabuohien, 2020-07-06 This handbook examines agricultural and rural development in Africa from theoretical empirical and policy stand points It discusses the challenges of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and assesses how poverty and other development concerns can be addressed in rural communities through agricultural transformation Additionally the handbook extends the Post 2015 Development Agenda and it emphasizes the importance of the agricultural sector as it is closely related to the issues of food sustainability poverty reduction and employment creation The contributors suggest multiple evidence based policies to develop the rural areas through the transformation of the agricultural sector which can significantly benefit the African continent

Priorities and Strategies in Rural Poverty Reduction Diana Alarcón González, 2004

Productivity Growth in Agriculture Keith Owen Fuglie, Sun Ling Wang, V. Eldon Ball, 2012 This volume is written primarily for agricultural economists doing research on productivity It includes discussions of the theoretical underpinnings of productivity measurement as well as the many practical considerations that go into translating this theory into actual measures of aggregated outputs and inputs The unifying concept of agricultural productivity used across the chapters of this volume is aggregate total factor productivity TFP of the sector The volume also contains detailed analysis of the underlying causes of agricultural productivity growth Part I chapters 2-6 examines agricultural productivity in high income and transition countries Part II chapters 7-11 examines agricultural productivity growth and its driving forces in five important agricultural producers in Asia and Latin America Part III chapters 12-14 focuses on measuring and identifying constraints to agricultural productivity growth in sub Saharan Africa Part IV chapters 15-16 gives a global perspective on agricultural productivity

Transforming Food Systems for a Rising India Prabhu Pingali, Anaka Aiyar, Mathew Abraham, Andaleeb Rahman, 2019-05-14 This open access book examines the interactions between India's economic development agricultural production and nutrition through the lens of a Food Systems Approach FSA The Indian growth story is a paradoxical one Despite economic progress over the past two decades regional inequality food insecurity and malnutrition problems persist Simultaneously recent trends in obesity along with micro nutrient deficiency portend to a future public health crisis This book explores various challenges and opportunities to achieve a nutrition secure future through diversified production systems improved health and hygiene environment and greater individual capability to access a balanced diet contributing to an increase in overall productivity The authors bring together the latest data and scientific evidence from the country to map out the current state of food systems and nutrition outcomes They place India within the context of other developing country experiences and highlight India's status as an outlier in terms of the persistence of high levels of stunting while following global trends in obesity This book discusses the policy and institutional interventions needed for promoting a nutrition sensitive food system and the multi sectoral strategies needed for simultaneously addressing the triple burden of malnutrition in India

Poverty Alleviation Pathways for Achieving Sustainable Development Goals in Africa

Thokozani Simelane, 2020-10-28 The inability to eradicate poverty among societies demands a synergistic approach. This calls for the development of multi-pronged pathways for transitioning towards sustainable development goals. Many of these have been developed and tested across the world. Some have proved to be effective in illuminating the underlying cause of the world's inability to eradicate poverty. This is being driven by the fact that sustainable development as a global development concept represents a multidimensional phenomenon that includes many different indicators of human development. This volume, which derives from the papers presented at the seventh Africa Unity for Renaissance Conference that was held at Freedom Park Pretoria, South Africa, seeks to supplement existing pathways by highlighting Africa's approach to poverty alleviation, which can possibly be attained through enhanced nutrition, food security, energy, and gender equity. Evidence presented reflects strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities on how Africa can transition towards sustainable development goals. The information provided is useful to countries interested in assisting Africa to develop pathways for achieving sustainable development goals within the scope of Agenda 2063. The book is a good reference for policy makers, academics, government authorities, and students interested in research and developmental studies.

Agro-industries for

Development, 2009-01-01 The development of competitive agro-industries is crucial for creating employment and income opportunities, as well as enhancing the quality of and demand for farm products. This book addresses strategies required for improving agro-industrial competitiveness in ways that can generate employment and fight poverty in the developing world.

Agro-industries for Development Carlos A. Da Silva, 2009 The development of competitive agro-industries is crucial for creating employment and income opportunities, as well as enhancing the quality of and demand for farm products. Agro-industries can have a real effect on international development by increasing economic growth and reducing poverty in both rural and urban areas of developing countries. However, in order to avoid adverse effects to vulnerable countries and people, sound policies and strategies for fostering agro-industries are needed. Agro Industries for Development highlights the current status and future course for agro-industries and brings attention to the contributions this sector can make to international development. The book includes contributions from agro-industry specialists, academic experts, and UN technical agencies. Chapters address the strategies and actions required for improving agro-industrial competitiveness in ways that can create income, generate employment, and fight poverty in the developing world. This book is a co-publication with FAO and UNIDO.

Inequality and

Poverty in China in the Age of Globalization Azizur Rahman Khan, Carl Riskin, 2001 China's explosive economic growth since 1988 has not resulted in an equal increase of income among all Chinese citizens. The authors explore a range of reasons for the disparity and base their conclusions on strong empirical evidence, especially the 1996 survey conducted by the State Statistical Bureau.

Handbook of Agricultural Economics Robert E. Evenson, Prabhu Pingali, 2009-10-20 Advances in agriculture offer many countries the best and only chance of reducing poverty Yet economic growth and population increases are driving higher demand for food and rising real prices What solutions have successfully promoted agriculture This volume examines national and international food agriculture policies and how they enhance agricultural productivity growth It provides unique historical reviews on policies and their effects and it clearly articulates both positive and negative lessons for promoting agriculture lead growth With chapters written by international authorities this book recognizes that agriculture is not just about providing food for today but about growing it in an environmentally sustainable way that can help people work their ways out of poverty Chapters cover international macro economic policies and trade farm structure in developing countries regional experiences in agriculture and regional studies on agricultural productivity policies

Undernutrition, Agriculture and Public Provisioning Swarna Sadasivam Vepa, Brinda Viswanathan, 2020-04-21 Using quantitative techniques this volume provides empirical evidence on the crucial role of public provisioning of food water sanitation and health care in reducing undernutrition among women and children in India The linkages are cogently explored and connected to the sustainable development goals Key data comes from recent large secondary sources at district household and individual levels and the econometric methodologies are clearly explained Taken as a whole it highlights the effects of public provisioning on malnutrition and identifies the relative importance of agricultural growth in resolving the nutrition problems in rural and semi urban areas of India This edited volume will be valuable reading for advanced graduate students researchers and practitioners in development economics development studies and nutrition and public health
