A Life at the Crossroads Michael L. Cooper-White,2024-01-05 A Life at the Crossroads tells the story of a Minnesota farm boy who became an inner city pastor high profile denominational executive and the last president of the world s most historic seminary Gettysburg Lutheran Cooper White who is also a commercial pilot and flight instructor pursued journalism following his ministerial career In clear and winsome prose he shares his personal autobiography along with a treasure trove of twentieth century ecclesiastical history From facing machine guns in Chile and El Salvador to taking on church controversies over sexuality and ecumenical initiatives to leading consolidation of two rival seminaries Cooper White s is the story of a cleric who took seriously the call to be a public theologian The consolidation of the two institutions which had failed in a half dozen previous attempts offers a case study in patient and persistent long term leadership

Black Earth and Ivory Tower Zachary Michael Jack,2005 The collected reflections and wisdoms of 30 contemporary farmer writer teachers Heralding the seventy fifth anniversary of the quintessential agrarian anthology I ll Take My Stand Zachary Michael Jack himself a fourth generation farmer s son has assembled North America s foremost contemporary writers on the present rural experience to provide their own twenty first century insights In the grand tradition of farmer writers Robert Frost Henry David Thoreau and Andrew Lytle Black Earth and Ivory Tower New American Essays from Farm and Classroom gathers the disparate wisdoms of modern day stewards of the land including Victor David Hanson Michael Martone Linda Hasselstrom John Hildebrand Country Things cartoonist Bob

Artley and Duane Acker former U S Assistant Secretary of Science and Education and former president of Kansas State University These gifted teachers and growers offer hard won inspiration from the field and the classroom exemplifying the multifaceted farm grounded talents that call them to lives as writers visual artists conservation tillers environmentalists economists policymakers extension agents and grassroots activists Seeking a balanced life that reconciles the hands heart and head they follow roads less traveled to find agrarian lifestyles at once enlightening and challenging At a time when less than two percent of Americans count themselves as farmers these writers all of whom have cultivated the earth and climbed the ivory tower underscore the diversity of the American farm as a wellspring of learning Their plainspoken commentaries on modern farming teaching and living will remind older generations of time honored agrarian values and provide a new generation with a literate critical account of shifting national priorities Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996

Rethinking Home Joseph A. Amato,2002-04-01 Joseph A Amato proposes a bold and innovative approach to writing local history in this imaginative wide ranging and deeply engaging exploration of the meaning of place and home Arguing that people of every place and time deserve a history Amato draws on his background as a European cultural historian and a prolific writer of local history to explore such topics as the history of cleanliness sound anger madness the clandestine and the environment in southwestern Minnesota While dedicated to the unique experiences of a place his lively work demonstrates that contemporary local history provides a vital link for understanding the relation between immediate experience and the metamorphosis of the world at large In an era of encompassing forces and global sensibilities Rethinking Home advocates the power of local history to revivify the individual the concrete and the particular This singular book offers fresh perspectives themes and approaches for energizing local history at a time when the very notion of place is in jeopardy Amato explains how local historians shape their work around objects we can touch and institutions we have directly experienced For them theory always gives way to facts His vivid portraits of individual people places situations and cases which include murders crop scams and taking custody of the law are joined to local illustrations of the use of environmental and ecological history This book also puts local history in the service of contemporary history with the examination of recent demographic social and cultural transformations Critical concluding chapters on politics and literature especially Sinclair Lewis s Main Street and Longfellow s Hiawatha show how metaphor and myth invent distort and hold captive local towns peoples and places School Life ,1920
