Rural Woman Battering And The Justice System An Ethnography:

Rural Women Battering and the Justice System Neil Websdale, 1997-11-11 Drawing on his ethnographic research in rural areas of Kentucky the author of this book presents a thorough look at the experiences of battered women in rural communities Neil Websdale demonstrates how rural patriarchy and an insidious old boys network of law enforcement and local politics sustains and reproduces the subordinate vulnerable isolated position of many rural women Taking into account that traditional patterns of intervention can often put women in isolated communities at further risk the author recommends a coordinated multi agency approach to rural battering spearheaded by the agencies of state feminism Rural Woman Battering and the Justice System, 1998 The author shows how an insidious old boys network within the official institutions including the courts the police and local politics perpetuates the unjust and sometimes violent treatment of women in rural situations

Family Violence and Nursing Practice, Second Edition Janice Humphreys, PhD, RN, CS, NP, Jacquelyn C. Campbell, PhD, RN, FAAN, 2010-07-28 Nurses too often encounter battered women abused children and other victims of family violence in hospital and emergency room settings Nurses therefore have a unique and important role to play in the prevention identification and mitigation of violence This newly revised second edition is a landmark resource that provides comprehensive nursing focused coverage of intimate partner violence IPV child abuse and more This textbook provides a detailed overview of all types of family and other violence including IPV same sex IPV abuse during pregnancy intimate partner homicide stalking violence against women with disabilities dating violence child abuse children witnessing violence sexual assault of both children and adults and elder abuse The book offers both graduate and undergraduate nursing students a clear view of the essential theories interventions and issues surrounding nursing and family violence presenting an approach that empowers nurses to contribute to the prevention of this worldwide health problem Special Features Chapters on legal and forensic issues address the nurse's role and responsibilities when confronting family violence In depth attention to cultural issues promote culturally relevant practice Abundant diagrams and tables offer quick access to essential standards for care Practice assessment forms and model interventions give practical strategies for addressing family violence A new chapter describes international work in family violence

Male Peer Support and Violence Against Women Walter S. DeKeseredy, Martin D. Schwartz, 2013-11-05 An important and timely reassessment of a crucial theory in male violence against women

Safety Planning with Battered Women Jill M. Davies, Eleanor Lyon, Diane Monti-Catania, 1998 Safety Planning with Battered Women introduces a new model of woman defined advocacy that is designed to bridge the gap that sometimes occurs between a battered woman's perspective and a victim advocate's perception Created to improve service delivery to women who are victims of domestic violence this new model emphasizes placing attention on the victim's assessment of the risk in a violent relationship and in her decision making Authors Jill Davies Eleanor Lyon and Diane Monti Catania strive to help advocates better understand battered women's decisions including the decision to remain in an abusive relationship to improve advocacy for victims with varying cultural backgrounds and experiences and to provide advocates with assistance in redesigning their services so they may better meet the needs of battered women Since there are no quick fixes to the problems encountered in cases of domestic violence it is vital that victims be provided with a real understanding of their options and the opportunity to implement those safety plans they deem most feasible Safety Planning with Battered Women helps advocates tailor alternatives that will enhance the safety of battered women based on the individual realities of battered women This book is both enlightening and highly practical and is a must read for anyone working with domestic violence victims By introducing a woman defined model and offering a new approach to advocacy Safety Planning with Battered Women will compel readers to reexamine current approaches and examine the future provision of services to domestic violence victims making it a valuable resource for students researchers academics professionals and practitioners

Spousal Violence Among World Christians Elizabeth Koepping, 2020-10-01 This book takes a global approach to violence between husbands and wives in faith contexts Focusing primarily on Christians the book uses anthropological theological and historical methods which intersect with and are challenged by lay and ordained women and men from sixteen countries Focusing on marital violence the book explores ways to understand how various churches their priests preachers theologians and members approach the topic interpret the texts and with often thoughtless complicity hide from the sin Drawing on over a decade researching marital violence in Christian contexts across five continents Elizabeth Koepping an anthropologist and priest presents testimonies from abused women as well as theological and cultural justifications for spousal abuse employed by perpetrators and bystanders She argues that if violence against the female spouse is understood as proper behaviour by many men towards unruly wives Christians may set aside the core text Men and women are made in the Image of God enabling and silently colluding in abuse The book shows that spousal abuse is an ecumenical phenomenon present all over the inhabited world and therefore in all Christian churches and indeed other faith traditions Backs

Against the Wall Kathy A McCloskey, Marilyn H. Sitaker, 2013-10-18 Backs Against the Wall Battered Women's Resistance Strategies tackles several controversial aspects involved with intimate partner violence IPV namely the approaches many victims use when resisting their oppressors This sensitive and sensible feminist perspective concerning battered women's use of different resistance strategies and the reasons why they use them also focuses on ways to support victims through intervention and prevention strategies Leading experts provide current research revealing viewpoints and convincing assertions about the victims of IPV This book powerfully refutes the sweeping assertions made by today's antifeminist based mindset that women are as violent as men in cases of IPV perpetration This insightful source provides strong evidence of the different resistance strategies that battered women use in response to multiple oppressions including IPV in the case against the gender parity argument that may very well be politically motivated The text provides extensive references and several figures and tables to clearly present data This book is a valuable resource for activists educators students health providers justice system workers advocates and researchers This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Aggression Maltreatment and Trauma      Island Criminology John Scott,Zoe Staines,2024-05-21 Ten percent of the world s population lives on islands but until now the place and space characteristics of islands in criminological theory have not been deeply considered This book moves beyond the question of whether islands have more or less crime than other places and instead addresses issues of how and by whom crime is defined in island settings which crimes are policed and visible and who is subject to regulation These questions are informed by the politics of place and belonging and the distinctive social networks and normative structures of island communities      Family Law Reimagined Jill Elaine Hasday,2014-06-30 This is the first book to explore the canonical narratives stories examples and ideas that legal decisionmakers invoke to explain family law and its governing principles Jill Elaine Hasday shows how this canon misdescribes the reality of family law misdirects attention away from actual problems family law confronts and misshapes policies      Policing the Poor Neil Websdale,2001 A hard hitting examination of community policing and its negative impact on the urban poor      Gender-based Violence and Rurality in the 21st Century Ziwei Qi, April N. Terry, Tamara J. Lynn, 2023-05-30 Gender based violence GBV and its relationship to rurality is a challenging topic and this edited collection provides an innovative analysis of GBV in rural communities The book explores patterns of violence in addition to GBV education and prevention concluding with best practices to positively affect the lives of survivors      Masculinities and Violence Lee H. Bowker, 1998 Understanding the masculinities violence nexus is crucially important to finding ways to mitigate the masculine tendency towards violence Taking a sobering look at men and violence Lee H Bowker has carefully chosen essays which shed light on the causes and settings of masculine violence The three essays in Part One lay out the ways in which men learn violence and repeat it Part Two focuses on the ways men victimize women and children Part Three turns to the ways men victimize other men and the final part examines men and organizational violence      Coordinating Community Responses to Domestic Violence Melanie F. Shepard, Ellen L. Pence, 1999-08-21 This book provides a comprehensive guide to the development of a coordinated community response to domestic violence based on the internationally known Duluth Model Drawing from the experiences of practitioners scholars and researchers in the field this book provides rich insights into the complexities and challenges of addressing domestic violence Eight key components of a successful community intervention project are addressed in separate chapters Developing policies and protocols Enhancing networking among service providers Building monitoring and tracking systems Developing a supportive infrastructure for victims Providing sanctions and rehabilitation opportunities Addressing the needs of children Evaluating the effectiveness of community response Other chapters discuss types of violence that have been most difficult to address in providing a community response the use of violence by women and marital rape Replication and adaptation in different countries England Australia and New Zealand are the focus of two chapters that lend an international perspective This book provides the answers about what is indeed the Duluth Model

Same-Sex Domestic Violence Sandra Lundy, Beth Leventhal, 1999-08-24 Same Sex Domestic Violence focuses on topics of practical concern in a neglected area of partner abuse Contributors to this volume are prominent professionals and activists in the field

Equality with a Vengeance Molly Dragiewicz, 2011 A provocative investigation of how fathers rights groups are trying to erode the gains of the battered women s movement

Contemporary Critical Criminology Walter S. DeKeseredy, 2010-09-13 The concept of critical criminology that crime and the present day processes of criminalization are rooted in the core structures of society is of more relevance today than it has been at any other time Written by an internationally renowned scholar Contemporary Critical Criminology introduces the most up to date empirical theoretical and political contributions made by critical criminologists around the world In its exploration of this material the book also challenges the erroneous but widely held notion that the critical criminological project is restricted to mechanically applying theories to substantive topics or to simple calling for radical political economic cultural and social transformations This book is an essential source of reference for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of Criminology Criminal Theory Social Policy Research Methodology and Penology

International Handbook of Criminology Shlomo Giora Shoham, Paul Knepper, Martin Kett, 2010-02-23 The second handbook in the Shoham trilogy which includes the esteemed International Handbook of Penology and Criminal Justice and the upcoming International Handbook of Victimology this volume is a comprehensive treatment of criminology theory This text contains contributions from 25 of the top international scholars in the field across a wide range of disciplines Topics include social deviance research methods biological and physiological explanations personality types and family socialization processes The book also explores ecological and economic factors differential association and situational crime prevention cultural conflicts and immigration as well as stigmas group delinquency and juvenile delinquency

Social Problems Corey Dolgon, Chris Baker, 2010-08-03 In Social Problems A Service Learning Approach authors Corey Dolgon and Chris Baker integrate an innovative case study approach into a comprehensive introduction that helps students understand how they can address social problems in their communities by applying basic theories and concepts

Deviance and Crime Walter DeKeseredy, Desmond Ellis, Shahid Alvi, 2014-09-19 This book sensitizes the reader to the fact that there is substantial disagreement within the academic community and among policymakers and the general public over what behaviors conditions e g physical attributes and people should be designated as deviant or criminal Normative conceptions the societal reaction labeling approach and the critical approach are offered as frameworks within which to study these definitions A comprehensive explanation of theory and social policy on deviance is constructed

The Routledge International Handbook of Violence Studies Walter S. DeKeseredy, Callie Marie Rennison, Amanda K. Hall-Sanchez, 2018-10-30 Violence is a serious public health problem The number of violent deaths tells only part of the story and many more survive violence and are left with permanent physical and emotional scars Violence also erodes communities by reducing productivity decreasing property values and disrupting social services In recent years scholars have broadened their definitions of violence beyond the realm of interpersonal harms such as murder armed robbery and male to female physical and sexual assaults in intimate relationships to include behaviors often ignored by the criminal justice system such as human rights violations racism psychological abuse state terrorism environmental violations and war Guided by this broader definition of violence this handbook offers state of the art research in the field and brings together international experts to discuss empirical theoretical and policy issues
