in search of reliable information on Malaysian politics economics and society      Muslim Women (RLE Women and Religion) Freda Hussain,2020-07-26 The history of Islam and the changing role performance of Muslim women given the various interpretations of the belief system of Islam are described It is the contention of the authors that it is these various interpretations which have given rise to the conflict between the ideal and contextual realities This book also includes papers which investigate the problems of feminism and employment for Muslim women as well as the educational and legal aspects of their lives in contemporary Islamic society First published in 1984      Islam, Modernity and Entrepreneurship among the Malays P. Sloane,1998-11-23 The book is based on original research on the entrepreneurial leaders in the Malay community and on the author s own participation in Malay business ventures Sloane draws on her experience of working in Wall Street to analyse the ironies and contradictions in both the prevailing Western Asian and Malay definitions of entrepreneurship and the heroes of competing styles of capitalism      Women in Agriculture, 1979-July 1987 Jerry Rafats,1987      Elite Malay Polygamy Miriam Koftvedgaard Zeitzén,2018-09-14 Elite Malay women s polygamy narratives are multiple and varied and their sentiments regarding the practice are conflicted as they are often torn between personal and religious convictions This volume explores the ways in which this increasingly prominent practice impacts Malay gender relations As Muslims elite Malay women may be forced to accept polygamy but they mostly condemn it as women and wives as it forces them to manage their lives and loves under the threat of polygamy from a husband able to marry another woman without their knowledge or consent a husband that is married but available      Kelantan Malay and Traditional Chinese Perspectives on Middle-aged Women Douglas Raybeck,1983      Male and Female in Developing South-East Asia Karim Wazir Wazir,2021-03-10 This provocative book seeks to redress inaccuracies in Western perceptions of gender relations in Southeast Asia by bringing to the fore the area s ethnic and cultural variance and showing how women and men explain the informal and psychological dimensions of relationships as vital in holding family neighbourhood and kinship ties together Although there are differences between male and female perceptions of sex roles in society women perceive their situation as disadvantaged rather than less significant Male female interpretations of power and status tend to converge usually towards the understanding that the contributions of men and women are equally important in the formation of family and society      Women, Islam and Everyday Life Nina Nurmila,2009-06-10 This book examines Islam and women s everyday life focusing in particular on the highly controversial issue of polygamy It discusses the competing interpretations of the Qur anic verses that are at the heart of Muslim controversies over polygamy with some groups believing that Islam enshrines polygamy as a male right others seeing it as permitted but discouraged in favour of monogamy and other groups arguing that Islam implicitly prohibits polygamy Based on detailed fieldwork conducted in Indonesia it provides an empirically based account of women s lived experiences in polygamous marriages describing the different perceptions of the practice and strategies in dealing with it It also considers the impact of changing public policy in particular Indonesia s 1974

Marriage Law which restricted the practice of polygamy It shows that in fact this law has not resulted in widespread adherence and considers how public policy could be modified to increase its effectiveness in affecting behaviour in everyday life Overall the book argues that polygamy has been a source of injustice towards women and children that this is against Islamic teaching and that a just Islamic law would need to call for the abolition of polygamy Women Among Women Jeanette Dickerson-Putman, Judith K. Brown, 1998 Cross cultural in nature the volume looks at relationships between women of different age groups in a village in Taiwan a town in central Sudan a rural setting in western Kenya an Andean peasant community a horticultural village in Melanesia and an Aboriginal community in Australia Adding an interspecies perspective is a study of two age groups of Japanese macaque monkeys Included is an ethnographic bibliography that lists books with a wealth of information on women in sixty societies Islamic Modern Michael G. Peletz, 2018-06-05 How do Islamic courts work What sorts of cultural understandings inform judicial process and litigants strategies How do women s claims fare Do these courts promote social tolerance And how do states use them to consolidate power build nations and shape a modern citizenry These are among the questions addressed in this book which not only enhances our understanding of diversity among and within the world s Muslim communities but also provides ethnographic historical and transnational perspectives on contemporary Islam in the shifting landscape of a strategically important region of the world Focusing on Malaysia which has sustained more rapid development than probably any other Muslim nation Michael Peletz explores the culture political economy and history of Islamic courts He demonstrates that they are centrally involved in the creation and policing of new Malay Muslim identities such as middle class urban dwellers that the state sees as the basis for a national polity that will be highly competitive He also shows how and why Islamic courts are key sites in struggles involving ethnic and religious groups social classes political parties and others with a major stake in defining Islam s role with respect to the maintenance of sovereignty and the achievement of modernity and civil society in an age of globalization Peletz deepens our knowledge of Islamic political development in a country very much concerned with forging an Islamic modernity viewed by its leaders as a viable alternative to Western style modernization Feminism Undaunted: 50 Years As A Muslim Feminist Wazir Jahan Karim, 2025-06-12 Wazir Jahan engages the reader in absorbing stories from her childhood to retirement against a backdrop of events in Malaysia cultural academic and political which elucidates the complexities of being a Muslim feminist in a divisive Asian society Her narrative demonstrates that each woman can successfully negotiate the boundaries between patriarchy family and modernity if they believe that being a woman is synonymous with being a feminist that institutions which obstruct women s path to freedom can be challenged through recognising the power of individualism Jahan believes that once a woman understands what can work well for her within the limitations of her own achievements and resources she could be able to rise above these intimidations of life and actively engage in pursuing her dreams For Jahan femininity and feminism are complementary forms of activism which enabled her to gain acceptance and legitimacy for her work with disadvantaged and minority women Her frank and refreshing confessions of success and failures in her work on women and gender demonstrates confidence individuality and charisma a catharsis in the journey to discovering the power of womanhood

Women in Asia Barbara N. Ramusack, Sharon L. Sievers, 1999-06-22 Barbara N Ramusack writes on South and Southeast Asia surveying both the prescriptive roles and the lived experiences of women as well as the construction of gender from early states to the 1990s Although both regions are home to Hindu Buddhist and Muslim religious traditions and had extended trade relations they reveal striking differences in the status and roles of women and the processes of cultural adaptation Sharon Sievers presents an overview of women's participation in the histories of China Japan and Korea from prehistory to the modern period that provides a framework for incorporating women into world history classrooms It offers analyses on major issues derived from recent research and discusses such stereotypical cultural practices as footbinding long seen as exotic in the West in the context of women's lives Book jacket

World Changes in Divorce Patterns William Josiah Goode, 1993-01-01 This book examines trends in divorce throughout the world comparing previously inaccessible information on Asian and Arab countries and Eastern Europe as well as data from Latin America Western Europe and the Anglo countries over the last four decades It discusses how divorce rates in different countries are affected by industrialisation dictatorship civic standards for nations and easier divorce laws the relations between divorce and such factors as age and class the meaning of the worldwide rise in cohabitation and why people are becoming less likely to remarry

Religion, Values, and Development in Southeast Asia Bruce Matthews, Judith A. Nagata, 1986 This volume contains ten papers presented at the joint Conference of the Canadian Council for Southeast Asian Studies and the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Singapore in 1982 The contributors are each specialists in their given fields and teach in either Canada or Southeast Asia The essays cover a wide range of issues related to traditional and contemporary Southeast Asia They include anthropological economic linguistic legal and historical perspectives and focus on Malaysia the Philippines Thailand and Burma

The Continuing Demographic Transition G. W. Jones, R. M. Douglas, J. C. Caldwell, R. M. D'Souza, 1998-01-29 From the perspective of human society one of the most significant occurrences of the twentieth century has been the demographic transition the movement from tragic and wastefully high death and birth rates to low rates in many countries Many other countries however are still at only the early or intermediate stages of this process In these countries means need to be found to accelerate the transition This book brings new evidence to bear on aspects of the demographic transition with contributions from leading demographers anthropologists sociologists and historians The book ranges widely over the history and current experience of both developed and developing countries with particular emphasis on Asia and Africa The new field of anthropological demography is strongly represented with contributions challenging much conventional wisdom

Submitting to God Sylva Frisk, 2009 This study of the everyday religious practice of pious women within Kuala Lumpur's affluent Malay middle class reveals that women play an active part in the Islamization process by organizing and participating in public programs of religious education transforming the traditionally male dominated space of the mosque and breaking men's monopoly over positions of religious authority Sylva Frisk is a lecturer in the School of Global Studies at Gothenburg University Sweden Asian Futures, Asian Traditions Edwina Palmer, 2021-10-01 To what extent are our futures likely to be determined by our traditions from the past Asian Futures Asian Traditions is a collection of conference papers by scholars of Asian Studies who explore the topics of continuity and change in Asian societies through essays in history politics gender studies language literature film performance and music Recurring among the themes of the book are the invention and reinvention of tradition nostalgia issues of national and ethnic identity colonial heritage nationalism reform and the effects of globalizing economies Both the power and the precariousness of several Asian economies are revealed in studies of the Asian Economic Crisis of the late 1990s and the conversion of some communist states to market socialism
