concerned with development Bibliography pp 79 to 84 and photographs Empowering Women Carmen Diana Deere, Magdalena León, 2001-01-15 The expansion of married women's property rights was a main achievement of the first wave of feminism in Latin America As Carmen Diana Deere and Magdalena León reveal however the disjuncture between rights and actual ownership remains vast This is particularly true in rural areas where the distribution of land between men and women is highly unequal In their pioneering twelve country comparative study the authors argue that property ownership is directly related to women's bargaining power within the household and community point out changes resulting from recent gender progressive legislation and identify additional areas for future reform including inheritance rights of wives

Agrarian Women Deborah Fink, 1992 Agrarian Women challenges the widely held assumption that frontier farm life in the United States made it easier for women to achieve rough equality with men Using as her example the family farm in rural Nebraska from the 1880s until the eve of World War II

Does the UN Joint Program for Rural Women's Economic Empowerment (JP RWEE) deliver on its empowerment objectives? Quisumbing, Agnes, Gerli, Beatrice, Faas, Simone, Heckert, Jessica, Malapit, Hazel J., McCarron, Catherine, Meinzen-Dick, Ruth Suseela, Paz, Florencia, 2022-07-16 This paper compares the empowerment impacts of the UN Joint Program for Rural Women's Economic Empowerment JP RWEE in Ethiopia Niger Nepal and Kyrgyzstan using the Abbreviated Women's Empowerment in Agriculture Index A WEAI We assess the extent of empowerment and gender parity and decompose the sources of disempowerment separately for men and women and for beneficiary and control groups We then estimate program impacts on A WEAI and its component indicators and assess whether estimated impacts are consistent with the activities implemented by the program We interpret the quantitative results in the light of the qualitative studies undertaken as part of the impact evaluation Despite the diversity in country and cultural contexts in all four countries women are more disempowered than men although large proportions of men are themselves disempowered Excessive workload is the most common major contributor to disempowerment and so is lack of group membership The program had positive impacts on aggregate empowerment measures for program participants in Niger Nepal and Kyrgyzstan Nevertheless gender parity improved only in Nepal The group based approach was a clear contributor to women's empowerment in Ethiopia Nepal and Kyrgyzstan In Kyrgyzstan the GALS BALI approach contributed to impacts across almost all indicators of empowerment The positive impact of GALS and GALS BALI on men and women alike in Kyrgyzstan is consistent with emerging evidence that involving both men and women in gender transformative approaches rather than focusing on women alone may be key to effective and sustainable programs Although impacts on time use were insignificant in the quantitative study the qualitative work pointed out negative impacts emphasizing the unintended consequences of increased workload for women who participate in livelihood interventions

Rural Women's Sexuality, Reproductive Health, and Illiteracy Gisele Maynard-Tucker, 2014-12-11 Based on twenty five years of fieldwork Rural Women's Sexuality Reproductive Health and Illiteracy A Critical Perspective on Development examines rural women's behaviors towards health in several developing countries. These women are confronted with many factors: gender inequalities, violence from partners, and lack of economic independence. The book also gives insight into the general weakness of the health systems in place and questions the progress of numerous international conferences: ICPD (International Conference on Population and Development), MDGs (Millennium Development Goals), along with WHO (The World Health Organization) Framework for Action, UNFPA (United Nations Population Fund), and CEDAW (Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women), all supporting women's empowerment as related to violence, education, and reproductive health. Chapters provide numerous concrete examples and vignettes describing constraints on women in a variety of countries related to their intimate lives and their struggle between traditional and modern medicine. Widely practiced clandestine sex work is a challenge to HIV/AIDS programs. The book examines the women who choose clandestine sex work and their clients' sexual behavior and attitudes toward prostitution and HIV prevention. It also explores the negotiations between promiscuous migratory men and the ties of sexuality and fertility that women use to tie them to a male partner. The book argues for effective delivery of healthcare programs accompanied by multi-lateral responses from the civil society, governments, donors, and agencies. Rural Women's Sexuality, Reproductive Health, and Illiteracy is a useful resource for scholars as well as consultants and staff working in development agencies and public health. Rural Women at Work Ruth Dixon-Mueller, 2011

Representing Rural Women Margaret Thomas-Evans, Whitney Womack Smith, 2019-06-27
Representing Rural Women highlights the complexity and diversity of representations of rural women in the U.S. and Canada from the nineteenth to twenty-first centuries. The 15 chapters in this collection offer fresh perspectives on representations of rural women in literature, popular culture, and print, digital, and social media. They explore a wide range of time periods, geographic spaces, and rural women's experiences, including Mormon pioneer women, rural lesbians in the 1970s, Canadian rural women's organizations, and rural trans youth. In their stories, these women and girls navigate the complex realities of rural life, create spaces for self-expression, develop networks to communicate their experiences, and challenge misconceptions and stereotypes of rural womanhood. The chapters in this collection consider the ways that rural geography allows freedoms as well as imposes constraints on women's lives and explore how cultural representations of rural womanhood both reflect and shape women's experiences. Ethical Issues in Women's Healthcare Lori d'Agincourt-Canning, Carolyn Ells, 2019-04-02
This is an edited collection exploring ethical issues in women's health care. It includes topics related to reproduction but goes beyond this familiar theme to address clinical and social issues largely unrecognized in the bioethics literature. These include ethical issues related to the care of Indigenous women, uninsured refugees, and immigrants, rural women, women engaged in sex work, and those with HIV and perinatal mental health disorders. The collection analyzes the complex ways in which practice, policy, and institutional structures intersect and raise ethical issues affecting women's access to health care. Contributors comprise an interdisciplinary group of practitioners, including physicians, clinical ethicists, and nurses, as well
