Russell Hoban Omnibus:

A Russell Hoban Omnibus Russell Hoban, 1999 A Russell Hoban Omnibus presents four of Hoban's novels: the haunting The Lion of Boaz, Jachin and Boaz, the popular Turtle Diary which was made into a movie starring Glenda Jackson and Ben Kingsley, Pilgermann and his newest work Mr Rinyo Clacton's Offer, a brilliant Faustian comedy published here for the first time in the United States. Book jacket

Russell Hoban/Forty Years Alida Allison, 2014-04-08 This edited volume reviews the long career of Russell Hoban, an American writer residing in England who writes for children and adults. The Forty Years in the title refers to the length of Hoban's career to date. Hoban's contribution specifically to children's literature is commemorated in this volume of essays by international scholars.

Russell Hoban Graeme Wend-Walker, 2025-09-26 Spanning more than half a century, Russell Hoban's celebrated literary career won him critical accolades and legions of admirers across multiple genres. Many know him from the groundbreaking masterpiece Riddley Walker with its twelve-year-old protagonist contemplating what the idea of us might be from amidst the ruins of civilization. Others know Hoban from the genre-defying The Mouse and His Child or from idiosyncratic novels of floundering Londoners. Still others fondly recall Frances the Badger's refusal to go to bed or share Emmet Otter with their children at Christmas. This book, the first consideration of Russell Hoban's literary career as a whole, explores what binds these seemingly disparate works together. Discovering unexpected patterns between books written from what one character describes as a perpetual state of surprise, this critical study also draws on Hoban's biography from his formation as an artist under the influence of jazz in New York to the upheaval of his self-reinvention as a writer as it offers its own reflection on what the idea of Russell Hoban might be.

Frontiers in American Children's Literature Dorothy Clark, Linda Salem, 2016-02-29 Frontiers in American Children's Literature is a groundbreaking work by both established and emerging scholars in the fields of children's literature, criticism, history, and education. It offers 18 essays which explore and critically examine the expanding canon of American children's books against the backdrop of a social history comprised of a deep layering of trauma and struggle, redefining what equality and freedom mean. The book charts new ground in how children's literature is telling stories of historical trauma: the racial violence of American slavery, the Mexican Repatriation Act, and the oppression and violence against African Americans in light of such murders as in the AME Mother

Emanuel Church and the shooting of Michael Brown This new frontier explores how truth telling about racism oppression and genocide communicates with the young about violence and freedom in literature transforming harsh truths into a moral vision Frontiers in American Children s Literature will be an instant classic for fans of children s and adolescent literature American literature cultural studies and students of literature in general as well as teachers and prospective teachers Those interested in art history graphic novels picture book art African American and American Indian literature the digital humanities and new media will also find this volume compelling Authors and artists covered in these essays include Laurie Halse Anderson M T Anderson Paolo Bacigalupi Louise Erdrich Eric Gansworth Edward Gorey Russell Hoban Ellen Hopkins Patricia Polacco Ann Rinaldi Peter S s Lynd Ward and Naomi Wolf among others Essayists examine their subjects most provocative works on the topics of realistic depictions of slavery oppression and trauma and the triumph of truth in storytelling over these experiences From The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing to The Birchbark House from the graphic novel to picture books and the digital humanities in teaching and reading there is something for everyone in this collection Contributors include leaders in the fields of literature and education such as the award winning Katherine Capshaw and Anastasia Ulanowicz Margaret Noodin poet and leader in American Indian scholarship and education leads the essays on American Indian children s literature while Steven Herb Director of the Pennsylvania Center for the Book and an affiliate of the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress offers an insider s view of Caldecott Medal awardee Lynn Ward
