Bean, 2002-03-01 Focusing on anti chain store legislation beginning in the 1930s and on the establishment of federal small business agencies in the 1940s and 1950s Jonathan Bean analyzes public policy toward small business Beyond the Broker State challenges the long accepted definition of politics as the interplay of organized interest groups mediated by a broker state The Music in African American Fiction Robert H. Cataliotti, 2019-09-16 This is the first comprehensive historical analysis of how black music and musicians have been represented in the fiction of African American writers It also examines how music and musicians in fiction have exemplified the sensibilities of African Americans and provided paradigms for an African American literary tradition The fictional representation of African American music by black authors is traced from the nineteenth century William Wells Brown Martin Delany Pauline E Hopkins Paul Laurence Dunbar through the early twentieth century and the Harlem Renaissance James Weldon Johnson Langston Hughes Claude McKay Zora Neale Hurston to the 1940s and 50s Richard Wright Ann Petry James Baldwin Ralph Ellison and the 1960s and the Black Arts Movement Margaret Walker William Melvin Kelley Leroi Jones Amiri Baraka Henry Dumas In the century between Brown and Baraka the representation of music in black fiction went through a dramatic metamorphosis Music occupied a representative role in African American culture from which writers drew ideas and inspiration The music provided a way out of a limited situation by offering a viable option to the strictures of racism Individuals who overcome these limitations then become role models in the struggle toward equality African American musical forms for both artist and audience also offered a way of looking at the world survival and resistance The black musician became a ritual leader This study delineates how black writers have captured the spirit of the music that played such a pivotal role in African American culture Ph D dissertation State University of New York at Stony Brook 1993 revised with new preface and index God of the Oppressed James H. Cone, 1997-01-01 In his reflections on God Jesus suffering and liberation James H Cone relates the gospel message to the experience of the black community But a wider theme of the book is the role that social and historical context plays in framing the questions we address to God as well as the mode of the answers provided Conservatives Without Conscience John W. Dean, 2006-07-11 On the heels of his national bestseller Worse Than Watergate John Dean takes a critical look at the current conservative movement In Conservatives Without Conscience John Dean places the conservative movement's inner circle of leaders in the Republican Party under scrutiny Dean finds their policies and mind set to be fundamentally authoritarian and as such a danger to democracy By examining the legacies of such old line conservatives as J Edgar Hoover Spiro Agnew and Phyllis Schlafly and of such current figures as Dick Cheney Newt Gingrich and leaders of the Religious Right Dean presents an alarming record of abuses of power His trenchant analysis of how conservatism has lost its bearings serves as a chilling warning and a stirring inspiration to safeguard constitutional principles The Means of Reproduction Michelle Goldberg, 2009 The investigative journalist author of Kingdom Coming explores the ways in which restrictions against women's reproductive rights are directly linked to consequences in global development in a cautionary report that covers such topics as abortion, female circumcision, and human trafficking

Building Knowledge Cultures

Michael A. Peters, Tina Besley, 2006-04-24 This book develops the notion of knowledge cultures as a basis for understanding the possibilities of education and development in the age of knowledge capitalism. Knowledge cultures refers to the cultural preconditions in the new production of knowledge and their basis in shared practices embodying preferred ways of doing things often developed over many generations. These practices also point to the way in which cultures have different repertoires of representational and non-representational forms of knowing. The book discusses knowledge cultures in relation to claims for the new economy as well as cultural economy and the politics of postmodernity. It focuses on national policy constructions of the knowledge economy, fast knowledge, and the role of the so-called new pedagogy and social learning under these conditions.
