Longarm And The Poisoners:

Longarm #293: Longarm and the Poisoners Tabor Evans, 2003-03-25 Longarm is in a town where the deaths aren't natural and the poison isn't pretty. When a county commissioner claims that folks dying of natural causes have actually been murdered, Longarm thinks the man is seeing conspiracies in his sleep. But before he can give this well-connected fat cat the brush-off, U.S. Marshal Custis Long has to do his job and check it out. What Longarm finds is a town divided between two factions with him in the middle. It's a hard investigation so he saddles up with pretty little fillies who know how to treat a weary marshal right. But when Longarm realizes that the commissioner may not be telling tales, he's in so much trouble that he's going to have to live up to his reputation in spades. Longarm #293 Tabor Evans, 2003 Longarm and the Poisoners Tabor Evans, 2003 More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA Longarm #293 Tabor Evans, 2003-03-01 When a county commissioner claims that people dying of natural causes are actually being murdered, U.S. Marshal Custis Long doesn't believe him but has to check it out. Original Longarm 292: Longarm and the Lady Hustlers Tabor Evans, 2003-02-25 To catch these cons, Longarm will have to play by their rules. Rumor has it that Deputy Marshal Custis Long is now riding on the other side of the law, swindling ranchers and taking bribes just as cool as you please. But if folks don't only look closer, they don't notice the fake moustache and counterfeit badge and recognize the conman behind them. A motley crew of thieves, gamblers, and ladies of the night has just arrived in Ogallala looking to relieve the local bank of its contents. But their plan to have one of their men impersonate the lawman known as Longarm has a fatal flaw. The owlhoots never counted on running smack into Longarm himself. Rolling Thunder J. R. So when they reach their small town destination, the Gunsmith moseys over to the victim's digs only to find some very unwelcoming new tenants. Longarm Double #4 Tabor Evans, 2012-11-27 TWO CLASSIC LONGARMS IN ONE VOLUME LONGARM AND THE HIGHGRADERS Somebody's stealing the highgrade ore from the Murietta Mining Company and it's up to Longarm to get it back. But the legendary lawman's about to discover all that glitters is not gold, especially when it comes to a golden-haired lady rancher with a few plans of her own. LONGARM AND THE NESTERS At Jayhawk Junction, Kansas, a quarrel bursts into a full-scale range war between cowmen and nesters, the foreign farmers fencing in the wild prairie. When Longarm steps in to broker the peace, he gets tangled up with murder, greed, and a beautiful Czarist spy. The Black Widows of the Eternal City Craig A. Monson, 2020-09-21 The Black Widows of the Eternal City offers for the first time a book length study of an infamous case c l bre in seventeenth century Rome how it resonated then and has continued to resonate the 1659 investigation and prosecution of Gironima Spana and dozens of Roman widows who shared a particularly effective poison to murder their husbands This notorious case has been frequently discussed over 350 years but the earliest writers concentrated more on fortifying their reading constituency's shared attitudes than accurately narrating facts Subsequent authors remained largely content to follow their predecessors or keen to improve upon them Most recent writers and bloggers were unaware that their earlier sources were generally unconcerned with a correct portrayal of real events In the present study Craig A Monson takes advantage of a recent discovery the 1450 page notary's transcript of the 1659 investigation It is supplemented here by many ancillary archival sources unknown to all previous writers Since the story of Gironima Spana and the would be widows is partially about what people believed to be true however this investigation also juxtaposes some of the alternative facts from earlier sensational accounts with what the notary's transcript and other more reliable archival documents reveal Written in a style that avoids arcane idioms and specialist jargon the book can potentially speak to students and general readers interested in seventeenth century social history and gender issues It rewrites the life story of Gironima Spana largely unknown until now who has dominated all earlier accounts usually in caricatures that reiterate the tropes of witchcraft It also concentrates on the dozen other widows whose stories could be the most recovered from archival sources and whom Spana had totally eclipsed in earlier accounts Most were women of a very ordinary sort prostitutes beggars wives of butchers barbers dyers lineners innkeepers the kinds of women commonly lost to history The book seeks to explain why some women were hanged only six in fact most of whom may not have directly poisoned anyone while dozens of others who did poison their husbands escaped the gallows and in some cases were not even interrogated It also reveals what happened to these other alleged perpetrators whose fates have remained unknown until now Other purported culprits about whom less complete pictures emerge are briefly discussed in an appendix The study incorporates illustrations of archival manuscripts to demonstrate the challenges of deciphering them and illustrates scenes of the crime and other important locations identified on seventeenth century bird s eye perspective views of Rome and in modern photographs It also includes GPS coordinates for any who might wish to revisit the sites
