librarians with the resources needed to help their patrons use virtual reference sources with hands on learning activities exercises and assessment tools Research on Dictionary Use in the Context of Foreign Language Learning Yukio Tono,2012-05-10 The purpose of this book is to conceptualise the research on dictionary use within a more general overview of language learning It brings together some of the findings of studies on dictionary users and uses and shows how research into dictionary use can contribute to the improvement of dictionary design and the clarification of issues in language learning

The book also provides reports on a series of empirical studies on dictionary use in decoding activities reading comprehension and L2 L1 translation which will shed some light on the nature of the issues discussed throughout the book. The book falls into two parts. Part I Research on Dictionary Use State of the Art is as its title suggests a summary of previous studies to tease out relevant issues in each area of inquiry. Part 2 Empirical Studies reports on a series of studies the author has conducted in the past 15 years. The first three studies Chapter 5 6 and 7 investigate dictionary use in the broader context of language learning. The next four studies Chapter 8 9 10 and 11 report on a series of controlled experiments on the relationship between the macro and microstructure of the dictionary and reference skills. Finally the last two chapters Chapter 12 and 13 report the use of learner language data for a better lexicographical output.
