Luftwaffe Night Fighter Units 1939-45:

Night Fighter Aces of the Luftwaffe 1943-45 Neil Page, Jean-Louis Roba, 2025-06-30 Features color profiles by acclaimed aviation artist Claes Sundin The week long Allied bombing campaign against Hamburg in late July 1943 was not only hugely destructive but also had a significant impact on the German night fighter arm From now on the boxes of Kammhuber's Raumnachtjagd would be the starting point from which fighters would be led into the bomber stream as early as possible a tactic dubbed Zahme Sau The night fighters had to quickly adopt new freelance procedures and also found themselves increasingly engaged in daylight operations These actions resulted in heavy losses especially of experienced aces which the Nachtjagd could ill afford and struggled to replace The winter of 1943-44 saw a series of huge raids on Berlin Although hard pressed the Nachtjagd aces were still able to score some heavy tactical victories Over a thousand RAF Viermots were shot down more than double the expected losses before the campaign was cut short New night fighter aces emerged often former transport and reconnaissance pilots and the upward firing armament of the Bf 110s and Ju 88s could cut swathes through the stream However by mid 1944 as the Allies advanced the night fighter aces were forced into new roles including ground strafing armor and troop concentrations a role for which they were clearly unsuited A small number of Me 262 jets were deployed in a new NJG 11 but exclusively committed against the rapid twin engined Mosquitos of the RAF's Light Night Striking Force Heinkel He 219s were never available in significant numbers and prowling Mosquito intruders were an ever present danger to Nachtjagd crews While the surviving night fighter aces continued their defensive actions virtually every night by March 1945 the Nachtjagd was in terminal decline Of the 1,100 night fighter pilots and crew who claimed at least one victory some 669 were lost a casualty rate of around 74 percent Fully illustrated and featuring newly translated personal accounts this is a chronological account of the Luftwaffe night fighters in the second part of the war covering major campaigns the biographies of individual aces and the details of their aircraft Luftwaffe night fighter units, 1939-45 Jerry Scutts, 1978 Nachtjäger David P. Williams, 2021 This is a compendium edition of the much regarded and long out of print Nachtjagd volumes in the acclaimed Classic Colour series on the aircraft camouflage and markings of the Luftwaffe between 1933-1945 The book focuses on the operations and the aircraft of the Nachtjagd from its origins in the inter war years through its desperate and climactic battles against the massed raids of RAF Bomber Command from 1943 onwards The force evolved from using single seat Bf 109s to twin engined Bf 110s and Ju 88s with advanced radar equipment and weapons systems supported by a sophisticated ground reporting network It produced many leading night fighter aces such as Wolfgang Falck Heinz Wolfgang Schnauffer and Helmut Lent As the war progressed and the strategic situation began to tilt away from Germany's favor so ironically the pace of development quickened with the Luftwaffe introducing updated versions of the Ju 88 as well as new types such as the Do 217 and He 219 alongside the tactical innovation of Wilde Sau night fighting which saw the return of single seat Bf 109s and Fw 190s In the last desperate months of the war even the Me 262

was introduced as a night fighter in limited numbers Nachtjager is an important resource for modellers and students of Luftwaffe history providing a detailed narrative augmented by many photographs and specially commissioned color profiles

Aces of the Luftwaffe Peter Jacobs, 2014-09-03 A history of Nazi Germany's air force along with details of some of its most successful pilots World War II's air battles were fought ferociously and with extraordinary skill and courage on both fronts The fighter pilots of Luftwaffe the jagdflieger in fact outscored their Allied counterparts by some margin and were some of the highest scoring fighter pilots of all time More than a hundred recorded a century of aerial successes with two going on to surpass an astonishing 300 victories In the end the vast effort required by the Luftwaffe to maintain the air war on so many fronts proved too much Few jagdflieger survived the last days of the Reich But their ability was beyond question and the names of some will live on in the annals of air warfare with their extraordinary achievements never to be surpassed In Aces of the Luftwaffe Peter Jacobs examines the many campaigns fought by the Luftwaffe from its fledgling days during the Spanish Civil War to its last days defending the Reich and recounts the exploits of Erich Hartmann the highest scoring fighter pilot of all time Hans Joachim Marseille the Star of Africa Werner Molders the first recipient of the Diamonds and Adolf Galland perhaps the most famous of all

Luftwaffe Air & Ground Crew 1939-45 Robert F Stedman, 2012-11-20 The Luftwaffe honed in the Spanish Civil War played a vital part in Germany's Blitzkrieg victories in 1939-41 Badly overstretched by war on three fronts in 1942-44 it was crippled by an incompetent commander in chief the losses among experienced aircrew and shortage of fuel In 1944-45 it faced a final battle of attrition in skies ruled by the Allies as the Eastern and Western pincers closed on the Reich but until the very end the dwindling band of veteran pilots among them the greatest aces the world has ever known presented a potent threat This fact packed review of Luftwaffe uniforms and flying kit is illustrated with rare personal photos insignia charts and two dozen meticulously detailed colour figures
